WESTON JUNIORS IN O.A.L.A. SEMI-FINALS

Weston and Shelburne replayed their junior lacrosse game at the Beach yesterday, Weston winning 5 to 4. Weston won the previous game, but Shelburne protested on a player being over age, and the game was ordered replayed.

This victory gives Weston their group, and they now enter the semi-finals, in which are left Hanover, St. Catharines, Maitland and Weston.

Yesterday's game was clean and earnest, with Shelburne showing the best in the first half and Weston coming strong after half-time.

At the end of the first quarter, Shelburne were leading 2 to 1. It was tied at half-time, 3 all. Each team scored a goal in the third quarter and Weston got the winning tally in the final period.
