

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

KENDAL WESTON PLAYERS ARRIVE IN ST. JOHN

Imperial Theatre's Stock Company Contains Some Brilliant Dramatic People

The Kendal Weston players, who are to open a stock engagement of superior one-act plays at Imperial Theatre next Monday, arrived in the city by American boat yesterday.

Miss May B. Hunt as a stock player familiar to New England cities and has just closed a successful engagement near Boston.

"IN WALKED JIMMY" GIVES PLEASURE AT OPERA HOUSE

"In Walked Jimmy," a comedy with a serious purpose, received its first presentation in St. John last evening at the Opera House.

The play is one in which optimism is the keynote, a light blend of that bluff and confidence which made "Wallpaper" and "The Fortune Hunter," "Ready Money" such popular plays.

The central character is a mysterious Jimmy who enters the office of a factory which is tottering to financial ruin.

It was well acted and the scenic environment was excellent. It will be repeated tonight.

Tomorrow afternoon and evening the company presents the dramatization of Harold Bell Wright's novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills."

It has been decided to extend the engagement of the Klark-Urban Company at the Opera House for the first three days of the coming week.

On Monday and Tuesday afternoons, pictures only, two shows, at 2:15 and 3:45.

WAR STORY, SPORTING PICTURES AND SERIAL STORY AT IMPERIAL

The Imperial tonight will offer another of its remarkable week-end programmes. Henry B. Walsall, the "Manfield of the Screen," who has been such a conspicuous figure in the silent drama for several years, and who was the leading player in "The Birth of a Nation," will play the chief part in a five-reel Essany story-value and unusual dramatic quality—not to mention a wealth of scenic investment—this play ranks among the best war stories yet filmed.

In the Solig Sporting Series the contests will be as follows:—Morn and Kichhofer in three-cushion carom billiards; Verri vs. Egg, champion long-distance bicyclists; Sherman Landers, the Oregon boy-wonder "cleans up" at the Chicago track meet, the whole group of events concluding with a finish wrestling bout between Zbyzsko and Platina.

This will have as its particular climax in this third chapter, the actual jumping off a 20 ft. chasm by a speeding auto in connection with the chase of the thieves aided by the hero, Lieut. Hope.

GEM FOR WEEK END Beauty, pathos and a stern lesson against the evils of gossip are contained in the Gem's feature picture for tonight and Saturday—Lillian Gish in "An Innocent Magdalene."

There are some excellent photographic effects and there is a loveable old "Mammy" of the south. Douglas Fairbanks is the comedy man for this bill in "The Mystery of the Leaping Fish."

On Monday and Tuesday afternoons, pictures only, two shows, at 2:15 and 3:45.

Prices as usual for pictures. The features will include Pauline Frederick in her latest big dramatic success, "The World's Great States," also the latest New York sensation, the Pathé fashion views, showing the very latest up-to-the-minute dresses, house gowns, pearls, laces, furs, in fact, everything that inlaid fancies and just what the New York society leaders are going to wear this fall and winter.

Ladies who wish to know just what's what for this season will find this an excellent opportunity to see all the designs at close view.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, the pictures, with Miss Frederick and the Fashion Views, will be shown at 7 o'clock, one show only, and immediately after the pictures, the Klark-Urban Company will present the comedy drama "Back Home," a play written by Bayard Veilers, author of "Within the Law."

The pictures start at 7 o'clock—the dramatic performance at 8:00. The evening prices will be the same as for all the regular dramatic performances and lower floor seats may be purchased in advance.

There will be no pictures at the Wednesday matinee, excepting the Fashion Views which will be shown at 2 o'clock.
