Cut Out Technicalities;

Personally. I feel that the majority should rule, and that a big project like this should not be blocked by a tech-nicality if the majority of the council wish it to go thru. If nobody else will myself at next council meeting. I take this stand in order that the council may have the opportunity of expressing itself which is otherwise denied it. I will be at liberty to move for reconsideration and then oppose the project if I wish, when the vote is taken. It is a matter of simple justice that members should be given the opportunity to put themselves on record. If the project is de-seated, citizens will no longer be able to criticize the method of its defeat. If it passes, it will be by a majority vote, and I believe that the majority should

The board of control will have the question before them this morning at 11, and a special meeting may be called to deal with it in council.

Political Intelligence

West Lambton Conservatives will hold their convention in Petrolea tomorrow at 2 p.m. Hon. W. J. Hanna provincial secretary, who has represented this riding since 1902, will be the principal speaker.

On the evening of Trafalgar Day, to morrow, Hon. W. J. Hanna will give an address to the Sons of England in Sarnia. Mr. Hanna will be at the convention at Petrolea the same afternoon.

. Its pro-reciprocity campaign in Can-Add. McCausland has also put himself a tecord as anxlous to escape from a terely technical situation. If the public desire is for annexation, it should be lowed expression, he thinks, and he is ben-minded enought to see that the litation has changed considerably in the last week or two.

annexation, and that this would be demonstrated if a vote could be had. A tote could be had. A tote, however, cannot be taken unless some one who voted against annexation moves for reconsideration of the nestion.

The Conservatives of North Brant feel that in John W. Westbrook they have chosen a strong candidate for the legislature. He is well known thruout the riding and is reeve of Brantford Township.

It looks as if Hon. J. S. Hendrie is going to have a fight in West Hamilton. W. Madison Hicks of Brantford, a former member of the labor party in the Australian parliament, is mentioned as Col. Hendrie's opponent.

Col. J. J. Grafton, chairman of the Burlington Beach Commission. Will probably be offered the nomination of the Conservatives of North Wentworth. If Col. Grafton declines, it seems likely that William Lawson, warden of the county, will be asked to run.

If Col. Grafton declines, it seems likely that William Lawson, warden of the county, will be asked to run.

H. Regan may be the choice of the South Wentworth Conservative Association, but others prominently mentioned for nomination are Daniel Gallagher, reeve of Barton, and E. D. Smith, a former M.P.

East Eigin Liberals have decided to protest the election of David Marshall. M.P., alleging that bribery and corruption were used to elect the Conservative candidate.

If Col. Grafton declines, it seems likely that the structure could be constructed by utilizing the gaol labor near at hand, and in this way the cost could be minimized.

in the forthcoming Ontario general elections. It is known that a meeting was held this afternoon in the Bowman House here, which was attended by leading Liberal workers in South and North Waterloo, at which it was decided to enter the fray. In North Waterloo there is a likelihood of a three-cornered fight, ex-Mayor Alian Huber this afternoon announcing himself as a candidate.

APPROVES CONCRETE VIADUCT.

Board thinks one is enough, and the question will be decided at the meeting of the board to-night.

The probabilities are that Mr. Bishop will be given authority to secure the services of a high-grade man, whose duties will be to look after caretakers and repairs, the success of which he will be held entirely responsible for. This will take a heavy load off the shoulders of the superintendent and greatly facilitate the work of his office.

Rolling in the Athenaeum A League last night the Aberdeens won two from the Alaska team, losing the middle string when the Alaskas put in their best total for the alght.

Billy McMillan, the anchor of the Aberdeens, was high man with 631, rolling 237, and 224 for his first and third games respectively.

In the B League the Eatons No. 2 won all three from the C.C.U. aggregation, Bill Stanley with 555 being high man.

The Eaton No. 4 team took the odd game from the champion Kodak team in the Mercantile League. Little Freddie Stevenson was there with bells, spilling the wood for a 636 count. The scores:
