

The Evening Times-Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1924

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

LOOK THEM OVER
"Pop" in exchange, in buying and selling, in finding lost articles...

RESIGNATIONS
Montreal, June 27.—According to the Star it is rumored that Hon. C. Baillairge and F. W. Stewart have resigned from the Conservative Association of Montreal...

Germany Will Not Be Spared Unless She Keeps Her Word
GERMANY'S TAKEOVER WILL STREET

GERMANY MUST REMAIN LOYAL SAYS HERRIOT
Britain and France Will Stand for Forced Disarmament if Necessary.
IN FULL ACCORD
Dominions May be Represented at London Conference—U. S. Welcomed.

Causes N. S. Man Loss of Legs
Toronto, N. S., June 27.—Joseph Meagher of Westville, aged 45, had both his feet so badly crushed here yesterday afternoon, as he made an unsuccessful attempt to board the blind baggage of the Maritime Express as it was pulling out for Halifax, that he had to have both his feet amputated in the hospital here last evening...

BOWSER TO QUIT AS B. C. LEADER OF CONSERVATIVES
Definite Decision Reached, is Victoria Report to Vancouver Paper.
A RAPPROACHMENT
Conservatives and Provincials Get Together—Seat Wanted for Oliver.

Boy Scouts May Use Talking Drums
London, June 27.—Experiments are now being made, on the initiative of Sir Robert Baden Powell, with the object of adapting the Ashanti drums and drum language to the conveyance of messages in English, especially for the use of Boy Scouts...

THE DEMOCRATS STILL AT ODDS ON TWO PLANKS
Platform Committee Cannot Agree on Klan and the League of Nations.
FOR PROHIBITION
Would Enforce the Law, But Do Not Specify—Tariff Revision.

Here is Lieutenant Russell L. Maughan, standing beside his cross-country plane. It is of the Curtiss Pursuit type. On Monday, June 23, 1924, Maughan left Montreal, N. Y., at 2:55 a. m. and arrived in San Francisco at 5:40 p. m. the same day. The flight across the continent, although being made for change of time, took 22 hours, 41 minutes.

POLICE THINK MAN CAPTURED HERE IS ONE SOUGHT FOR Find Tools in Car; Believe Him Terrorizer of the North Shore.
PUTS UP FIGHT
Detective Biddiscombe Wins Thrilling Battle for Revolver in Street.

CANADA HAS NICE TRADE BALANCE
Nearly $200,000,000. is the Figure for Twelve Months Ended May 31.
Ottawa, June 27.—Canada has a favorable trade balance of nearly $200,000,000 for the twelve months ended May 31. During that period Canadian products exported were worth $1,069,716,880. Imports totalled $873,867,732. Duty totalled $129,965,468. Exports increased by $10,000,000 over 1923 and imports increased by $32,000,000. The chief increase in exports was in agricultural products and wood and paper.

HE PRAYED FOR HIS SWEET DARLING
But She Thinks $100,000 Would Do Her a Lot More Good.
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "My sweetest," the sweetheart is all right with me. He feels very lonely. Darling, you are all the world to him. May God care for you—Phil."
The plaintiff in the $100,000 breach of promise suit brought by Madeline Dey against Philip M. Shaw, wealthy New York broker, were considered as the trial resumed before Justice Glazier, in Supreme Court, here today.

STEWART WILL NOT MAKE ANY TERMS
Postal Strikers Must Come Back as New Employees if At All.
Ottawa, June 27.—Hon. Chas. Stewart, acting postmaster general, reiterated last night that the Government has not made any new offer to the striking postal workers since June 19, when proposals were made to the men's executive, on the eve of the strike. These proposals will stand Mr. Stewart said in the House of Commons yesterday, so far as the employees of the Government are concerned. The strikers, however, are regarded as having undertaken the hard work of the service. There is no barrier to their being taken back to work if the various postmasters can find room for them, but they will come back as new employees, and the Government does not see its way to treat with them as strikers or while they are not employees of the post office department.

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—Republican "inefficiency and corruption" forms the subject matter of the first and principal plank in the Democratic platform, as presented by the eleven men who have labored on the national party declaration for 1924. Asserting that never has there been an administration that so thoroughly failed as the present Republican administration, the platform arraigns the recent oil scandal, the "A vote for Coolidge is a vote for class," the plank concludes.

THREE QUARTERS OF GREEK NAVY OFFICERS ARE IN MUTINY; WOULD OUST MINISTER
Athens, June 27.—One hundred and fifty-five of the 200 officers in the Greek navy have mutinied and are demanding the resignation of Minister of Marine Hadjiyfiakos.
The disgruntled officers charge that the minister promoted several superior officers unjustly. It is predicted in some quarters that the affair will develop into a serious one. All naval aviators have joined the mutiny. Premier Papastasiou refuses to comply with the demand to oust Hadjiyfiakos and the Government declares that all party parties will be punished sternly. There is talk of executing the ring-leader.

