

From the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the Danish
Minister at London

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th June 1935, and last renewed on the 4th June 1926, should be regarded as having been renewed in respect of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Commonwealth of Australia, New Zealand and all parts of the British Empire which are not separate members of the League of Nations on the one hand, and the Government of Iceland on the other.

I will be understood that in place of reference to the Permanent Court of Arbitration, as provided for in Articles 1 and 2 of the aforesaid Convention of the 25th October, 1905, the reference shall, in any case arising, be made to the Permanent Court of International Justice in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Statutes of that Court and in the Rules of Court adopted thereunder.

I have the honour to suggest that the present note and your reply in similar terms be regarded as constituting a formal agreement between His Majesty's Governments aforesaid, on the one hand, and the Government of Iceland on the other.

I have, etc.,

(For Iceland)

3. If this proposal is agreeable to His Majesty's Governments in the United Kingdom, Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia and New Zealand, I have the honour to suggest that the present note and your reply in similar terms be regarded as constituting a formal agreement between His Majesty's Governments aforesaid, on the one hand, and the Government of Iceland on the other.
