

NOTHING LESS THAN REPUBLIC

De Valera Writes Irish Leader He Never Sanctioned Dominion Home Rule.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Eamonn de Valera, self-styled "president of the Irish republic," made public here today a cablegram he has sent to Arthur Griffith, acting head of the republic, characterizing as "absurd" reports that de Valera had written to associates in Ireland that he would accept colonial home rule.

"From cable despatches published here," his message said, "it is evident that an attempt is being made to fool the Irish people into the belief that I have written a letter indicating that I would accept colonial home rule. I have, of course, never at any time written any such letter. Anyone in possession of a letter of mine, no matter how confidential, on any such topic, is free to publish it."

"Surely no one can think that now, when the republic is established, I would counsel a course which I refused to stand for when the republic was yet a hope. The whole thing is absurd."

Dublin Will Confer Freedom On Mannix on His Arrival

Dublin, Aug. 5.—The freedom of the city for Archbishop Mannix, Australia, was voted unanimously at a special meeting of the Dublin corporation today. A committee was appointed to make arrangements to meet the archbishop on his arrival.

Today's meeting of the corporation did not excite unusual interest. There was no crowd of visitors in the galleries and less than 40 of the 80 members attended.

A cablegram was read from Archbishop Mannix, in which he expressed his appreciation of the corporation's decision to grant him the freedom of the city. He also mentioned his intention to visit the city on his arrival.

Ross Vineberg, diamond merchant, 51 Craig street, went to his place of business today he found that burglars had visited the premises during the night and made away with jewelry worth $5,000. SAFE AND PROFITABLE FOR EXSEX FARMER

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 5.—(Special).—It's the Wicked Agent of Montreal Liquor Men Who Takes Risk.

A milk producer near Windsor today said it was most unfair to a lot of well-to-do and practically innocent farmers to say that they brought in the floods of whiskey that keep coming to the border here for sale in Detroit. Montreal dealers or their agents do the bringing in; all the farmer does is to let them use his name as the consignee of the goods and let it be stored in his house. They pay for the goods, arrange for the discharge of the freight or express packages and delivery to the farmer's house, and they also do the raiding or running of the stuff over to the States. The farmer takes no risk, handles nothing. Any fines or seizures are not at his expense. All he does is to get a decent royalty or toll on every package that comes to his name and to his cellar. But he gives no orders and he takes no risk.

Western Ontario Towns Roast Union Gas Co.

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 5.—Representatives of some 35 western Ontario municipalities met in this city today and wrestled with the natural gas question. The delegates placed themselves on record in no uncertain way in both the matter of taking the necessary steps to obtain more adequate supply of gas and as opposed to the "clubbing" methods adopted by the Union Gas and Oil Company to compel consumers to pay a considerably higher price for what gas they did receive.

BRITAIN READY TO ACT IF NEEDED

Labor parties thru the country, to rally the Labor party into organizing demonstrations against intervention in Russia, or supplying men or munitions to Poland. The circular favors the immediate raising of the blockade against Russia and resumption of trade relations with that country.

In view of the known intense hostility of the Labor party to military aid for Poland, it is believed here that the government will limit any useful action to economic pressure on Russia.

Lloyd George's Statement.

In his statement Mr. Lloyd George said he and Mr. Bonar Law made it clear to M. Krassin and M. Kameneff that the immediate conclusion of an armistice on fair terms was the only course which would remove suspicion that the Soviet government was insincere in its professed desire for peace and in its declaration that it intended to respect the liberty and independence of Poland.

Mr. Lloyd George added that he and Mr. Bonar Law also made it clear that in view of the fact that ethnographical Poland had been invaded, "we would take effective steps to remove obstacles in the way of transmission to Poland from Danzig of military supplies, which could be obtained from that quarter."

The premier concluded: "I think in view of the critical state of affairs I would rather not make any further statement this afternoon, but, should unfortunately our confidence in the conference make a full statement to the house Monday as to such further naval or military action which it may be necessary to take."

He said the whole object of the proposed peace conference in London had been jeopardized by the Soviet army's advances.

No Reply From Soviet.

Premier Lloyd George stated that the Soviet had not yet replied to Great Britain's note of July 23, proposing the London peace conference. He read the text of another note, which Great Britain sent to the Soviet government last Tuesday after the Soviet demand that the Polish armistice delegates be empowered also to sign fundamentals of peace. This note said that if the Soviet insisted on making peace with Poland to the exclusion of other powers, then the project for the London peace conference would have fallen thru.

Asked whether the allies contemplated tightening the Russian blockade, the premier said: "I hope it will not be necessary to take steps to tighten the blockade; that must necessarily depend on an answer reaching us."

The premier, raising another point, said he had been guaranteed which Soviet Russia could have against the armistice being abused for the purpose of rearming and re-equipping Poland for offensive purposes, would be a fair understanding with the western powers.

Premier Lloyd George said he had just received a message from George Tchitcherin, the Soviet foreign minister, saying an urgent telegram was being sent to M. Kameneff in reply to Great Britain's note of Tuesday. The premier added he did not know what the Kameneff telegram contained.

Application of Pressure.

He was asked whether pressure was being applied by the allies or Great Britain to Czechoslovakia to assist Poland with men, an army or munitions against Russia. The premier replied: "Everything depends on the answer we receive. If it is unsatisfactory, of course, we shall bring pressure to bear on everybody to give the necessary support to Poland."

Replying to a question as to involving other countries in a new war, Premier Lloyd George said: "You don't go to war necessarily when you allow the transit of munitions."

Asked whether in case the Soviet answer was unsatisfactory the house could understand that no pressure would be applied to Czechoslovakia or other border states to use armed intervention in favor of Poland, the premier replied: "If the answer is unsatisfactory and if it becomes quite clear that the Soviet authorities mean to destroy Poland, I certainly could not give any undertaking of that kind."

The premier's reply brought out cheers.
