FIVE ORDAINED PRIESTS TODAY IN CATHEDRAL

Three Saint John Young Men Are Included in Number

CEREMONY DRAWS LARGE GATHERING

First Masses to be Celebrated in Home Churches Tomorrow.

In the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception this morning the impressive ceremony of ordination of five priests was performed by Bishop E. A. LeBlanc, assisted by Rev. Dr. Louis Guertin, C. S. C., president of St. Joseph's University, as high priest; Rev. F. Walker, deacon; Rev. James Brown, subdeacon, and Revs. William M. Duke and Charles Boyd, masters of ceremonies.

THE NEW PRIESTS.

The young men elevated to the priesthood were: Rev. Joseph Henneberry, Fredericton, who was sponsored by Rev. Jos. B. Ward, of Sussex; Rev. Arthur W. Kinsella, Saint John, sponsored by Rev. Francis Cronin, of Holy Trinity; Rev. Joseph Butler, of Saint John, sponsored by Rev. James Cloran, C. S. S. B., Fredericton; Rev. T. Melville Nichol, Saint John, sponsored by Rev. William McCullough, C. S. S. B., Moncton; Rev. Francis Gillen, Moncton, sponsored by Rev. Edward Savage, of his home city.

The Cathedral was completely filled during the impressive ceremonies. Not only the Holy Saturday services, which included the blessing of the new fire, the paschal candle and the Easter wax made the attendance large but hundreds of friends and relatives of the new priests made the congregation exceedingly large.

THE FIRST BLESSING.

After the ordination the newly-created priests retired to the vestry where a throng of people pressed forward their first blessings. The young men were congratulated upon the consummation of their years of study for the priesthood. Parents and nearest kinfolk were alike congratulatory.

REV. ARTHUR W. KINSELLA, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kinsella, 165 Paradise Row, was second son of the family, born in Saint John, N. B., on Sept. 15, 1900. He received his early education in St. Peter's School, North End, after which he attended Holy Heart Seminary, Fredericton, N. B., where he graduated with honors in 1917. In the fall of the same year he entered St. Joseph's University, Moncton, N. B., where he completed his theological studies at Holy Heart Seminary, Fredericton, N. B., where he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1921. He will deliver a sermon appropriate for the occasion at Father Kinsella's home, 100 St. Joseph's street, at 10 o'clock.

REV. JOSEPH P. BUTLER is the youngest member of the ordinands. He was born in the North End on Easter Monday, April 18, 1901, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Butler, 198 Metcalf street. On his completion of the eighth grade in St. Peter's School in 1918, Father Butler entered St. Joseph's University in the fall of that year taking both High School and university courses, graduating in 1921, a classmate of Fathers Gillen, Kinsella and Nichol. With them he studied theology at Holy Heart Seminary, Fredericton, N. B., where he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1924. He will deliver a sermon appropriate for the occasion at Father Butler's home, 198 Metcalf street, at 10 o'clock.

REV. T. MELVILLE NICHOL is a son of the late Joseph and Elizabeth Nichol. He was born in this city on Sept. 6, 1900. He received his early education at St. Joseph's University, Moncton, N. B., where he completed his theological studies at Holy Heart Seminary, Fredericton, N. B., where he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1921. He will deliver a sermon appropriate for the occasion at Nichol's home, 100 St. Joseph's street, at 10 o'clock.

REV. FRANCIS GILLEN is a son of the late William and Margaret Henneberry of Fredericton, N. B., was born in North Devon, N. B., where he completed his grammar and High School courses in Fredericton. For one year he attended St. Joseph's University, Moncton, N. B., where he completed the university course at U. N. B., Fredericton, graduating with honors in 1918. The two following years he taught school in the central part of the province and in 1919 was appointed to the teaching staff of St. Thomas' College, Chatham, N. B. There he took up philosophy and he was a graduate of this college in 1921. He completed his course in theology at Holy Heart Seminary, Fredericton, N. B., where he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1924. He will deliver a sermon appropriate for the occasion at Gillen's home, 100 St. Joseph's street, at 10 o'clock.

