HOSPITAL SHIP

WAS TORPEDOED

London, Mar. 1.—Sworn statements made independently by two survivors of the British hospital ship Glenart Castle, which went down Tuesday in the Bristol Channel, an official announcement says, make clear that she was sunk by an enemy submarine which was sighted in halting distance within ten minutes of the time the ship was struck.
"It will be noted," the announcement says, "that the Glenart Castle was in a free area and was sunk even in the breach of the German pledge, given as to the immunity of hospital ships from attack in that area."
The total number of persons saved from the ship so far reported is 89. One hundred and fifty-three persons still are missing.
