

NEW BRUNSWICK'S GREATEST SHOE HOUSE

Avoid Foot-Ache AND Foot Weariness

Toothache can be cured by extracting the tooth or killing the nerve.

But foot-ache is different and certainly incurable as long as ill-fitting shoes are worn.

That's the cause of the ailment—badly fitting, improperly made footwear.

All our shoes give comfort, because they are properly made, from the best leathers, on the true lines of the human foot.

FEWER MEN WOULD BE BALD

In the care of their hair women have shown superior wisdom to men. Only when a bald spot appears on top do many men begin to realize this fact.

If your hair has already started to fall, if you have dandruff and your scalp itches at times, your hope lies in Parisian Sage. Daily applications of this scientific hair preparation will work wonders.

Parisian Sage supplies nourishment to the hair root, while it kills the dandruff germs and at the same time, puts life and lustre into the hair. A truly wonderful combination makes it possible for one ingredient to kill the Auburn hair on every package dandruff germ while the others penetrate.

Sold and guaranteed in Fairville by Allan's Fairville Drug Co.

Daily Hints For the Cook

MOCK MINCE PIE.

Roll three common crackers fine and pour over them 1 1/4 cups of hot water, one cup of molasses, one cup of sugar, half a cup of butter, half a cup of vinegar, one cup of raisins cut fine with the essence, two eggs, one teaspoon of cinnamon, half a teaspoon of clove, a little salt and 1/2 nutmeg, grated. This is enough for three pies.

MOLASSES GINGERBREAD

One cup of molasses, one of boiling water, little salt, tablespoon shortening, one teaspoon of soda and flour to make rather stiff. I use a heaping teaspoon of ginger, but it does not make it taste very strong of flavor, so more could be used if liked.

MARBLE CAKE

Half a cup of butter (or butter and shortening mixed to make half a cup) and a cup of sugar creamed together. Add the yolks of 2 eggs and beat until light, then add the whites (that have been whipped separately), half a cup of milk and 1 1/2 cups of flour in which has been sifted a heaping teaspoon of baking powder. Separate the batter into two parts. To one part add the chopped meats of a pound of walnuts and to the other a heaping tablespoon of cocoa, wet with a little hot water, and a cup of chopped raisins. Put into the pan alternately a spoonful of each and a spoonful of light.

MR. JACK'S VIEW IS CRITICIZED

Editor St. John Evening Times.
Sir:—I wish to call attention to the closing remarks made by Mr. D. R. Jack in his paper "The Day of the City's Founders," in reference to the proposed visit of a St. John militia company to Boston.

We are now rounding our century of peace between the United States and Canada, and such sentiments as those expressed by Mr. Jack have not been the means of our retaining this long peace. We can celebrate each other's victories in war, and to show the soothing power of time, the vanquished can celebrate with the victors, and tend to bring about our much anticipated celebration of the centenary of our greatest victory, a hundred years' triumph of peace over war.

In time even this vast earth cooled from its fiery state and became habitable and fruit-bearing. So does time cool one's anger and our animosity.

General Botha, of Boer war fame, is not a traitor to his former flag, that of the Transvaal, nor to the present flag, Britain's. He is a good British citizen, dutifully serving his country best, as a link in the great Empire. Like this old earth, men like Botha, who like this old earth, evolve from the fiery chaos more fruitful. The world laughs at such sentiments as France's much mourned Straubinger, and the smile of the Roman captives cited by Mr. Jack. One would indeed have to possess much of that characteristic which the world, in the above instance, finds so ludicrous in the French, to allow his imagination to grasp the similarity. If Rome a few centuries later attempted to drag the same captives around her forum, it would have indeed made a holiday, but not for Rome, the Barbarians would have enjoyed it more.

"Arise ye Goths and Glut your ire," exclaimed Byron, much as the Christian Clovis called out when first told the story of Christ's passion and crucifixion, "where was I with my good France?" In calmer moments we learn to forget.

We trust the militia company will go to Boston. We feel that they will do Canada credit, and will not humble her in the least; are we know that Dame Boston will do herself credit hospitably. It may seem paradoxical, but such mutual and fraternal military relations between the two countries will greatly help to bring about the much desired arbitration of disputes, and help us to round out our century of peace and let us hope many centuries more.

Thanking you sincerely,
I am,
EWYN BRUCE MacKINNON.
