

(1) "employment" means the relationship of employer and employee as defined in the Act and includes any relationship of a similar nature in which a person is employed or engaged to perform any service or work under the authority of the Government of Canada;

(2) "employer" means the person or body of persons who employ or engage a person to perform any service or work under the authority of the Government of Canada;

(3) "employee" means a person who is employed or engaged to perform any service or work under the authority of the Government of Canada;

(4) "union" means a trade union or association of employees formed for purposes that include the regulation of relations between employees and employers;

(5) "representative" means a person who is elected or appointed to represent the employees of an employer in respect of their relations with that employer and in respect of such matters as are mentioned in section 36 of this Act;

(6) "representative" means a person who is elected or appointed to represent the employees of an employer in respect of their relations with that employer and in respect of such matters as are mentioned in section 36 of this Act;

(7) "representative" means a person who is elected or appointed to represent the employees of an employer in respect of their relations with that employer and in respect of such matters as are mentioned in section 36 of this Act;

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
32
33
34
35
36
37
38
39
40
41
42
43
44
45
46
47
48
49
50