THE SITUATION IN CHINA IS GROWING DARKER

Daily Increasing Reports of the Massacre of Missionaries and Foreigners Leave Only a Slender Thread of Hope For the Legations.

Even in Shanghai Things Are Serious—10,000 Chinese Troops Have Been Secretly Moved There—The Triads Also Grow More Threatening—Tuan Gives Rewards for the Heads of Foreigners Brought to Peking.

London, July 30.—(Special.)—The Shanghai correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says he is still firmly convinced that the Ministers are safe, but with the exception of an alleged message from Peking, brought by a runner, saying that the legation was still defending itself, nothing has yet been published giving anything in the nature of proof.

No Threat of Hope.

On the other hand, the daily increasing reports of the massacre of missionaries and foreigners leave only the slenderest thread upon which to hang a hope.

Situation is Darker.

The general situation is steadily becoming darker and a crisis is said to be first approaching. It is rumored in Shanghai that 10,000 Chinese troops have been secretly moved into that vicinity, and that the commander of the King Yu forts has been ordered to fire, if any further addition is made to the number of foreign soldiers ascending the river. Rioting has already occurred at Kiu Kiang, the most threatening death to foreigners.

Allied Forces 60,000.

With the arrival of second Japanese divisions, the allied forces at Taku and Tien Tsin will number 70,000. The river flows near Tien Tsin are diminishing.

Russians Nearer to Peking.

It is reported that Russians from Harbin have arrived at a point 150 miles north of Peking after a severe fighting.

A special despatch from Shanghai, dated yesterday, says that the English mission station north of Ningbo has been destroyed, and 35 missionaries have been murdered.

Triads Threaten to Hainan.

The Canton correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, in a despatch of yesterday, says: "The Triads have become numerous and threatening in Hainan. The local and the local mandarin are terror-stricken and decline to protect foreigners. All the missionaries except three have left, and the island is in a state of anarchy. The natives of the Nodas district of the island were so frightened that they all joined the ranks of the Triads."

Serious Disturbances Expected.

Disturbances are expected between Aug. 1 and 15, during the festival to be held to appease the shades of dead. The Boxers are charging large sums to the Chinese for passports from Peking to Tien Tsin, Lao Yun Fu, the black flag chief, has refused to march on Peking, unless Victory Tak Su will furnish him with 20,000 soldiers.

A Boxer Plot.

"The Chinese authorities have just discovered a Boxer plot, devised by Sun Mu, to blow up the Manmo temple, and to destroy the Cantonese officials while performing ceremonies in honor of the Emperor's birthday. If the plot had succeeded, the Boxers would have attacked Canton, looting the city and murdering foreigners and all persons favorable to foreigners."

Tuan Pays Bounties on Heads.

"Chinese newspapers assert that Prince Tuan offered rewards for the heads of foreigners brought to his Yamen in Peking. The Boxers, finding it difficult to get enough of these, decapitated all Chinese having high noses and deep eyes, and in this way, presented so many pretended foreigners' heads that Prince Tuan's exchequer suffered a painful strain."

Did Not Reach the Ministers.

The messenger from Tien Tsin was turned back by the Imperial Troops.

Tien Tsin, July 24, 10 p.m., via Che Foo, July 27, and Shanghai, July 28, 10.15 a.m.—A Chinese student, who has been under the supervision of Missionary Widner, reports that the Chinese Imperial troops completely surround the Tartar city.

The messenger was unable to deliver to the legations the message which he had been entrusted, he begged the Chinese to let him go thru, but was told it was impossible, they could not pass any representative of the foreigners.

On the afternoon of July 28, according to the messenger, the Chinese ceased their attack on the legations, and during the remainder of his stay everything was quiet. On July 18, an Imperial edict was issued, commanding all persons to protect the foreigners. The messenger left Peking on that day.

He saw no troops for 40 miles south of Tien Tsin, but in the vicinity of Yansu and Pienning there were about 20,000.

This news is believed to be trustworthy, as it corroborates other information that had been received.

MILITARY NEEDED AT SHANGHAI.

The Consul Made a Call on Their Respective Nations for Assistance.

London, July 30.—(Special.)—The Shanghai correspondent of The Times yesterday says: "I learn that Li Hing Hong and Lu Chan Lin, Governor of Kiangsu, both rabidly anti-foreign, are advancing toward Peking with 100,000 troops. Their advent will most seriously affect the situation here."

On Friday the consular body decided that the situation demands the presence of a military force in Shanghai, and the consuls have notified their governments accordingly.

SIR CLAUDE'S REPORT.

On May 21 He Declared That the Demands of the People of Peking Was Civil to Foreigners.

