NOW IN SIXTH PLACE BEAT THE INDIANS

Birmingham's Boys There
With the Clouting at Newark—Manning Twirls.

NEWARK, N.J., June 20.—Toronto opened its second invasion of Newark today by beating the Indians 5 to 1. The Maple Leafs got to Walter Smallwood for hits when most needed, and the Canadians were aided in scoring by five errors made by the Redskins. Walter Manning was a puzzle to the warriors. He was accused of flinching support and the fielding behind him was of the sensational order. The score was 5 to 1.

The Leafs are slated to wind up their stay here tomorrow when a double bill will be staged. Manager Joe Bunting has intended to use Shocker and Metzger on the mound, while Manager Tenny will call upon Ensmann and Plesh.

Jack Enright was slated to hurl one of the games against the Leafs, but the former Washington College star relieved Smallwood in the ninth inning.

One of the five tallies scored by the Maple Leafs went to pieces when a Toronto runner managed to get on the score, while the Leafs pulled sensational plays when the home crew threatened to score. Manning was in trouble in the eighth and ninth innings, but managed to hold the Newarkers in check.

The outfielders of both teams put in a busy afternoon. The outer gardeners of the Leafs recorded eleven putouts. Burch and Witter, the respective right fielders, each had five putouts. Durgin, the Newark initial-sacker, had but six putouts, while Graham had but four. Every member of the Indians except Enright, who pitched but one inning, figured in the putouts, while all of the Leafs, except Manning, took part in checking the Redskins.

Toronto got a run in the first inning after two were out, and Thompson's single to right, Witter's fumble and the Leafs' double, during the following five innings Smallwood succeeded in keeping the Leafs away from the plate. Enright's single and Healey's error on Graham's tap put two Leafs on the sacks in the fourth. The former Giant and the first sacker moved up on a sacrifice by McKee. Then the Indians worked an odd double play. Burch hit to Zimmerman and Murray was nailed at the plate. Schwartz pegged to Cable, cornering Burch between second and first, and Graham made a try for home. Cable's peg to Smallwood nipped Graham.

Twenty-three men faced Manning in the first seven innings. During this time the Redskins managed to slam out four hits, secure a base on error and a walk, and were hit. Only two men were left on the sacks. Three were nipped trying to reach second, one was picked off a base, and another was pegged out trying to get from first to second.

Single by McKee and Burch, and Manning's hit, after Hogan died trying to hunt on the third strike, gave the Leafs a tally in the seventh. Blackburn's double, Thompson's single, and Enright's sacrifice hit accounted for two more in the eighth. In the ninth, Thompson's single and Enright's sacrifice hit accounted for two more in the ninth. The Indians worked an odd double play. Burch hit to Zimmerman and Murray was nailed at the plate. Schwartz pegged to Cable, cornering Burch between second and first, and Graham made a try for home. Cable's peg to Smallwood nipped Graham.
