LOCAL NEWS

PROBATE COURT.

In the probate court in the matter of the estate of John Daley, personally $1200, Francis X. Collins was appointed administrator. D. Mullin, K. C., was proctor.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of William Burton was held this afternoon at three o'clock from his late residence, 302 Main street. Rev. W. H. Spencer conducted service at the home and interment was in Fernhill.

PORTY HOURS DEVOTION. The Devotion of the Forty Hours was commenced in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception this morning and will continue until Sunday evening. Masses were celebrated this morning at 6, 7 and 8:15 o'clock and attended by very large congregations.

HELPED LITTLE ONES. Through the thoughtful efforts of the little Misses Elizabeth Quigg and Margaret Joyce, the little ones of St. Vincent's Infants Home will be more comfortable this winter. These little ladies held a party and the result was the reception of many useful gifts which were donated to the home. The Sisters of Charity sincerely thank the little ladies and all who helped in this kind act of charity.

DEGREE EXEMPLIFIED. The first degree was exemplified to a large class of candidates in the Knights of Columbus Hall last evening. E. J. Heneberry, grand knight, presided and there was a good attendance of members. After the degree work refreshments were served and a musical programme carried out in which Messrs. Mullaly, Hines, Branley and O'Regan participated.

LEAK IN MAIN. A leak in one of the joints of the twenty-four inch water main in the Marsh road near the McAvity plant was reported to Commissioner Jones last evening. Mr. Jones said today that the water had been turned off to effect repairs and this would reduce the pressure on the high level only. He expected that the repair work would be completed this evening. It is understood that the recent rolling of the surface at that point for the laying of a new roadway was the cause of the leak.

GENEROUS LITTLE GIRLS. Two little girls about eight years old, being anxious to help as much as they could in these hard times, conceived the idea of holding a sale at their home in Elliot Row. They have succeeded in raising the sum of $9.70. They handed this substantial amount to Mrs. W. B. Tennant for the benefit of the little ones in the Children's Aid Home, 68 Garden street. The girls who are to be congratulated on their brightness and unselfishness are Alice Henry and Mary Harding.

LAST NIGHT'S OUTRAGE. Harris Gilbert, who was attacked and badly beaten, and robbed in the front yard of his home in Union street last evening by men as yet unknown, was said to be doing quite well at the General Public Hospital early this afternoon. The shock suffered by Mr. Gilbert on account of the sudden assault upon him in the dark was said to be not nearly so bad as at first supposed. His nose was broken in the encounter and the fractured bone was set at the hospital this morning. The police have a difficult task in the assaults as there was not a clue left.

LITTLE RIVER CONCERT. A very enjoyable concert was held in Little River hall on Thursday evening under the auspices of the Little River Community Club. A large number of people were present and thoroughly enjoyed the various numbers. It was the second of a series of concerts to be held by the club during the winter. Those participating were served refreshments at the home of Mrs. Harrington, who was assisted by Mrs. R. Reid, Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. McHugh, after which they were driven to their homes by Mr. Wood. Prior to their departure they were tendered a hearty vote of thanks by the president, Frank Goodman. The programme was as follows:—Piano solo, Miss McCullum; vocal solo, Mrs. Brentnall; sketch, "Going Somewhere," Miss Watts and G. W. McAuley; musical duet, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wallace; scotch dances, Miss Beattie Wittern; reading, Miss Alice McKinn; solo, Miss Irvine; sketch, "New School Marm," Miss Datts and Messrs. McAuley and Wallace; reading, Miss Pearl Taylor; vocal solo, Miss Bernard; reading, George Wallace; sketch, "Married by the New Justice," Miss Wallace and Messrs. McAuley and Wallace, and solo by Jack Simpson.

TELLS OF FIRST ARMISTICE DAY

When Canadians Captured Mons—Something About Whiz-Bangs.

The Times has received a copy of Whiz Bangs, the monthly official organ of Vimy Camp, No. 1 American volunteers of the Canadian expeditionary forces. It is published in Boston, and is edited by Elmer A. Reiding, formerly of St. John, while Roy E. Edwards, also of St. John, but now manager of a hat store in Boston, is one of the adventurers. He was the original R. S. M.

the 20th Battalion and after long services in France was given a commission and attached to the 88th Highlanders. There are other St. John men besides Reiding and Edwards in Vimy Camp, which the commander, James Smith, declares is now among the leading military organizations and held up as an example to other in and around Boston. The November issue of Whiz Bangs gives a very interesting brief history of the Princess Pats. In recognition of Armistice Day, it publishes the following brief story of the first Armistice Day in battle-scarred Mons, by the editor, who was there:

"As we celebrate the third anniversary of the signing of the Armistice on the 11th of this month we feel it will be of great interest if we bring to the minds of our readers a picture of where we were and what we were doing at that time. Of course we are speaking of the Canadian Corps.

"The Canadian Corps finished its career in the war by the capture of Mons at 4 a. m. on the day that the armistice was signed. The city was taken by troops from the Princess Patricia's and 42nd Highlanders. These troops were given a demonstrative welcome by the inhabitants. Men, women and children crowded round them with hot coffee, cognac and wine. The flag of Belgium, France, Great Britain and all the Allies, concealed for over four years, appeared from every window.

"On the road to Mons traffic trundled to and fro as if no change had taken place. The procession of refugees waved to every soldier and shouted, 'La Guerre est finie!' The cafes, which remained open, were all crowded.

"About 3:30 p. m. General Currie rode into the city with his staff, escorted by a bodyguard of the 8th Lancers, all men who fought at Mons in 1914. Formed up in the main square was a company of troops from every unit of the Third Division, each with its regimental band.

"As each company came in they were cheered to the echo by the thousands of civilians packed solidly in the four sides of the square, and crowding every balcony and window.

"The Corps Commander was met by the Mayor and City Fathers, leading clerics and prominent men of the place. He was welcomed and presented with an interpreter. He replied through an interpreter and then presented the city with a Canadian flag tied to a lance.

"The ceremony was short and when the last section of troops passed the saluting point the crowd could not be restrained any longer. Soldiers and girls swarmed everywhere and the lid of Mons was lifted off.

"Comrades danced in the square to the music of bands playing everywhere, and cafes were filled by soldiers and civilians, now united by an indissoluble bond.

"The night was filled with gladness. There was a peace and quietness such as France and Belgium had not enjoyed since August, 1914.

"The day was one of the most historic in the war history of Canada, by virtue of the fact that her sons captured and made a triumphant entrance into the most famous city in the annals of the war."
