

- pipe-stems
 ds at, 166
 174
 of the Ara hammer,
 erica? 507 ;
 ers, 507
 outh of the ne mortars
 ells from,
 Builders, pottery at,
 eo, 3 315 very of a cemeteries ation, 511
 places, 69
 94
 y of the h baskets iro, 114
 ville, 115
 ear Nash-25
 m sepul-mounds, ound, 152
 m, 154 ounds, of mounds 3
 at Zolli-
 m stone
 6
- Tenochtitlan, founding of, 285
 Tepanecs (the), 11
 Tierra del Fuego, shell-heaps, 47
 — cannibalism amongst the tribes
 of, 62, 63
 Teul, hatchet from near, 22
 — skull from, 499
 Tezcuans (the), 281
 Tezcuco, 288, 360
 Tiaguanaco, ruins of, 400
 Tiger, veneration of the, in Honduras,
 7
 Tijuco (Brazil), inscription on rocks
 of, 470
 Tin, amongst the Mexicans, 381 Titicaca, island in Lake Titicaca, the sacred island of the Peruvians, 406 ;
 the birthplace of Manco-Capac and Elio, 407 ; ruins on, 407 ; buildings erected by Tupac-Tupanqui, the eleventh Inca, 408
 Titicaca Lake, chulpas near, 426 ;
 near Tiuhuani, 426
 Tiuhuani (Peru), chulpas near, 426 Tolan or Tula, the capital of the Toltecs, 12
 Toltecs, the, 12, 271 ; conquered Anahuac about the sixth century of our era, 271 ; Quetzacoatl, 274 ; religious wars, 274 ; characteristics of the Toltecs, 275 ; their knowledge of the useful arts, 276 ; their commerce, 276
 — their jewelry and ornaments,
 276 ; their weapons and armor, 277 ; cremation practised among the higher classes, but the dead of the common people were buried, 277 ; human sacrifices, 277 ; government, 278 ; marriage custom, 278 — traditions of the magnificence of their palaces, 278 ; conquered by the Chichimecs, 283
 Toolesborough (Iowa), alleged South
 American shell in mound at, 113
 Topinard (Dr.), Table showing capacity of skulls of modern races, 491 — perforation of the humerus as a racial characteristic, 495 Trenton (N. J.), palaeolithic implements in the drift near, 20
 Trepanned skulls from Yucay valley
 (Peru), 509 ; from Sable and Red River mounds and from mounds in Michigan, 510 ; trepanning only practised on adult males, 510 ; tre-panned skulls in Europe, 510
- Troana manuscript, 379
 Tula, ruins of, 355
 Tunga (Peru), ruins near, 461
 Tupi, see "Guarani"
 Tupis, the, inhabit Brazil, 9
 Turtle mound, a shell-heap near Smyrna, 48
 Tzomes, the dog of Yucatan, 3 United States of Colombia, the ancient state of Cundinamarca and the home of the Chibchas, 459
Ursus Americanus, 4
Ursus ferox (grizzly bear), 4
 Uruguay, inscriptions of, not attributable to the Guaranis, 471
 — weapons and implements, 475
 Utah, mounds in, 93
 — sepulchral mounds in, 116
 — pottery in sepulchral mounds, 151
 — ancient agricultural implements, 171
 — discovery of corn in a mound of,
 183
 Uxmal, ruins of, 333, 334 Vancouver Island, veneration of the squirrel in, 8
 — shell-heaps, 52
 — mounds in, 83
 Veneration of animals, 7
 Vermont, ancient pottery in, 136
 — large vases from, 155
 — copper pipe stems from Swanton, 165
 — stone ornament from Swanton,
 174
 Vera Cruz, deformed statuettes from,
 512
 Vilcabamba, megaliths of, 424
 Virginia, caves as burial-places, 69
 — sepulchral mound at Grave Creek, 116
 — pipe from, 165
 — shell ornaments from Grave Creek mounds, 172
 — shell pin from Ely mound, 174
 Votan, legend concerning, 264
 Washington Territory, mounds near Olympia, 106
 Weapons of the aborigines, 16 ; (see
 "Weapons of the Mound Builders")
 Weapons of the Mound Builders, 169 ;
 serpentine axes from Ohio, 169, 170 ; serpentine implement from Tennessee, 170 ; the Mahquahwil,