

How the Hardy Lake Huron Fishermen Ensnare the Finny Tribe

1.—Preparing draw-seine for a haul. 2.—A small portion of the morning's catch. 3.—Lifting a pound-net at four o'clock in the morning. 4.—Hauling in "draw-seine" full of herring. 5.—Lifting a six foot sturgeon out of pound-net. 6.—Dumping a draw seine catch into boxes. 7.—Carrying nets to drying-reels after morning's work. 8.—Mending and repairing the nets. 9.—Taking the "gilled" fish from the nets.