WHITCOMBE LEADS SAYS PROHIBITION IS "A FALSE SCENT"
English Bishop So Assures a Rotary Club—Clergy Favors Model Inns.
London, June 27.—(British United Press.)—Prohibition pushes positive law beyond the proper limitations of personal rights. The moderate use of alcohol is a tradition of Christendom."
Dr. Hensley Henson, the Bishop of Durham, surprised the members of the Sunderland Rotary Club with this statement, declaring that prohibition was a false scent. He urged that the slums should be cleared and that the public houses should be improved. The number of clergy present at the opening of the Model Inn at Catford, which is a step in the direction of providing good public-houses for the people was surprisingly large and their presence is freely commented upon in the morning newspapers.

IRISH FREE STATE HAS ITS MINISTER
Washington Heartily Agrees to Proposal of British Government in This Matter.
Washington, June 27.—Secretary Hughes was advised by the British Ambassador yesterday that the British Government deemed it desirable that the handling of matters at Washington exclusively relating to the Irish Free State should be confined to the Irish Minister Plenipotentiary accredited to the United States.
The candidates formally in nomination when the convention assembled to-day were: William G. McKelvey, California; Governor Alfred E. Smith, New York; Senator Underwood, Alabama; Senator Robinson, Arkansas; Senator Ralston, Indiana; Former Senator William Sulzberg, Delaware; Governor Jonathan Davis, Kansas; Governor Ritchie, Maryland; Former Secretary of Agriculture, Houston, Texas; Senator Ferris, Michigan.

GERMANY WARNED
Paris, June 27.—(British United Press.)—Premier MacDonald and I have agreed that if Germany is loyal she will not be disturbed, but that if she is not loyal she will not be spared."
That was Premier Herriot's declaration in the Chamber of Deputies here today, when he outlined the results of his recent conversation in London and Brussels. He also gave the result of his talks in a speech before the Senate.
Premier MacDonald has informed me that in case Germany defaults England solemnly promises to remain beside the Allies," he told the Senate.

HALIFAX COUNCIL WANTS JUDGMENT
Revives Case of City Collector, Recently Released From Dorchester.
Halifax, June 27.—The finance committee of the city council, last night, unanimously passed a resolution to the effect that the city solicitor be instructed to take immediate action to secure judgment for $104,000 against former City Collector Robert Theakston, who has recently been released from Dorchester Penitentiary after serving five months of a two years' sentence. The sum is the total amount known to date of the default in the collector's department. The resolution also asked that the former official be examined under the collection act.

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

FREDERICTON WON VERY CLOSE GAME
McCurt Again in the Box—Brennan Made Good Showing.
Fredericton, N. B., June 27.—Fredericton won a close game from Moncton in the New Brunswick League last night. The score was 3 to 4, after a game that was won and lost by both sides several times. McCurt pitched his first game since he was laid up with influenza. Three of seven bases on balls by Leach were developed into Fredericton runs. An error by McLean, filling in in the absence of McManus for Moncton, on a comparatively easy fly in the 7th, allowed Fredericton to tie the score after Moncton had forged ahead, and a hit by Rouillard, followed by Brennan and Bolter, produced the winning run. Brennan caught a good game for Moncton, and as well will probably be rewarded by that club.

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

FLO ZIEGFELD HELPS IMOGENE
The Follies Girl Takes Her Case Before the Grand Jury.
(United Press.)
New York, June 27.—Imogene Wilson, whose bouts with Batting Frank Tinney raised from her lowly position of a girl in the chorus to a Follies star, went before the grand jury here today to tell of an alleged felonious assault upon her by the widely known blackface comedian.
Backed by Flo Ziegfeld himself, the actress said she would tell the same story she had already repeated in court and to the newspapers many times how Tinney pummelled her into unconsciousness.

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

CANNIBAL STORY COMES TO 'FRISCO
Natives of Sokotia Island Alleged to Have Eaten Six Light-Keepers.
San Francisco, Cal., June 27.—Because cannibals had eaten the light-keeper on the island of Sokotia and consequently no light was showing, the President Garfield, due here July 3, was forced to anchor outside the island port all night, and so was delayed on its schedule, officials of the company in San Francisco reported.
Natives of this island, which lies between Colombo and Suez, in the Indian Ocean, have done away with five other light-keepers in this manner.
The advices stated that the authorities at Suez had thus informed the captain of the President Garfield.

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

MAUGHAN AND HIS "SHIP"
Maughan and His "Ship"
New York, June 27.—(United Press.) "I have nothing to say, not a word," and she added, when it was suggested that her story to the grand jury might be somewhat different from the colorful recital she made to newspapermen, after her widely known last battle with the blackface caveman, for which she brought Tinney into court: "I am not in the habit of lying, or telling two different stories."

Weather Report table with columns for Station, 8 a.m. Yesterday, and Highest during night. Includes locations like Victoria, Kamloops, Calgary, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Montreal, St. John, and Halifax.