

- (iii) in the case of a request submitted by the Republic of South Africa, a record of the case comprised of a summary of the evidence available to the Requesting State, including identification evidence that would be sufficient to justify the committal for trial of the person sought, if the conduct had occurred in the Requested State. The record may include any report, statement or other relevant documentation.

A judicial or prosecutorial authority shall certify that the evidence summarized or contained in the record of the case is available for trial and is sufficient under the law of the Requesting State to justify prosecution; or

- (iv) in the case of a request submitted by Canada, a certificate issued by the prosecutor in charge of the prosecution of the case containing a summary of the available evidence and a statement that the evidence is sufficient under the law of the Requesting State to warrant the prosecution of the person sought.
- (c) in the case of a person sought for the imposition or enforcement of a sentence:
- (i) a statement by a judicial, prosecuting or corrections official describing the conduct for which the person was convicted and attaching a copy of the document that records the conviction and, where applicable, sentence of the person. This statement shall be certified by the judicial, prosecuting or corrections official to be accurate; and
 - (ii) if a portion of the sentence has already been served, a statement by a public official specifying the portion of the sentence which remains to be served.

2. In the case of a person convicted in absentia, the requirements relating to the submission of documents referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph 1 shall apply. If, however, it is established that the charge, containing notice of the date and place of trial, or the judgement rendered in absentia has been personally served on the person sought, and that person has not appeared or availed himself or herself of the rights to appeal and retrial, the requirements relating to the submission of documents referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (c) of paragraph 1 shall apply.

3. Any translation produced in the Requesting State of documents submitted in support of a request for extradition shall be admitted for all purposes in extradition proceedings.

ARTICLE 8

Authentication of Supporting Documents

Where the law of the Requested State requires authentication, documents shall be authenticated by a statement by the Minister responsible for Justice or a person designated by her or him under the seal of that Minister identifying the person who has signed the document, including that person's position or title.
