

Jolly old St. Nick in Mountain parade

Santa's sleigh climbs huge snow drift

Reindeer hitch a ride with snowmobile

Well dressed gent

Saturday's frigid temperatures didn't stop about 300 people who turned up to watch the Mountain Township Santa Claus parade. Twelve floats were entered in this year's parade, three less than last year. Everyone's favorite, Santa Claus, was back. Pictured at right are, clockwise from top, some cool riders; Raggedy Anne; the King of the Beasts handing out candy; Santa Claus;

Winchester Lions feature giant wreath

Mountain Lions mascot