REV. JOSEPH A. HENNEBERRY, son of the late William and Margaret Henneberry of Fredericton, N. B., was born in North Devon, N. B., where he completed his grammar and High School courses in Fredericton. For one year he attended St. Joseph's University, Moncton, N. B., where he completed the university course at U. N. B., Fredericton, graduating with honors in 1918. Local News

DANGEROUS.
The police have reported that two iron pipes are protruding from the sidewalk in Harrison street and are liable to cause people to trip over them.

THEIR CHILD DEAD.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nostell, 32 Erin street were called on today to mourn the loss of their infant and only son, Harold W., aged two months, who died this morning. Burial will be on Sunday afternoon.

FORFEITS $20.
Oliver W. Woods, charged with assaulting Zill Cowan a few weeks ago, forfeited a deposit of $20 when the case was called for hearing this morning by Magistrate Henderson in the police court. The defendant failed to appear.

JEWISH CELEBRATION.
Mayor Potts this morning received an invitation to attend a celebration to be held by the Hebrew people of the city in the synagogue on Sunday evening. This event will take place Sunday evening at the Synagogue.

DEATHS NUMBER 11.
Deaths in the city for the week ending today numbered 11 from the following causes: Heart disease, two; bronchitis, carcinoma, alcoholism, convulsions, cancer of stomach, cirrhosis of liver, cerebral hemorrhage, acute cardiac dilatation, chronic endocarditis.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.
Friends of Mrs. Sydney Wakeham gathered at her home, Albert street, on Thursday night to celebrate her birthday. The evening passed very pleasantly with games, and a presentation of a beautiful flower bowl and flower holder was made to Mrs. Wakeham by Samuel Shanks on behalf of those present. A birthday cake was an important item. Mrs. Samuel Shanks and Mrs. Eldon Horton helped to serve refreshments. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Estroff, Miss Yvonne Estabrook, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shanks, Harold Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. J. Chesseman, Irvine Chesseman, Mr. and Mrs. F. Shanks, Mrs. J. Horton, and George Wakeham.

DAVID AND GOLIATH.
Many conveyances of varied sizes and kinds were noticed on the Robesay road yesterday, and motorists were kept at much slower than the regular speed, to give everybody the right of way. Three small boys on a tin express wagon, kept going religiously to the right side of the road, piled their way along and fully seven automobiles going to Robesay were obliged for a little while to relinquish their speed to that of the smaller conveyance. There was a long line of cars traveling toward the city at the same time. After a rushed past, as if rejoicing in being released from their tedious experience. The motorists were good-natured and seemed to enjoy the experience.

PROPERTY SALES

Several Are Offered at "Corner" and Then Are Disposed of.

Three lots of property were offered for sale today at Chubb's Corner by Auctioneer F. L. Potts. A bit of a mix-up was caused by the fact that one bidder ran the first lot offered up under the belief that it was another property. Later the sale was declared off and the property will be sold at private sale.

The first property offered was house and land in Bridge street, belonging to the estate of H. D. J. Purdy. The next was the Cunard wharf, belonging to the same estate. No offers were received for this and it was announced these two lots would be sold at private sale. A leasehold lot and house, 184 Metcalf street, belonging to the estate of Mr. Purdy were sold to Mrs. Mary Boyle for $1,250.

A leasehold property, 23 Garden street, belonging to the estate of Mrs. Mary S. B. Allison, was sold to K. A. Wilson for $3,000 and a freehold property, corner of St. James and Sydney streets, belonging to the estate of George Selfridge, was sold to Mr. Wilson for $2,750.

He will celebrate his first high mass in St. Bernard's church, Moncton, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Father McCullough, C. S. S. R., of Moncton, a cousin of the young priest, was here for the ordination. Sisters Angela and Fidelis of Saint John and Madame Gillen of the Sacred Heart Academy, Halifax, are a theologian of Holy Heart Seminary, Fredericton, N. B., where he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1924.
