

SUGAR RUNNING ACROSS ST. CROIX

Two Men Are Arrested in Calais

Charge is Transporting Six
Tons in Motorboat from St.
Stephen — Trouble Friday
Night at Milltown Bridge.

Calais, Maine, June 21.—Federal officials began an investigation here yesterday of alleged sugar running from New Brunswick across the international line into this state, as a result of the arrest on Saturday night of two men charged with bringing six tons of sugar in a motor boat from St. Stephen, N. B. to this port.

According to officials, the men had regulations and had violated an embargo placed on refined sugar in Canada. An alleged attempt to run sugar across the international bridge at Milltown, N. B., on last Friday night caused some disturbance among the residents, who, it was said, had objected to the practice. The men arrested here last night, Henry Hill, owner of the boat, and Don Smith, were later released on their own recognizance.

POLICE COURT

McLeod was allowed out on a $200 deposit but appeared this afternoon and he and the other two were remanded. Three men and one woman, charged with drunkenness, pleaded guilty and were remanded.

It was reported today that a man named Donovan, dependent, had tried to cut his throat, but only slightly wounded himself. He was taken to the hospital and is recovering.

There is every indication that the close of the present week will see the end of the business end of the session. Many believe that the house will re-assemble a week from today merely for the purpose of prorogation.

Sarah Simpson is a very strong-minded woman. If you don't believe it, ask her husband.

"No, Samuel, remember! If that man Johnson offers you anything to drink you will refuse!"

Samuel sighed as he agreed to her edict.

Later as they started for home, Sarah eyed her spouse with gloom in her face.

"When Mr. Johnson made that peculiar sign to you," she began, "and shortly afterward you both hurried from the room, where did you go, Samuel?"

"Oh-er-yes, my dear! He merely asked me to step into his study to look at some old books he brought recent."

"You know I have a taste for books."

"Yes, Samuel, and from what I heard, your taste—er—books—was highly gratified. You forgot to close the study door and I heard a smacking of lips and then you exclaimed: 'Ah, that's the stuff!'"
