

"Never More"

It is probable that never again will you see Panama Hats at such prices as we are able to offer them to you to-day.

The chance comes through a surplus supply of Panamas left in the stock of the South American manufacturers caused by the money stringency in the United States. We have purchased these direct, and one thousand arrived yesterday. They were made to sell at $10 and $12 and will be sold at..... $5.00

A little mild soap and water makes them new from year to year.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE IS NOW IN SESSION

Reports Submitted Show Considerable Progress—Rulings Made by Grand Master.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 15.—The Masonic Grand Lodge is in annual session in the Olympic Rink, A. T. Freed of Hamilton, grand master, presiding. About 1000 delegates are attending.

The grand master reported a prosperous year, about 2700 initiations taking place, with 800 affiliations. Losses by death and withdrawal totaled $73, and the membership now is placed at about 42,422.

Warrants issued were to Milverton Lodge, 478; Russell, 479; Williamsburg, 480, and Corinthian (Toronto), 481. While dispensations were granted Golden Star Lodge, Dryden; Halsebury Lodge, Halsebury; Silver Lodge, Cobalt; Fenwick Lodge, Blind River; King Edward Lodge, Harrow; St. Andrew's Lodge, Arden; Ostris Lodge, Smith's Falls; Acadia Lodge, Markham.

Important Railings. The dedications of two lodges were refused at Dromore and Inwood. There were four consecrations during the year, 12 dedications, and the cornerstones of six churches laid with Masonic ceremonies.

Contributions to the semi-centennial fund totaled $10,931.63 during the year. Among the important rulings of the grand master during the year were:

Important Rulings. Contributions to the semi-centennial fund totaled $10,931.63 during the year. Among the important rulings of the grand master during the year were:

That a member may be indefinitely suspended for a serious offence after he has been suspended for non-payment of dues, and that a member suspended for non-payment of dues is amenable to the lodge for his conduct during the time of his delinquency.

No past master from one jurisdiction may be installed as master in another jurisdiction where he has not served as warden.

No lodge has power to disqualify a Mason for soliciting votes or resorting to electioneering methods.

Special notices concerning candidates are illegal. The regular monthly notice must contain the names of all applicants, and every member is entitled to two ballot balls, one white and one dark, under Masonic law.

The grand master has declined to give rulings regarding physical defects from written descriptions.

E. T. Malone, grand treasurer, reported assets to the credit of the lodge worth $116,438. New investments reported, $15,860.

The report submitted by R. W. Bro. R. L. Gunn, acting grand secretary, shows receipts to have been $54,297 during the year, of which $402 was derived from certificates, $19,787 from dues, $10,358 from fees, $811 from debentures, $1600 from dispensations, and $1549 from miscellaneous sources, which, with $5116 of a cash deposit, make $38,774 revenue. To this is added $15,342 debentures redeemed and a refund from California of $300. The expenditures totaled $15,487.

J. B. Nixon of Toronto and R. L. Gunn of Hamilton are contestants for the post of grand secretary, made vacant by the death of Hugh Murray.

MONDAY FOR THANKSGIVING

Premier Announces That Change Will Be Made This Year.

OTTAWA, July 15.—In reply to an enquiry by Mr. Kemp of Toronto, the prime minister announced that Thanksgiving Day this year will be held on a Monday.

Representations in favor of a change from Thursday to Monday have been made from various organizations, especially from commercial travelers.

TOLSTOI IN VIVID WAY TELLS RUSSIA'S WRONGS

Says Country is Ruled by a Government of Executions—An Appeal to Better Nature.

LONDON, July 15.—The Daily Chronicle to-day prints three close columns of the most passionate and severe indictment ever penned by Count Leo Tolstoi, the Russian author, in which he shows all his old vivid literary skill, of the present system of "government by executions" in Russia, the article concluding with a noble appeal to the better nature of his countrymen.

The count writes: "I can no longer endure it. I write this either that these inhuman deeds may be stopped, or that my connection with them may be snapped, and I be put in prison where I may be clearly conscious that these horrors are not committed on my own behalf, or still better, so good that I dare not even dream of such happenings."

"That they may put me on me as on those 20 or 12 peasants, a shroud and a cap, and may push me into a ditch, or a bench, so that by my own weight I may tighten the well-scoped noose around my old throat."

After describing wholesale executions in gruesome detail, Count Tolstoi says: "All this is carefully arranged and planned by the learned and enlightened people of the upper class. They arrange to do these things secretly at daybreak, and they subdivide the responsibility for these iniquities among those who commit them that each may disclaim responsibility; and not these dreadful things alone are done, but all sorts of other tortures and violence are perpetrated in the prisons, fortresses, convict establishments, not impulsively under the sway of feelings, silencing reason as happens in fights or in war, but on the contrary, at the demand of reason and calculation silencing feeling. What is most dreadful in the whole matter of this inhuman violence and killing, besides the direct evil to the victims, is that it brings a yet more enormous evil on the whole people by spreading depravity among every class of Russians."

Tolstoi instances the shocking spread of greed among ruffians to obtain money by executing condemned prisoners, and says: "Any ruffian who does this, the moral and spiritual unseen evil they produce is incomparably more terrible."

With regard to the government's contention that there is no other way to suppress the revolutionists, Count Tolstoi, while admitting that the revolutionists are stupid and reprehensible in the highest degree, accuses the government of doing the same thing for the same motive, and adds: "All the revolutionists' bombings and murders do not come anywhere near the criminality and stupidity of the deeds the government commits."

Tolstoi argues at length that both the revolutionists and the Russian Government are pursuing the same objects by the same criminal means, and that if there is any difference it is in favor of the revolutionists.

BANK CLERKS BURGLARS.

Letter Betrays Trio of Brockville. BROCKVILLE, July 15.—This morning three young men, two of them bank clerks, were brought before Magistrate Murphy and pleaded guilty to the theft of several hundred dollars from the G. T. R. express service. Two were released on bail, and the third was sent back to jail, but all will appear for sentence Saturday before Judge Reynolds in the county court.

Their operations extended over a period of some months, but one of them, leaving his coat in a wardrobe was addressed to his father, now on a visit to Scotland, gave the gang away, and the arrests followed.

Would Bar Asiatics. ERIE, Pa., July 15.—At the session of the International Longshoremen, Marine and Transport Workers' Association, a resolution was adopted recommending the barring of all Japanese and other Asiatics from American shores.

Money Saved in Mid-Summer Is Money Earned for Fall

Some people lack foresight. They live in the present moment. They buy what they need when sheer necessity impels them. The result is the saving and the profit which comes by seizing sudden opportunities goes to someone else.

The most favorable time to buy is before stock-taking, yet many of our customers may not be aware of it.

To-morrow is mid-summer Bargain Day. We take stock in two weeks. It is to be the most rigorous stock-taking in our history, as only the newest and freshest of goods are to be taken into the new building.

Special interest attaches to the bargain lists to-day on this account. Read them as you would the gossipy letter of a friend. Every word, almost, is personal to YOU.
