Each other. Grocers and general store-keepers will find a profitable adjunct to their business in a line of our celebrated cigars. Once get a customer into the way of dropping in for a good cigar and you'll be surprised at the result. He comes in to buy only groceries and one of our fragrant LA CADENAS may catch his eye. He comes in for one of those satisfactory LA FLORAS to smoke on his way to the office and some new arrival in groceries tempts him into a purchase. See how it works? Profit both ways.

He may make a selection from other and less expensive brands such as

- EL PADRE
- MADRE E'HIJO
- CABLE EXTRA
- KICKER
- MUNGO

All of which sell well.

Mercantile Summary.

The Amherstburg Echo says that bogus $2 bills are in circulation just now in some localities. A number are printed "Province of Canada," instead of "Dominion of Canada."

The firm of Low & Rylance, at Smith's Falls, have dissolved partnership. J. W. Low continues, and in addition to the dry goods business on Beckwith st., he is refitting the store and placing a large stock of groceries in it.

An electric light and power company is talked of as being started with headquarters at Hopewell, N.S. It is claimed that 400 horse power or 500 can be had by damming the lakes. They purpose to put it in Westville, Stellarton, Ferrona and Hopewell.

In the year 1884 [John C. Eno,] formerly president of the Second National Bank, New York, left that city and escaped to Quebec, in order to avoid arrest on the charge of misappropriating $2,000,000. He remained there until a few weeks ago, when he returned to his native haunts, delivering himself to the District Attorney, when he was admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000. On Monday last, Judge Wallace, in the United States Circuit Court, ordered Eno's discharge from the custody of the State. His offence is against United States' laws, being a violation of the National Banking Act. Judge Wallace says that the laws of Congress which cover this subject are the paramount laws of the land and are necessarily exclusive of all State legislation. Eno is still under bail in the United States Circuit Court.
