

- NEUROTIC CASES.—How neurotic cases should be dealt with (Wace), 190.
- NIGHTINGALE, E. G.—Delegate of American Volunteers in the C.E.F., Chicago.—Insufficient pension—Medical treatment—Pay and allowances to soldiers in hospitals, complaints of delay—Rate of exchange and loss thereby—Vocational training—Number of Canadian pensioners in United States—Comparisons re cost of living—Cites the Snyder case re pay and allowance—Administration of pensions in U.S.—Suggestions, 34-42.
- ODLUM, GENERAL VICTOR.—Re-establishment of demobilized men in fishing activities—Assistance suggested by way of loans, 650. Salmon and halibut fishing, 655.
- ORPHANS OF DECEASED C.E.F. MEMBERS.—Regulations re guardians and recommendations of G.W.V.A. therefor, 312. See also report of Committee re provision for education of orphans up to age of 21 years, 12.
- ORTHOPAEDIC AND SURGICAL APPLIANCES.—See Coulthard, R. W., and Dr. LeMesurier, 168; Dobbs, W. S., 174; Starr, Col. C. L. H., 222; Wace, Mr. C., 177.
- PARFITT, DR. C. D. AND COL. WM. M. HART.—Specialists in Tuberculosis and Members of the Board of Consultants.—Experiences—Sanatoria investigated—Number of tuberculous patients, and other statistics, 363. Symptoms, 367. Hygienic conditions in a sanatorium—Figures given re results of treatment, 367. The accepted point of view of causes of tuberculosis—City dwellers, 368. Relate treatment received and recovery, 368. Patients divided into groups for observation purposes, 369. Home industry suitable for such as are of 50 per cent working capacity, 371. Relapses, how to obtain a reduction of, after discharge from sanatorium, 372. Financial compensation, 373. Medical supervision, 374. Living and working conditions, 378. "Protected industry" for the tuberculous, defined, 378. Climatic conditions not an essential factor—Method of treatment a prime factor, 379. Pay for work accomplished should not be influenced by State compensation, 380.
- PARKINSON, N. F.—Deputy Minister Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment.—Policy of the administration and regulations re vocational students training—Disabled men in training—Employment—Pay and allowances, 574-578.
- PATTERSON, S.V.—Officer paying Imperial Pensions.—Administration of Imperial pension—Cases sent to England respecting pensioners in Canada for award to be fixed by Imperial Medical Officers, 674, 682.
- FAY AND ALLOWANCES.—Payments to soldiers in hospitals when delayed, causes distress in the families (Nightingale), 34. Allowance for travelling expenses when pensioners are requested to be medically examined (Ahern), 296. (Margeson), 297.
- PECK, V.C., M.P., C. W.:—Canadian and Japanese Fishermen, proportion of, in British Columbia, 617. Licenses for gill-net fishing—Boat building—Row-boats and cost of, with gear—Motor-boats desirable—Fishing season, length of—Financial returns, 617-618. Number of demobilized men who might be re-established in fishing activities, 619. Solmon and halibut fishing—Traps—Depletion of the Fraser River fisheries, cause of, 621. The purse-seine boat—Recruiting of a naval reserve from the fishing population, 621. Control of coast fisheries, suggestions, 622.
- PENSION ACT.—General Working out of the Act (Col. Thompson), 43. Amendments of the Pension Act, as proposed by the Pension Board (Mr. Ahern and Mr. Burgess), 57. Recommendations and suggestions presented and considered: Of the Vancouver Association of Widows, Wives and Mothers, 73. Of the Citizens League of Winnipeg, 74. Amputations Associations, 73, 76. Tuberculosis patients, 75. Veterans of France Association, 72. Great War Veterans, Association, 75. Proposed amendments of Pension Board further considered. See also Morris, Philip H., 684; Reid, Miss Helen R. Y., 235; Anderson, John, 164; Willing, H. B., 656, 670.
- PENSIONERS.—Number of C.E.F. pensioners in United States (Ahern), 37. Total number of pensioners and yearly liability therefor (Col. Thompson), 43, 44. Disability pensioners of the South African War (Col. Mulloy), 208. Imperial Pensioners, membership of, in Canada (Willing), 656. See also Addenda.
- PENSIONERS, TOTALLY DISABLED AND HELPLESS.—What the Act stipulates regarding maximum amount payable to, 321. Certain requirements accepted by the Pension Board qualifying a pensioner to receive additional pension, 322. What is proposed by way of increasing amount to a totally disabled and helpless pensioner, 322-323.
- PENSIONERS.—Widows, and other Dependents. See Third and Final Report of the Committee, 6-11.
- PROBLEM CASES.—Report of sub-Committee appointed to investigate problem cases, 756.
- PYPER, J. R.—Ste. Agathe Sanatorium, representing Tuberculous Patients.—Issue of clothing—Extension of free medical treatment—Recommendation re expenses of removal of family and household effects—Housing and cottages, 272-279. Vocational training for tuberculous men—Tuberculosis specialists investigation conditions in Sanatoria—Suggestion 279-282.
- RAWLINSON, J. H. (BLIND).—A Delegate of the Amputation Club, Toronto.—Recommendation re increase of pension to widows and dependent children of deceased soldiers, 77. Present rate of pension does not provide maintenance for the seriously disabled pensioner and his dependents—Suggests increase to $1,200 per annum for total disability, 77. Attendant's allowance, in case of helpless pensioner, 79. Recommendation re dependent who had married after appearance of disability or after discharge from the Forces, 82.
- REA, LOUISA C.—Widow of Veteran, South African War.—Statement of case presented by G.W.V.A., Dominion Secretary re Imperial pension, and requesting consideration for supplementary pension, 212.