His deeper numbers were given with great distinction, however, and Mr. Kelley Cole proved himself an artist of no mean ability.

Mrs. Le Grand Reed must have been delighted with her personal reception, which was most enthusiastic and flattering, and which was certainly well-deserved. Her pure, clear voice showed to great advantage thruout the whole of an exacting program, and her charming and gracious manner won encomiums on all sides.

Her first number was the "Jewel Song" from Faust, which won Mrs. Reed so many favorable notices in New York, and which displays so well her distinct enunciation and powers of expression.

Admission is by invitations, which may be procured at the Conservatory of Music office.

Karl Grienauer is one of the most finished cellists Toronto has heard for some time. He created a most favorable impression in his first number, a group consisting of Liszt's "Dreams of Love," Massenet's "Prelude" and Popper's "Hungarian Rhapsodie," an impression which only deepened thruout the evening, His cello obligatos for Mrs. Reed were exquisitely rendered, and his final group, Rubinstein's "Melodie" and "Andalouso Toreador," Grienauer's "Moonlight" and Popper's "Eifentauz" were most enthusiastically received. In technique and expression Mr, Grienauer was equally faultless, and one cal. only express the hope that Toronto will soon have the opportunity of hearing him again.

The Marvellous Sale of Very Fine Whitewear

There's a week and a day or two left, then the most successful January Sale of Whitewear ever held by this store ends, but there's much to be done before we write the sale closed. Thousands, yes, positively thousands, of garments to be sold, some of them dust-soiled, but for the greater part crisp new garments, fresh from our own workrooms, and the prices—well, really, it's not a matter of what the goods are worth, but what they'll bring at quick sale. Clearing up is the chief thing now, and prices are adjusted in order to accomplish this promptly

Corset Covers, 50c to $2.50, regular values 75c to $4.00.

Night Gowns, $1.00 to $8.00, regular values $1.50 to $10.00.

Combination Marguerites, 75c to $2.50, regular values $1.50 to $15.00.

Naluscok Chemises, 50c to $1.75, regular values $1.50 to $5.00.

The Handsomest Underskirts You Ever Saw Clearing at $10.00

At January Sale prices these underskirts were $12.50, $14 and $15. New York shops sell similar styles and qualities at $20 to $25. This written description does not give an adequate idea of the real beauty, but may serve to arouse your interest to the looking point. The underskirts have bodies of the finest nainsook that we import; the entire flounce, which is 15 inches deep, is composed of rows of lovely French or German valenciennes insertions—dozens and dozens of yards are used. The flounce is headed with handsome band of very fine beading run with wide washable ribbon; hand-some large bow of washable ribbon at side; drop skirt is made of fine India linen with a lace-edged frill, beautiful garments in every detail.
