DECEMBER 1, 1983

VISIT OF THE HONOURABLE GERALD REGAN,
MINISTER FOR INTERNATIONAL TRADE,
TO NEW YORK

---

The Honourable Gerald Regan, Minister for International Trade, announced today that he will be visiting New York on December 5, 1983, to discuss Canada/USA trade and related issues with a number of senior business and media representatives.

While in New York the Minister will attend a breakfast meeting of the Center for Inter-American Relations and visit the editorial board of The Wall Street Journal. The Minister will then proceed to the Pierre Hotel where he will address a luncheon meeting of the National Foreign Trade Council.

On each of these occasions the Minister will concentrate on the state of Canada/USA trade relations and expectations for future trends and developments.
