

SOME BIG PURPOSE BEHIND SACRIFICES

English Minister Preaches Mc-
Master Baccalaureate Sermon.

NEW DOCTRINE OF MAN

Sufferings at the Front, Consummation of That at Calvary.

"I say reverently, God damn the culture that has for its understanding poisonous gas and liquid fire, and the world without culture would be better than a propaganda of frightfulness."

This statement was made by Rev. John Charles MacMaster, of Folkestone, England, during the course of the McMaster University baccalaureate sermon at the Jarvis Street Baptist Church last evening. He pointed out that there were three kinds of religion. Wonder, Wisdom and Christ crucified. Two had proved a failure and the only true kind was Christ crucified. He maintained that life would never be as simple as an old woman's tale. "It is a Great Adventure," he said, "and we with wisdom know not God. Wisdom develops a cold exposition of the world, and has no word of inspiration for the men in the mud and the blood of the trenches. Agnosticism as a religion is dead. Wisdom as a religion is dead. What then remains? Christ crucified is the highest that the world has ever known. Right may be crucified, but right cannot be conquered. Right is right as surely as God is God and right must win. Christ crucified: it is the revelation of the truest and the best in the heart. It is the basis of the new life of the world. If I have any message to bring to you it is that you should live in the light of Christ crucified. We have learnt something during the last four years. In pre-war times life became very prosaic and God was unknown, but now we have come to see the best in manhood. I do not mean to say that the modern sacrifice of our boys on the battle field is like Calvary, but I do say that the sacrifice on the battle field today is the consummation of the sacrifice of Calvary for the light of the world."

New Doctrine of Man.
He maintained that there would come a time when there would be a new doctrine of man, when man would be judged, not at his best, nor his worst, but at his truest. He pointed out that the Jews earlier in history worked out a religion in symbols and colors and the ritual and the symbolism were so complex and elaborate that it ceased to be of moral value, and the later philosophers decided on the wisdom of God against the ritual, but the Jews saw the wonder works of God and crucified Him. "And then on the cross they asked the impossible. They said: 'You have saved others, now save yourself and us.' No one can do that for he who saves his life must lose it, while he that would be the redeemer of the world must die. Religion is wisdom for it gives us a possible theory, and it gave us at last a dim conception of what might be." Speaking of the sacrifice of the men at the front, he stated that he could not conceive any government of the world that would not have some great purpose to achieve by the sacrifice of those men.

SPLENDID RECORD OF TWO YEARS' WORK

Reports of two years' work of the Toronto Patriotic League were given at a general meeting held yesterday at 80 West King street, the record showing an aggregate of strenuous effort on the part of the members and an altogether wonderfully generous response on the part of the public. It was a matter of general regret that Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, who from the formation of the league had been president, was obliged to retire owing to ill-health. A vote of appreciation of the zeal and untiring activity of Mrs. Cummings in the work of the league was moved by Mrs. Van Koughnet and seconded by Mrs. Pepler.

The general financial report presented by Mrs. Hamilton Burns told of receipts $106,088.14, with expenditures $105,213.41, with a balance on hand of $874.73. From the Belgian relief receipts were $106,194.45, making the total receipts $211,282.59. The number of articles of Red Cross supplies amounted to 3,213,779, from 270 circles given since last general report. Classes in first aid had been established and had done splendid work under Dr. Margaret Patterson. The organization was the first to ask for Christmas stockings, and the knitting department of the league had an output of 7,000 pairs of socks. The list of soldiers' comforts which was read by Mrs. Van Koughnet was almost exhaustive, covering an approximate value of $361,123.75. The report of the Belgian relief, read by Mrs. Pepler, showed that $353,953.49 had been raised in cash and supplies.

Addresses were made by Miss Joan Arnold, who spoke of the continuous need for socks and other comforts; and by N. F. Davidson, K.C., who said that food conservation should be an emergency measure with women during the next four months.

Trestrail (a traveling man), May Anderson Trestrail (a woman with a sad past), T. Gordon Smith (the man following her), and other sketches were "Sixty's Baby," "Petticoat Perfidy," and "In Honor Bound." In entering this plea, I wish to contradict a report that my client has any connection with the case of Louis Maynard. It is absolutely false," asserted Mr. Lennox. He further stated that any report to the effect that Gaigon had tampered with crown witnesses was also wrong.
