

AMERICANISM VERSUS BOLSHEVISM 299

children must be taught the truth, at home and in the schools. Our grown men and women must be made to realize the beauty, the utility, the superiority of our Government. In the near future—perhaps sooner than many of us believe—our solidarity, our loyalty, and our unity will be tested. When that time comes, God grant that you and I, and all of us, may have fulfilled our duty to our country and to one another.

We must know the truth—and carry it to every man, woman, and child in our land. With the truth in the hearts and souls of all of us we need have no fear, for truth is mighty and will prevail. The man of truth will dissipate the mists of falsehood and the right, the fair, the square, and the loyal will be successful. To believe otherwise would be to doubt God and good and to question the ultimate happiness and peace of humanity.

Again I say: This is our country and our Government. Let us cherish its institutions and ideals—let us stand by its laws; let us work for it, live for it, and—if necessary—die for it.

Sail on, O Ship of State!
Sail on, O Union, strong and great!
Humanity with all its fears,
With all the hopes of future years,
Is hanging breathless on thy fate!
