

intercourse with this wretched people, to abstain from new wars with them? Is the tragedy of Florida to be acted again and again in our own day and in our children's?"

"But one thing does move me. It is a sore evil, that freedom should be blasphemed, that republican institutions should forfeit the confidence of mankind, through the unfaithfulness of this people to their trust."