MISSIONER PREACHES POWERFUL SERMON ON LAST DAY AND HELL

Father Scully Addresses Great Gathering of Men in St. Peter's

"Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire. This was the keynote of the sermon delivered last evening in St. Peter's church by Rev. Edward Scully, C. S. R., of Toronto, in the men's mission. That there was no reason to doubt the existence of a hell, Rev. Father Scully asserted beyond question. "Only the soul, for or those steeped in sin and crime," he said, "doubt that there is a hell, or rather say there is no hell. But there must be such a place, for common sense will tell us that, as there is a place of reward for the good, so there must be a place of punishment for the bad. And from the Bible we learn in several passages wherein God spoke of the hereafter with reference to the horrible place of eternal torment, where the damned must suffer for their sins, not for a year, not for a thousand years, but for all eternity. Common sense should tell us, Father Scully continued, that there must be a hell. What is it that troubles us after we have committed a sin? Is it not our conscience stricken with the fear of something to follow in the hereafter? If we do not wipe that stain of guilt from our souls by the sacrament of penance? Does it seem in reason that the drunkard who through life has led a wicked, sinful career, and who on his dying bed blasphemes his Maker and execrates the priest of God who has come to minister unto him in his last agony—does it seem reasonable that he should enjoy the same happiness and blessings when he has departed into the beyond, as the man who on his deathbed can look back upon a life well-spent in God's service, and who welcomes the minister of God to aid him prepare to meet the Supreme Judge in the world he is about to enter?"

Will you, who are spending your hard-earned wages in drink, who in your drunken condition commit crimes unmentionable, who scorn the mercy of God—will you hear pronounced upon you upon the last day the pleasing words, "Come ye blessed of my father, enter into the kingdom prepared for you," or would you for a moment expect it? Do you not merit, you drunkard, when you stain your soul with mortal sin in your beastly indulgence in drink, the awful sentence, "Into everlasting fire for all eternity," and would you expect that when you should no inclination to amend your life upon earth and take advantage of God's kindness, that you should then be shown any more consideration than your companion in crime who is also damned to Hell for all eternity.

But some hardened sinner will say, "Well, I won't be alone in Hell. There will be many others with me." Yes, my dear Catholic men, that is the terrible truth. You who are leading a life of sin and shame, and who die without repentance, you will not be alone in Hell. But who will be your companions? Your presence be a shock to you? You will see about you friends of yours in crime upon earth who will heap curses upon you for having led them into mortal sin, and instead of being a comfort to you to have them with you they will only embitter your agonizing torments when the fires of hell are raging all about you.

And how long must you suffer after you have heard that dreadful sentence? For all eternity, and who can explain to me the meaning of that word? Who knows what eternity is? Or down to the very depths of hell for a brief moment in thought, and call upon Jesus to deliver him to tell you, him, who has been in Hell for more than 1800 years, question him in his bitter misery, "Judge how long I must continue to suffer the torments of the damned?" And Jesus will make answer from the boiling pit of fire, "As it was in the beginning, so now, and ever shall be, world without end." Go still deeper and ask of Cain, the first known murderer, who must be in hell for thousands of years. Ask of him the same question, and what will the answer come? "As it was in the beginning, so now, and ever shall be, world without end."

The drunkard, the impure man, the unjust man, in short, all who die in mortal sin, will bear the same penalty, and according to their sins upon earth, accordingly shall the offending members of their body or their senses be the objects of special torments in the everlasting pains of hell.

Are you going to be one of those, who are listening to me tonight, who will hear upon the last day that awful sentence, "Depart from me into everlasting fire," with the sentence implying that you are intending to amend your life, to give up your favorite passion, to remain away from that bar-room, that home infamy, that sinful companion, to lead an industrious, sober, Christian career, pleasing in the sight of God, so that when the faithful and the unfaithful from the days of Adam to the end of time will have gathered together on the last day, you will hear pronounced those welcome words: "Enter into the kingdom of thy father, prepared for thee and for the angels and saints," for all eternity, to enjoy the comforts of the blessed, the happiness of Heaven as it was in the beginning, so now and ever shall be, world without end.

