THE BATTLE LINE

CROWDED WITH STEAMERS

There is a tramp steamer at the Ballast wharf to load deals from the cars. The harbor is now crowded with steamers.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

The many friends of Elmer P. McLaugh lin, operator on the staff of the Western Union will keenly regret to learn of his being ill in the hospital with appendicitis. He was operated upon yesterday and is somewhat improved today. Mr. McLaugh lin was taken suddenly ill on Wednesday. Before that he had apparently, been in the best of health. His friends will hope for his speedy recovery.

THE POLICE COURT.

In the police court this morning before Magistrate Ritchie, John Davis, charged with drunkenness and profanity, was remanded. George Brown, arrested yesterday and charged with being drunk and resisting the police, also was remanded. Policeman Gibbs told of the circumstances. Two prisoners, charged with drunkenness, were remanded and one was fined $4 or 10 days for imbibing too freely.

FORESTERS DEBATE.

CITY SPRING CLEANING.

The idea of setting apart a certain day r days for a definite spring cleaning of the city streets has been growing in popularity throughout the states and Canada uring the last few years. Last year the tovement invaded this end of the country and civic cleaning day was observed by lalifax, Whitney Pier, C. B., and St. ohn's, Nfid. A little vigorous work at the right time would remove much of the cumulation of the winter and would ake the city more wholesome as well as DANCING ASSEMBLY. The closing of the dancing class conducted during the winter months in Temple Building, Main street, by James Codner and Miss Cameron, took the form of an assembly in Keith's suite last evening and proved a distinctly enjoyable affair. It was attended by about 150. A fine programme of dances was carried out, to music furnished by Jones' orchestra. The rooms were nicely decorated. The chaperones were Mrs. J. W. Cameron, Mrs. George Dick, Mrs. H. H. Bissett and Mrs. H. Codner. Refreshments were served about midnight, and the gathering dispersed a little later.

Steamer Montreal, now unloading on the west side, elected to be tried before Judge Ritchie in the police court and the case was heard this morning. F. R. Taylor appeared for the prosecution and K. J. MacRae for the defence. Thomas Dalton, special C. P. R. constable, said that he roomed with Hickey and on Wednesday morning he, witness noticed an alarm clock on the mantel. He asked the defendant where he got it and was told that he had won it in a lottery. He identified a clock which was produced in court as the one he had seen in his room.

Frank Duff, a timekeeper for the C. P.

Mus. Gorgo Dick, Mrs. H. H. Bissett and Mrs. H. Codner. Refreshments were served about midnight, and the gathering dispersed a little later.
