

less than 16,000 bushel lots and that such leases are in accordance with the permission already granted, the warehouse commissioner may authorize such shipper to take such means as are necessary or possible within the provisions of this Act and of the Inspection and Sale Act to preserve the identity of grain which he desires to ship through the elevators in which he holds leases of special bins.

5. The warehouse commissioner shall issue such instructions and regulations within the provisions of this Act and of the Inspection and Sale Act as are practicable and necessary for the preservation of the identity of grain which is being shipped by the shipper to whom permission has been given as provided in this section, using the bins specially leased in the several elevators as above provided for the storage and transshipment of such grain: Provided always that nothing in this section or in such instructions or regulations shall be construed to authorize the placing of grain of different grades in the same special bin in any terminal or transfer elevator.

6. An infraction of any of the instructions or regulations issued by the warehouse commissioner under this section shall be deemed to be an infraction of the provisions of this Act.

7. The provisions of the Inspection and Sale Act shall apply to grain specially binned in transit under the provisions of this section.

8. The provisions of this section shall have effect only from the fifteenth day of December in any year to the first day of September in the following year.
