

BOYS' ARRESTS FOR BURGLARS

Automatic, Flashlight and Several Jimmies Found in His Pockets.

Thanks to P.C. Miller, of Pape avenue police station, and to Detectives Winters and Clarke, burglars in the east end of the city can be expected to take a slump for some time to come.

Detectives Winters and Clarke arrested a fifteen-year-old boy at noon yesterday. He is alleged to have accompanied Lambell on three of his burglaries.

In Lambell's rooms on St. Lawrence street were found a quantity of men's clothes, a number of flashlights, a quantity of soap, men's gloves, chewing gum and various other articles.

The stores Lambell is alleged to have broken into are as follows: J. A. Barry, 77 East Queen street, which was entered on Saturday night and a quantity of money and chewing gum stolen; W. E. Carter, 689 East Queen street, entered on Nov. 11, and 25 flashlights and articles taken; Wallace Turford, 688 East Queen street, entered on Dec. 31, and a pair of men's boots and a quantity of men's shirts and gloves stolen; and George Dean, 816 East Queen street, entered on Dec. 31, and 200 revolvers, bridges and a number of pocketknives stolen.

Miller, becoming suspicious of the youth being on the street at that hour of the morning, approached him and commenced questioning him. Finding no satisfactory answers, he took him in custody on a charge of vagrancy.

At the station the boy admitted the burglary equipment were found. Detectives Winters and Clarke went immediately to the address Lambell had given, and found the other goods alleged to have been stolen by him. They searched all over his room, out mostly under the bed.

The police believe that Lambell stole the revolver from the McCull Bros. store on the Esplanade, which was entered several weeks ago.

Burglars were active in the east end of the city over the week-end. In the house at 3 West avenue, four women's purses, containing about $45, were stolen from an upstairs room. A window was found partly open and it is thought that the thief gained entrance thru this. Detectives Winters and Clarke are investigating the case.

WOMAN IN FIELD FOR SCHOOL BOARD

There is much speculation in the village as to whether there will be a woman trustee on the 1921 school board.

As was forecasted in The World some time ago, a woman candidate has entered the field, in the person of Mrs. G. P. Newcombe of Credit Grove, and as she has the endorsement of the Women's Institute and the W. C. T. U., it is felt that she stands a good chance of election.

Mrs. Newcombe is said to have excellent qualifications for the office. Having been a teacher in the kindergarten in the United States for several years, she also holds a diploma as a sick nurse. The women of the two organizations above named have expressed a vigorous campaign in support of her candidature.

Nominations for the vacant trusteeship of the school board will be received in Forest Avenue School on Saturday next at 12 o'clock noon. If necessary, the election will take place a week later.

Port Credit band gives the next of its series of free concerts in the I.O.O.F. hall tonight. A feature will be the singing by Fred Peters, A.R.M., C.M., the popular local tenor, of a song written and composed by William Lockie, a Port Credit veteran of the late war. Bandmaster Chaney has arranged the band parts of the song and the band will supply the accompaniment to Mr. Peters.

Ice-cutting will be in full swing during the present week in the Credit River. A start on the work was made on Saturday.

It was hoped to have a hockey team in the village this winter, but the scheme has been abandoned due to lack of enthusiasm. During the summer of 1920 the town ran a most successful baseball team, and it is the intention of the committee to have a better team during the coming season.

Business is holding its own in the village, considering the industrial conditions. A number of men are still without work, but no cases of real distress are reported.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY IN CHESTER CITADEL OF THE SALVATION ARMY

The war memorial to the ten members of the Salvation Army Chester Citadel, who fell in action overseas, was solemnly unveiled by Col. John McMillan yesterday afternoon, assisted by Lieut.-Col. Morehen and Lieut.-Col. Rawlings from headquarters.

The tablet, which is of marble, is neatly engraved with the names of the fallen heroes, and is surrounded by the names of 40 other members who enlisted. The engraving was skillfully done by Bandsman John Lowe, a member of the citadel, as a labor of love.

Col. John McMillan paid a glowing tribute to the men who died and recounted the gallant deeds. He also feelingly referred to the war widows and their dependents and their noble sacrifice for king and country, and encouraged members to enlist.

"MAYTIME" AT ROYAL ALEXANDRA

Tonight in the Royal Alexandra Theatre the Messrs. Schubert will present for the third time here, at the special request of the committee of managers who have kept after Lawrence Solman, manager of this playhouse, to bring "Maytime" again, this fascinating and satisfying musical romance.

No play of recent seasons has created more meretricious wide appeal than the Guy Bolton and George Fitzmaurice comedy, "Adam and Eva," which F. Ray Conkock and Morris Gest will present at the Royal Alexandra Theatre on Monday, Jan. 31, direct from a run of over 300 consecutive performances at the Longacre Theatre, New York, and four months at the La Salle Theatre, Chicago.

The band played appropriate music under the leadership of Bandmaster A. Martin, returned veteran, and the Chester songsters rendered two selections, "At Evening When the Sun Was Set" and "Abide With Me." The songsters were assisted by the capable leadership of L. H. Kingdom, returned veteran.

The last post was sounded by Cadet O'Leary, well known in the city. Present were three distinguished members of the corps: Flight-Lieut. Gordon Bennett, R.A.F.; Pte. Wm. Mallon, D.C.M., and Corp. W. A. Wright, M.M.