London, July 28.—A Parliamentary paper on China was issued this afternoon, dealing with the period of the massacre of missionaries from May 4 to July 13, when the Chinese Minister at London, Sir Claude MacDonald, communicated to Lord Salisbury the Imperial edict, the penultimate written communication from the British Minister at Peking, Sir Claude MacDonald, dated May 21, declares that the Chinese authorities were in a state of quiet and civil toward foreigners, although from the panic among native Christians it may be assumed that the latter are being subjected to threats of violence.

Sir Claude MacDonald was convinced that a few days of heavy rainfall, to terminate the drought which had helped excite the unrest of the country, would do more to restore tranquility than any measures the Chinese or foreign governments could take.

Prince Ching Warned.

The last letter from Sir Claude MacDonald, Germany assumed the position regarding the Japanese matter, that nothing must be done to impede the advance of the Japanese into the interior of China, and that Japan insisted upon an assurance that her intervention would not lead to collision with Russia. King's speech, on June 28, that she had no desire to hinder Japan's liberty, and that she was prepared to conform her action to that of the other powers.

The correspondence shows that Count Muraviev, the late Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, had a similar view of the situation in China, but that Count Lamoriniere, his successor, was shuttling in the middle of the matter that Northern China was in a state of hopeless anarchy, and that the Government should take the initiative in a collective note warning the Japanese Government at Peking, hoping that the Japanese would be satisfied with the record of the powers. It became instead that the relief of the legations at Peking was far more important than any petty grievance among the powers. On June 29 Lord Salisbury informed Lord Salisbury that in addition to the regiment ordered from Manila to Tien Tsin 200 men were going, and that the United States did not think a state of war necessarily existed in China.

Seamour Going to Shanghai.

Shanghai, July 28.—It is reported that Admiral Seymour is coming here, but the date of his arrival is uncertain. It has been decided, as a matter of precaution, to put the French settlement in a state of defence, and at the request of the French authorities the commander of the Dutch cruiser Holland will take charge of the work.

All Sore on Li Hung Chang.

St. Petersburg, July 28.—A despatch has been received here from Hong Kong, dated July 26, which says that the Chinese Government telegraph him under date of July 22 that the Ministers are all well. Li Hung Chang also complains that none of the powers have consented to place a party at his disposal for his journey north, and he added that he would be compelled to encounter many obstacles by a sea journey.

Nine More Missionaries.

Shanghai, July 28.—Nine missionaries of the China Inland Mission have been massacred at Chu Chau near Hang Choo.

Aged Lady of Seaboard Dead.

Mrs. James Maginn, one of the oldest residents of Seaboard, passed away yesterday, aged 70 years. Deceased had lived in Seaboard all her life, and was a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. She leaves four sons and one daughter.

DID SIR WILFRID TENDER HIS RESIGNATION TO LORD MINTO?

The Story is That the Governor-General Wrote a Sharp Letter to the Premier About the Utterances of Minister Tarte in Paris—A Crisis Was Averted.

Montreal, July 28.—(Special.)—A story is being followed the letter is said to have been a strong one, Sir Wilfrid, of course, repudiating the cause of his favorite Minister.

Days followed, and His Excellency's letter to Sir Wilfrid was forwarded to the refractory Minister in Paris, and it is related that the scene which followed the exception of Lord Minto's communication on the bank of the Selco was even more threatening than a later interview which took place between the Governor-General and the first friend of the Sovereign at Ottawa.

Tarte Tendered His Resignation.

Hon. Mr. Tarte promptly tendered his resignation to his leader, having in view the splendid opportunity of stamping Quebec Province on the question at issue between Lord Minto and the leader of the administration. It is likewise said that the Prime Minister also tendered the resignation of the Cabinet to His Excellency, and that it was on this occasion that Lord Minto weakened, and his present advisers to retain the seals of office. Being only a bluff on the part of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues, they consented to continue giving precursory advice to the Governor-General, and a very serious crisis was thus averted.

HUTTON'S FORCES HAD HARD FIGHTING—CASUALTIES 100

But Fourteens Was Captured and 6000 Boers Had Been Driven Into the Mountain Passes—Their Escape Will Be Difficult.

London, July 29.—A despatch from Fourteens, dated July 27, shows that the capture of Fourteens was preceded by heavy fighting to force a passage of the passes, which was stubbornly contested for two days. Gen. Hutton's forces had the hardest work in forcing Bertie's Nek, the casualties amounting to about 100.

Upwards of 6000 Boers, with a very large number of wagons, a large quantity of stores and many cattle, have been driven into the mountain passes, where they are watched by British troops. The escape from that point will be very difficult.

ONLY ONE TRAIN WAS CAPTURED

On the Night of July 21 Between Kromstad and the Van-102 New Pretoria.

London, July 29.—(Special.)—French and British troops have captured only one train on the night of July 21 between Kromstad and the Van-102 New Pretoria.

