

There is particular urgency about the matter at the present time, as it is unlikely that the Empire Marketing Board will forward a further remittance until the statement of expenditures for the current year has been received, and owing to the present position of the E.M.B., it is essential that a further advance be secured as soon as may be feasible.

With kindest personal regards, I remain

Yours sincerely,

S.P. Eagleson,
Secretary-Treasurer.

SPE/DE