REPORT OF SABBATH SCHOOL.

Superintendent ..... Rev. Dr. Smith.
Organist ..... Miss Irving.
Secretary & Treasurer ..... Jas. Polly.

Librarians—T. Minnes, Jas. Begg, Jas. Thom, Alex. Smith, John Polly.
Teachers—Mrs. Thompson, Misses Fowler, Machar, Macpherson, Philipps, Mitchell, Gray, M. Gray, Strange and A. Strange, McLeod, McIver, Ross, Davidson, Fraser and G. Fraser, Polly, Lesslie, Irving, Minnes and A. Minnes, Hamilton, Sutherland and Smith, Lieut. J. B. Donaldson, Messrs. Ross and Craig, Prof. Harris and Dr. Smith.

The Sabbath School desires to express its gratitude to the Divine Teacher for the success which has attended its efforts during the period under review.

The largest attendance recorded present at one session is two hundred and ninety-seven, and the average attendance has been two hundred and thirty-seven.

Since submitting the last report a number of changes have taken place in the staff, and we miss many faithful workers whose faces were once so familiar in the School, viz. :—Mrs. Mowat, Mrs. Riddell, Misses Shannon, Lafferty and Dickson, and Messrs. J. M. Strange and S. Woods—some by retirement, some by marriage, and some by removal. Wherever they are, and whatever they are doing, our best wishes go with them.

The school continues to study the "International Lessons" published by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, Philadelphia. Its Mission work is the same as last reported, viz. : the support of two orphans in India, besides subscribing liberally to the Canadian School there and the Home Mission work in Canada. The Library has been replenished with a new collection of books, but to do this the funds of the school have scarcely been adequate, and there are several accounts unpaid.

We desire again to record the valuable and faithful services of Miss Irving as Organist, and also the kind and efficient assistance of Miss G. Fraser at the instrument during Miss Irving's temporary but unavoidable absence from the city.

The usual quarterly children's services have been held in the church, and the annual summer and winter entertainments have been enjoyed.

Finally, we extend a cordial invitation to all who may wish to visit or join the school, and assure them of a hearty welcome.

T. G. SMITH,

JAS. POLLY,

Superintendent.

Secretary.
