

"SERMONS OUT OF CHURCH,"

By MISS MULOCK.

Author of "John Halifax, gentleman," &c, Cloth $1.00 ;
paper, 75 cents.

BELFORD BROTHERS, Publishers,

11 COLBORNE STREET TORONTO.

"This is a book that we can conscientiously recommend to our readers. Those who have read "John Halifax" will recognize with pleasure Miss Mulock's pleasant style in her serious mood all through these sermons. They are six in number, and are devoted to important and suggestive subjects. In this age, when, notwithstanding the death of most of the great novelists, a fresh novel appears every day, it is a relief to turn to something serious, sensible, instructive and well written—a something that will repay perusal, and not send one away weary and disgusted. Those who have undergone the infliction of "Bluebell" and kindred rubbish, will find a balm in Miss Mulock's "Sermons out of Church."—The Toronto Nation,

"Sermons Out of Church," by the author of "John Halifax." Six sermons are comprised in this volume, upon "What is Self-Sacrifice?" "Our Often Infirmities," "How to Train up a Parent in the Way he Should Go," "Benevolence—or Beneficence?" "My Brother's Keeper," "Gather in the Fragments." They should gain many readers.—The Publisher's Weekly.