JAMES McLAUGHLIN WAS A ST. JOHN MAN

James McLaughlin, who was killed by falling off a train in Kentucky is believed to be a St. John man. A man of that name answering to the description given, a lithographer by trade, lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin at 29 Marsh street until nine weeks ago. At that time he left for Fredericton to spend old home week, and had not since communicated with his family. It is believed that he joined the Haag Circus there and had been travelling with them ever since. Instructions have been given to send the body here for burial.

BLUE MONDAY. Of course everything has gone crooked. As crooked as things can well go. Of course deepest gloom is your portion. And storm clouds are gathering low. You're filled with deep, dark disappointment. In all of the world there's no friend; Your troubles will surely overwhelm you. They never will come to an end. Your grocery bill is a corker; Your note is past due at the bank; They're going to foreclose on the homestead. Unless you put up with a yank; Your automobile has grown balky. The kitchen roof's sprung a great leak. And there are nine thousand more troubles. Of which you would just love to speak. When things seem as bad as they can be—Just lay all your cares on the shelf. There are some folks worse off than you are; You should be ashamed of yourself.

ANGELIC SYNOD FINANCES; OTHER MATTERS OF INTEREST

The quarterly meeting of the Anglican Church Synod boards and committees was held yesterday. At the executive committee meeting there was an attendance of about twenty-five clergymen and laymen. The bishop presided and Archdeacon Raymond filled the position of secretary. Resolutions were presented and a report from the board of missions. The report showed that the finances are in a better state than last year by about $1,000 but funds are needed as several parishes are temporarily vacant and both men and money are needed.

During the past year the following clergymen who had served in the diocese have passed away: Rev. S. M. Hansen, Rev. R. W. Colston, Rev. W. LeB. McKel, Rev. F. J. A. Francis, Rev. Joseph Smith and Rev. D. C. Haviland.

Appointments have lately been made as follows: Rev. H. T. Buckland to Greenwich, Kings county, Rev. J. E. Hand to Grand Falls, Rev. H. Waterton to Lunenburg.

The work performed by the student missionaries during their vacation was very much appreciated.

The board of finance reported the sale of seven lots of land owned by the synod situated on and near Haymarket Square for the sum of $8,200 to Messrs. Armstrong & Bruce. Satisfactory investments of $18,000 and $6,000 respectively had been made by the board.

The board had taken steps whereby it has hoped the widow of the late J. W. Byles would receive the income during her lifetime of the money bequeathed by an executor for an auxiliary purpose.

The report of the board of education showed that the Rothery school was in an excellent condition, the attendance being larger than at any time since the institution came under its present management. Improvements are being made in the accommodation provided and the school has an excellent staff.

The Provincial Anglican Synod of Canada, covering the civil provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, will meet in Montreal on Thursday, the 17th of October. The delegates from the Church in New Brunswick are as follows: Ven. Archdeacon Raymond, Very Rev. Dean Schofield, Ven. Archdeacon Newham, Rev. Canon Smithers, Rev. Canon Nesles, Rev. E. B. Hooper, Rev. Canon Cowie, Rev. G. F. Scovel, Ven. Archdeacon Forsyth, Rev. W. B. Shann, Rev. R. A. Armstrong, Rev. G. A. Kulring, M. G. Teed, Hon. J. P. Burchell, Chancelier Allan, G. O. D. Oxy, R. W. Lawson, H. B. Schofield, Dr. W. S. Carter, W. M. Jarvis, J. Roy Campbell, F. E. Neale, J. H. A. L. Fairweather, W. S. Fisher. The substitutes are, Rev. Canon Hamilton, Rev. H. A. Cody, Rev. R. P. McKim, Rev. W. W. Daniel, Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, George Raymond, J. M. Robinson, T. B. Robinson, W. B. Wallace, J. N. Rogers.

The annual meeting of the Anglican Synod will be held in St. John on Nov. 5, 6, 7 and 8.

