M. M. Todd Becomes Head of G., P. M. Street Railway, Following Father and Grandfather.

Special to The Toronto World.
Galt, Sept. 26.—It was officially amnounced here today that Milne M. Todd, third son of the late M. N. Todd, has been appointed to his father's position as president of the G., P. & H. Street railway, and vice-president of the L., E. & N. Railway, while Matthew W. Kirkwood becomes general manager of both radials. In the appointment of M. M. Todd the presidency remains in the family, his grandfather, having been first head of the railway. The new president is probably the youngest man to hold so important an office in Canada, being only 24 years of age. He has been assistant superintendent for the past two years.
The new general manager has been identified with G., P. & H. railway for 23 years, and is now considered an authority on electrical radials.
