BOMB TO THROW WITH PIN PULLED

President Flynn Has Surprise Ready for West Toronto G. W. V. A.

President H. J. Flynn of the United Veterans' League will address a mass meeting of returned men tonight in the city park on Bloor street, near Lansdowne avenue. President Flynn's address is an article by a Mr. J. V. Conroy, and among the many statements he makes is one concerning the "imperialism" as he states that his, and also my society got them the same post-discharge pay as the Canadians. Now I think in fairness to all the imperialists, this should be settled once and for all, as up to the present I have not got any, and have yet to meet one who has got it. What happened was this. Some while ago a paper published that thanks to the G. W. V. A., the imperialists in Canada would get the same post-discharge pay as the Canadians, so myself with hundreds of others made our way down to the pay office in the World Building, and were given forms to fill out. Having done this we handed them in to another department, and at the end of about ten days got a very nice letter from a Capt. Kimpton, thanking me for my application, but informing me that I am NOT ENTITLED to any gratuity for imperial service as it is only for men who had joined the C. E. F. and were later transferred to the imperial army.

DENY THAT OFFICERS RETAINED WITH PAY

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 22.—The militia department today issued an unequivocal denial of the statements contained in a news despatch from St. Catharines, Ontario, and said to have been made at a mass meeting of veterans at Merritt, Ont., the departmental statement in parts follows: "Officers and other ranks are treated alike with respect to the date of being struck off strength. "With regard to officers of senior rank, in a very few cases such officers were employed for a short period in Canada on special duty. They were struck off immediately on conclusion of such duty. In another small class of cases general officers were necessarily continued on strength for a short time in order to clear up details in connection with their commands. The pay of a brigadier-general is not $25 a day, but from $12 to $15 per day, according to the nature of the duties performed."

SECRETARY CONROY EXPLAINS.

J. V. Conroy, secretary G. W. V. A. (Toronto district), writes The World as follows: "I should be obliged if you will be good enough to correct the statement which appeared in The Toronto World on Saturday, Sept. 20, which, in large headlines, quotes me at a meeting of the East Toronto branch at Snell's Hall as stating: 'No alternative but immortality.' "If the government refuse to grant her (the widow) a full pension there is no other alternative for the woman but to lead an immortal life." This is misleading and would convey an impression which is not intended. "My statement, when dealing on pensions, was to the effect that the pension allowances are altogether insufficient, and if they were not made commensurate with the cost of living no alternative would be left to this gallant woman but to turn and work at some job and in that way augment her income, which would be unimpaired to leave her children to the care of her neighbors, and at the end of her daily work take up her household duties, etc., under such conditions otherwise she would be forced into an uncongenial marriage to have a respectable home and living for her children and herself. Finding this the fault which was with the government if she were forced into an immortal life. "I have too much respect for these brave women who have done their best in this war, and who deserve the very best from everybody, and would be the last man in the world to make a statement which would reflect detrimentally on them, but rather shall leave no stone unturned to fight on their behalf."

HON. H. J. CODY TO SPEAK

Hon. H. J. Cody, minister of education, will be the principal speaker at Ward 2 Liberal-Conservative Association meeting tonight in Victoria Hall. In view of the renewed activity in political circles this meeting should be of unusual interest. A special invitation is extended to ladies to be present.

RUN DOWN BY TRUCK

Norman Ludford, aged seventeen years, 23 Kippendavie avenue, had his thigh fractured last night when he was run down by a motor truck on East Queen street near Princess. The boy was riding a bicycle and becoming confused by a car which he was following he swerved in front of the truck. The police ambulance removed him to the General Hospital.

the best interests of Canada as he saw it. Those interested, Mr. McKenzie added, that he always respected Mr. Cochrane because he believed him to be a firm party man, and representing what is best in his party. The solicitor-general presented a bill to amend the Dominion by-elections act of 1913. The bill provides that where there are any qualifications as against any particular race, that qualification shall be continued in the case of a by-election. The bill really raised, Mr. Guthrie added, the question of the oriental vote.

Treaty With Austria. Hon. C. J. Doherty, replying to a question by Mr. L. A. Laidlaw, stated that the treaty of peace between the allies and Austria followed in general the lines of the treaty with Germany. In the most important features, namely, the league of nations covenant and the labor sections, the treaty with Austria was, he said, identical with that with Germany. If the authentic copy of the treaty arrived in time, the government would submit it to parliament at the present session. If it did not, the government would not feel justified in summoning another special session for that purpose, but would wait until the responsibility of advising its ratification.

Housing for Soldiers. The house then took up a resolution of H. M. Mowat, advising government assistance for the erection of houses in model towns and garden cities for returned soldiers. Mr. Mowat attributed a certain amount of the unrest among returned men to their inability to find homes in the large cities. In the city of Toronto some of them with wives and children were forced to live in very restricted accommodations. There would be a better chance for the returned man to settle down and become a useful citizen if he were given a good home in pleasant surroundings where he could either do his work at home or in the city. This plan would also accelerate the return to health of disabled and invalided veterans.

The Globe

Some of us may live to see the day when as a result of this great measure (Confederation) a great and powerful people may have grown up on these lands—when boundless forests all around us shall have given way to smiling fields and thriving towns—and when one united Government, under the British flag shall extend from shore to shore.—George Brown.

Peter McArthur's "Letters" and "Cartoons in Words" appear several times a week.

THE memory of Robert Jaffray is still green. Following George Brown, his personality dominated The Globe. From 1888 to 1914 his presidency of The Globe emphasized its leadership in Canadian journalism, and laid broad and deep the foundation of The Globe's commercial success.

Robert Jaffray's devotion to Liberalism was conditional on that party's devotion to policies for the development of Canada and the betterment of Canadian life.

In this, and in his generous attention to the up-building of The Globe's news gathering organization, Robert Jaffray carried on the task the founder set for himself in 1844.

The Globe is not, and never will be, a party or political organ. It is a Great Family Newspaper. Throughout its long career it has possessed strong, courageous, upright men to carry on its policy of unswerving advocacy of the rights of the people.

The "Big Interests" have never influenced its decisions—nor gained the slightest control over its policies.

As the principal stockholder of The Globe, Robert Jaffray showered his care and attention upon the paper—building up its departments, giving them greater scope, being constantly in touch with its editors on all matters relating to The Globe's policy on political and general questions. When death called Robert Jaffray, on Dec. 15th, 1914, he left The Globe bigger and better for what he had done to further George Brown's ideal.

To-day its President, Mr. W. G. Jaffray, and The Globe directors and staff, are carrying on its affairs with a view to increasing its wide circle of influence—giving it more and more a place in every Canadian home.

The Globe can give no greater guarantee of its integrity than this, not that it doubts its readers' belief in its sincerity, but its publishers wish to impress upon all readers and prospective readers that their sole ambition is to produce a newspaper in keeping with the wishes of its founder, and thereby continue to deserve a place in every Canadian home.