MACHINISTS' PAY. The machinists of the city notified their employers yesterday of a request for the establishment of a standard rate of pay of $3 a day and some minor changes in working conditions. Some of the men are already receiving this amount and some of the employers who have not paid that much have expressed their willingness to do so. The men ask for an answer before the fifteenth of the month.

SMUGGLING DIAMONDS FROM CANADA IS CHARGED

New York, Oct. 4.—As the outcome of information received by the federal authorities relative to the smuggling of diamonds across the Canadian border at Roussell's Point, Herman Sagan, connected with the Jewellery firm of Friedlander and Bartowski, this city, was arraigned before a United States grand jury, and held in $2,000 bail for the grand jury.

The government charges that Sagan, on September 11 last, sent across the border a quantity of diamonds valued at $25,000.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN; WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

GOOD SHOW AT STAR. The Star Theatre in Union Hall is giving its patrons a great line of pictures these days—a fine variety of the best that money can procure. The week-end bill, which has commenced, introduces the great adventure of frontier days, entitled "When Young Wild West Was Cornered," by The Apache Indians. The other pictures are: "Blossom Time," a Thanhouser drama; "Counting the Clock," Solax comedy; "Rover's Railroad," a Solax novelty; and "A Trip to Santiago," travel picture. This bill continues until Saturday night and is to be shown at the Saturday matinee. On Monday "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," the great detective story is to be shown.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Boston, Oct. 3.—Stephen R. Dow, sole member of the closed brokerage house of Stephen R. Dow & Company, was arrested today charged with the larceny of $146,764 from the Franklin & Algoma Mining Company. After pleading not guilty in the municipal court he was held in $50,000 for a hearing Oct. 17. In default of bail he was taken to jail.

Toronto, Oct. 3.—Rev. Dr. Lloyd, vice provost of Trinity College, Toronto, has accepted the appointment as canon, residentiary and vicar of All Saints cathedral, Halifax, and will take up his work there about the middle of November. The appointment was made by the Bishop of Nova Scotia.

Dr. Lloyd came to Trinity College three years ago from a large parish on the Pacific coast. His work on behalf of the college endowment fund has been very successful, having added nearly $170,000 to the resources of the institution. He was also lecturer on pastoral theology.

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 3.—(Special).—The funeral of Rev. D. C. Haviland, who died in Montreal, was held today from the parish church. The body arrived on the noon train. The pall-bearers were Mayor Ketchum, A. J. Raymond, W. S. Skiles and Raymond Gabel.

TORONTO SUFFRAGETTES WILL NOT ADOPT MILITANT TACTICS

Toronto, Oct. 3.—Miss Wylie will not be here until the beginning of next week, declared Mrs. Flora McIl Denison this morning. "The Toronto suffragettes have no intention of preparing any big reception for the visitor. She will be treated exactly the same as a speaker at any other meeting and no militant tactics will be introduced. We have the assurance of Mrs. Pankhurst and will be much surprised if Miss Wylie's actions do not confirm the report. Officially nothing has been done yet and no date will be set for the meeting before the end of the week."

Simple, Yet Exceptionally Stylish Hats

for the week-end, and prices not at all out of the way

There is just as much of the artist's touch in a simple tailored hat as there is in the most elaborate. In fact, more so. Many people think they can buy a shape and a mount or feather and put it on themselves, but are they even satisfied with the result?

These new designs are really smart.

ALLIANCE AFTER COMMISSION FOR INSPECTION ON SUNDAY

St. Thomas, Oct. 4.—St. Thomas can certainly boast of having a zealous Lord's Day Alliance.

Chairman H. L. Drayton and other members of the Dominion Railway Board arrived in St. Thomas last Saturday evening and, owing to darkness, were unable to inspect, until next day, the points concerned in the city's application. In one instance St. Thomas was asking for a street railway crossing over the Michigan was where a subway or overhead bridge is needed for the Michigan Central employees to pass to and from their work, as they now have to make a dangerous crossing over a dozen tracks.

A deputation has now waited on the city council asking why it was necessary, and at whose invitation the railway commission visited St. Thomas on the Sabbath Day. The alliance will also make the enquiry of Chairman Drayton.
