

NEW BOOKS.

FAUST. A Tragedy by JOHANN WOLFGANG VON GOETHE. Translated in the Original Metres by BAYARD TAYLOR. 2 vols. post 8vo, 24s.

"This translation, begun twenty years ago, has evidently been a labour of love. Mr. Taylor has by no means sought to evade any difficulties. He has neither stooped to prose nor used arbitrary forms of versé, but has endeavoured to preserve at once both the meaning and the metres of the original. None can doubt that this is the true artistic form of translation for poetry. . . . No scanty specimens culled here and there could give a fair impression of the translator's merits. Careful and conscientious work is seen everywhere, and the errors of former translations have been well corrected."—Athenæum.

FERNYHURST COURT. An Every-Day Story. By the Author of "Stone Edge." Crown 8vo, 6s.

SHIRLEY HALL ASYLUM. By WILLIAM GILBERT. New Edition, crown 8vo, 10s. 6d.

THE ECCLESIASTICAL POLITY OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

A Study for the present Crisis in the Church of England. By the Rev. G. A. JACOB, D.D., late Head Master of Christ's Hospital. Post 8vo, 16s.

"Dr. Jacob has for his object to direct the attention of English Churchmen to the really primitive forms of Christian ordinances as they may be gathered from the New Testament itself. In the course of seven chapters, he reviews the Scriptural and earliest Patristic evidence on the points at issue, and it should especially be pointed out how flimsy many of the superstitious claims he controverts are made to appear when, as a cool, but ripe scholar, he examines in the original the Scriptural texts by which it is endeavoured to support them. The eighth chapter is entitled 'Application and Conclusion,' and is very sensible and very temperate."—Westminster Review.

PEEPS AT THE FAR EAST. A Familiar Account of a Visit to India.

By NORMAN MACLEOD, D.D. With numerous illustrations. Small 4to, cloth gilt extra, 21s.

"It would be difficult to point out in our popular literature a book which in anything like the same compass conveys so full or so instructive a knowledge of British India. With the same charm of companionship which won his way to the hearts of every class, Dr. Macleod seems to carry us with him, in a delightful round of travel and observation, through Madras and Calcutta to Benares, Cawnpore, Lucknow, Agra, and Delhi."—Saturday Review.

THE SONGSTRESSES OF SCOTLAND. By SARAH TYTLER and J. L.

WATSON. 2 vols. post 8vo, 16s.

"There are few readers who will not find something to attract them in these interesting volumes."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"Our readers will find in these attractive and useful volumes more subjects of interest than in a whole circulating library of novels."—Athenæum.

WALKS IN ROME. By AUGUSTUS J. C. HARE. 2 vols. crown 8vo, 21s.

"The best handbook of the city and environs of Rome ever published. . . . Cannot be too much commended."—Pall Mall Gazette.

BENONI BLAKE, M.D. By the Author of "Peasant Life in the North."

2 vols. crown 8vo, 21s.

"Whether the reader likes fresh country life, subtle analysis of character, good-natured railery, and caustic little bits of downright fun, any or all of them he will find in 'Benoni Blake, M.D.'"—Spectator.

HEROINES IN OBSCURITY. A Second Series of "Papers for Thoughtful Girls."

By SARAH TYTLER. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt extra, 5s.

"We have over and over again heard parents speak something in this style: 'We are at no loss for books for our boys: there are Mr. Smiles' volumes, and some others; but where to look for a good girls' book, a good companion to a young lad; just leaving school, we know not, and would be glad for any one to help us.' This complaint need no longer be heard. Miss Tytler's two books are exactly of the kind desiderated, and may with all confidence be recommended at once for their lofty moral tone, and their real artistic qualities, which combine to make them equally interesting and instructive."—Nonconformist.

ESSAYS, THEOLOGICAL AND LITERARY. By R. H. HUTTON.

2 vols. post 8vo, 24s.

"Well worth reading by all who value kindly sentiment and delicate appreciation of the literary and theological tendencies of the age."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"These volumes will gain what they richly deserve—a high place in English literature."—British Quarterly Review.

"These volumes are the work of a very vigorous and independent thinker, who is deeply in earnest in his search after truth, who is thoroughly aware of the critical nature of our times, their rapid changes of opinion and feeling, and the important issues with which they are pregnant. Both where we agree and where we differ from the writer, we feel that he has done good service in a good cause."—Guardian.
