RECENT DEATHS

R. Chesley Smith, of Hopewell Hill, is received word of the death of his other, Mrs. Sarah Smith, who passed away at her home at Mount Vernon, Washington state. Mrs. Smith was the widow of Calvin Smith, of Hopewell Hill, and was eighty-eight years of age.

The death of Michael Keohan occurred on Dec. 4 at the residence of his mother, John Keohan, Norton, with whom he had been living for the last sixteen years. He was in the 70th year of his age. He is survived by two brothers, John, of Hampton, and James, of Boston; and three sisters, Misses Margaret and May and Mrs. Sears, of Boston. The funeral took place last Sunday from Norton Station. Rev. Father Hyne conducted the burial service.

Ministerial Rifles.

The Ross Rifle Company is making for the cadet corps of Canada, on instructions from the militia department at Ottawa, a large number of 22-calibre rifles. They will weigh about five pounds less and are almost a miniature of the long Ross.

Mr. Townsend, editor of Punch, is curiously ambidextrous. He draws with his left hand, but writes with the right; plays billiards left-handedly and deals cards with the right hand. When playing cricket he bowls with his left hand and bats with the right.
