

WIDDER STATION.

Widder Station is a thriving village and station on the G. T. R., 31 miles from Sarnia, 9½ from Forest, and 60 miles from London. It is situated on the 20th Lot and 3rd Concession of the township of Bosanquet. The Post Office was established in 1862; Robert Ray was the first postmaster. The village contains four stores, two hotels, two shoe shops, one bakery, one waggon shop, two carpenter shops, two cabinet shops. The principal business of the place consists in staves, square timber, lumber and grain. It is distant from Widder village one and a-half miles. Daily stages run between both places—fare each way 12½ cents. Population about 150. Mails daily. Thomas Kirkpatrick, Postmaster.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF PROFESSIONS, TRADES, &C.

ATKINSON, H. M., general merchant. [See card.]	MILNE, ALEX., general store.
Bennett, Chas., cabinet shop.	Morgan, W. H., station master.
BEARE, WM., general merch't and photographer. [See card.]	Parkinson, Marmaduke, brick-layer.
Brandridge, A., laborer.	Southworth, Nelson E., farmer.
Collar, Chas., hotel keeper.	SPRINGER, RICHARD, shoe shop.
Dattis, John, switchman.	Swan — carpenter.
Doran, Geo., carpenter.	Swan, S. A., laborer.
Hartley, Rev. George, Episcopal methodist.	Taylor, David, cabinet shop.
Hotirell, G. W., hotel keeper.	Tibis, Christopher, carpenter.
Kirkpatrick, Thomas, P. M. and general merchant.	WAYER, WILLIAM L., wagon maker and blacksmith.

PORT FRANKS.

This place was surveyed and laid out for a Town by the Canada Company in 1854. It is situated on the shore of Lake Huron, about 35 miles from Sarnia, in the township of Bosanquet. It has made little or no progress. The Post Office was removed in 1856. It contains one hotel, one steam saw mill and a few houses. It is the only point vessels can touch between Sarnia and Bayfield.

The
the line north o five mil
to Oil Branch progress tion of trade.
and ref Wyomin
Common branch
Springs
blacksm stables, mill, on tailor sh physicia
sen., pos

Episcop
$1200. I
Wesley
400. Rev

Wyomin
teacher.

Meets T

W.M., W.
S.W., Tho
J.W., Cha
Chaplain,
S.D., Jame

W.M., Wm
Deputy M.,