The War Office has received a despatch from Lord Roberts explaining that only one train was captured on the night of July 21 between Kromstad and the Van-102 New Pretoria.

OPERATIONS AT A STANDSTILL.

Roberts Has Got Tired and Has Retreated to Pretoria—Baden-Powell and Buller Retreated.

London, July 29.—(Special.)—Operations in South Africa have again arrived at a state of standstill.

Lord Roberts has returned with his staff, apparently finding it useless to spend his energies against a constantly retreating foe.

Botha Has Eluded Roberts.

Commandant-General Botha, with several thousand Boers, like Gen. Christian Dewet, has thus eluded Lord Roberts' grasp.

Baden-Powell and Buller Retreated.

Gen. Buller is besieging the command post of Baden-Powell in Western Transvaal. The relief force sent to Gen. Baden-Powell's assistance, under Col. Hickman, proved to be too weak to be effective, and was obliged to fall back on Pretoria.

ALLEGED FRAUDULENT SALES OF MANITOBA SCHOOL LANDS

A Farmer From Treherne Gives Details of How a Ringster Outbid Legitimate Buyers and a Pal Got the Land at Less Than Half Value.

Winnipeg, July 29.—(Special.)—Premier Macdonald was asked yesterday if he had been anything further from Hon. Clifford Sifton, under whose Department land sales were conducted, regarding the representations made to Ottawa from the anonymous Government as to the need for investigation of the alleged frauds. He replied in the negative.

A Case in Point.

A farmer from Treherne gives a case in point in connection with the alleged fraud. He says a quarter section—100 acres—was put up for sale. It was a good piece of land and several farmers who knew it bid the land up to $17,500 per acre. The information was given to a ringster, who outbid all others, and he was knocked down to him at $18 per acre. When the time for settlement came, the purchaser had disappeared and all who knew the land or were interested in purchasing it had gone. As the original purchaser did not appear, a person, who was believed to be in league with the defaulting purchaser, managed to secure the land at 88 per cent, or $16,000 less than the original price for which it was sold. Farmers in the neighborhood who were aware of the fraud, and who were indignant to think that the school district should be defrauded in such a manner.

DR. E. A. GRAFTON DROWNED.

He Was in Bathing at Berthier, Quebec, Having Accompanied a Yachting Party.

Montreal, Que., July 29.—(Special.)—Dr. E. A. Grafton, while bathing at Berthier, Quebec, had the misfortune to lose one of the number, in the person of Dr. E. A. Grafton, who was drowned this morning at Berthier while bathing.

KING HUMBERT OF ITALY SHOWS DOUBT BY AN ASSASSIN

Was Attending Festivities at Monza—Just Entering His Carriage When Three Shots Struck Him, One Piercing His Heart—The Assassin, Angelo Bressi, Was Immediately Arrested.

Monza, Italy, July 30.—King Humbert has been assassinated. He was shot here last evening by a man named Angelo Bressi, and died in a few minutes.

Struck Three Times.

The King had been attending a distribution of prizes in connection with a gymnastic competition. He had just entered his carriage, with his aide-de-camp, and the cheers of the crowd, when he was struck by three revolver shots fired in quick succession.

One Bullet Pierced His Heart.

One pierced the heart of His Majesty, who fell back and expired in a few minutes.

The Assassin Arrested.

The assassin was immediately arrested and was with some difficulty saved from the fury of the populace.

He gave his name as Angelo Bressi, describing himself as Italian, in Truscany.

THE LATE KING HUMBERT.

Italian Cabinet Summoned.

Rome, July 30.—(4:30 a.m.)—The news of the terrible event did not arrive here until after midnight. Signor Saracco, the Premier, immediately summoned a meeting of the Cabinet and the Ministers will start at the earliest possible moment for Monza.

He is Out Yachting.

The Prince and Princess of Naples are on board the Sita, yachting in the Levant.

Sketch of His Life.

Humbert I, King of Italy, was born in 1849, and succeeded his father, Victor Emmanuel, in 1878. While Crown Prince he distinguished himself by the active part he took in the promotion of Italian Unity. He shared with Garibaldi the triumph of the reorganization of the Kingdom of the two Sicilies. Prince Humbert served with distinction in the war of 1896, and displayed much personal bravery in the moment of disaster at the battle of Cutozza, in which the Italians were defeated. He married in 1888 his cousin, Princess Margherita, daughter of the late Duke of Genoa. Their son, the Crown Prince Victor Emmanuel, Prince of Naples, was born Nov. 11, 1895, and another attempt in 1900, and the Prince's marriage to 1897, also happily failed. His Majesty was Princess Helen of Montenegro took place in October, 1906. During the visit of now deceased Queen is well known as King Humbert to Naples, Nov. 17, 1878, accomplished queen.
