the absence of Grand Representative Hoyle, who is busy in the Legislature, and found it impossible to be present to assist in the giving of the unwritten work of the order, Grand Representative Thomas Woodyatt made apologies for Representative Hoyle and announced that Grand Master Young had kindly consented to assist in the work. The unwritten work of the ritual was given by Grand Master Young, Representative Woodyatt exemplifying the work. To say that the work was performed in an efficient manner would not convey the feelings of the representatives, for seldom has the work been given in a more thorough and exemplary manner, and rounds of approach to the substitute of the property of the substitute of the presentative of the ritual was the work been given in a more thorough and exemplary manner, and rounds of approach to the presentative Hoyle, New York; William H Jones and wife, Jas H Smith and wife, Miss Smith, Mrs C H Bush, C M Lyman, Buffalo; Mrs H D William H Jones and wife, Jas H Smith and wife, Miss Smith, Mrs C H Bush, C M Lyman, Buffalo; Mrs H D William H Jones and wife, Jas H Smith and wife, Miss Smith, Mrs C H Bush, C M Lyman, Buffalo; Mrs H D William H Jones and wife, Jas H Smith and wife, Miss Smith, Mrs C H Bush, C M Lyman, Buffalo; Mrs H D William H Jones and wife, Jas H Smith and wife, Miss Smith, Mrs C H Bush, C M Lyman, Buffalo; Mrs H D William H Jones and wife, Jas H Smith and wife, Miss Smith, Mrs C H D William H D the work been given in a more thorough and exemplary manner, and rounds of appliance greeted the two representatives With its superb and magnificent new With its superb and magnificent new with reservice is now acknowledged by

The Judiciary Committee.

The Judiciary Committee made a lengthy report on the decisions of the Grand Master during the year, which were of a varied character, and in nearly all cases the Grand Master's decisions were upheld.

The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem reported that the mileage of the delegates amounted to $4925, and that the expenses of the session were some $900 less than at Belleville last year, on account of the central location of Galt.

The Advisory Committee on the Odd-fellows' Relief Association submitted a lengthy report and commended the association as being one of the most attractive features of the order. The report showed that, while the amount paid out for claims during the year had increased, the reserve fund had been increased by $35,000, making the reserve fund now on hand over $150,000
