Simpson Co. The R. Simpson Co. have introduced an innovation for the delight and edification of their patrons. It is the motorscope, with a series of admirable views. On Saturday the machine was operated four times, and at all of the entertainments crowds at tended and were greatly interested. The views were shown in the Richmond-street wing, in a room specially arranged, where practically no admission fee charged, as The new city directory for 1900, which but the inaugural day. Thruout this week daily four performances will be given. The times are 11, 12.30, 3 and 4.30. It was decided after the presentation of Saturday to enlarge the space where the views are shown. This will be done to-day. There are fourteen views shown in all. They comprise some splendld war pictures and scenes of recent noteworthy events. The performance lasts about half an hour, which is most pleasantly spent. A complete list of the pictures to be shown this week follows:

London, Jan. 20.—(Special Cable Letter by the Associated Press).—While Great Stock Exchange, called for cheers for the Stock Exchange, called for cheers for the Gueen. The Mayor notified Her Majesty of the occurrence, and she replied that she had heard of it with much gratification. Incidentally it is rumored that the year 1900 will give the Queen several new great-grandchildren. Since the first of the year two have already made their appearance, the Crown Princess of Roumania having given birth to a daughter, and Princess Henry of Prussia having been deliv.

The Duke of Westminster.

The young Duke of Westminster is compared to a sen. In the spring the Duke of York expects to again become a father, while several other grandchildren, it is said, are entertaining similar expectations. The Czar is also once more hoping for an heir, while the Crown Princess of Greece and Princess Feodora of Reuss will also probably add to Queen Victoria's long list.
