DEREHAM CENTRE.

Nov. 29th.—Mr. R. G. Adamson has returned from attending the funeral of his sister, Mrs. J. Robinson of Wawanosh.

Messrs. H. Pegg, R. Hudson and Alex. Harkness intend leaving tomorrow for England and will sail from St. John on Friday by the S. S. Empress of Ireland.

Miss Ethel Vatcher has gone to spend a few days with friends in Tillsonburg and vicinity.

Pains, Like the Poor, Are Always With Us.—That portion of man's life which is not made up of pleasure is largely composed of pain, and to be free from pain is a pleasure. Simple remedies are always the best in treating bodily pain, and a safe, sure and simple remedy is Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. You cannot do wrong in giving it a trial when required.

PUTNAM.

Nov. 29th.—Miss Lutes, of St. Thomas and Miss McMillan of West Minister, were guests over Sunday of Mrs. Angus McNeven, "Maple Hill Farm."

Miss May Wilde and Miss Georgina Sangster, visited at R. Boulding's, over Sunday.

The many friends here of Mr. Harry Couch hear with regret of the accident he met with last week, by having three fingers taken off his left hand in a cutting box.

Mr. Allen L. Perley and Master Allen visited friends in Paris and Burford over the week end.

Miss Mabel Frolick who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Edwin Barry, in West Toronto, returned home on Saturday.

The Sunday School intend having a Christmas entertainment on the evening of Dec. 22nd. Further notices later.

A Purely Vegetable Pill.—Parma's Vegetable Pills are compounded from roots, herbs and solid extracts of known virtue in the treatment of liver and kidney complaints and in giving tone to the system whether enfeebled by overwork or dragged through excesses in living. They require no testimonial. Their excellent qualities are well known to all those who have used them and they commend themselves to dyspeptics and those subject to biliousness who are in quest of a beneficial medicine.

AVON.

Nov. 28th.—The Catechumen class concert has been postponed until Friday night, Dec. 16th, from the 23rd on account of the bad weather and roads.

The Home Circle of this place are to have an oyster supper in the hall here on the night of Dec. 2nd. A good time is expected, plenty of oysters, and a good program.

Mrs. Binkley is enjoying a visit from her brother, also Mrs. W. Clement.

A large number from here are going to Port Bruce for fish as they are plentiful although so far to draw them.

The open weather of the previous week enabled those who still had turnips in the field, to get them in. They do not appear to be hurt from the several frosts and the snow which we had. A number of the members of the Home Circle helped to get in Mr. Nigh's.

On Tuesday of last week the members of O.C.H.C. gathered with their teams and plows in the fields and turned over 14 acres of sod for Bro. W. V. Nigh who had been hurt. In the evening they were treated right royally to an oyster supper by the

FAIRGROUND.

Nov. 28th.—The Parsonage was shingled with cedar shingles last week.

The Carmel church is getting a coat of paint outside.

The Farmers were doing fall plowing last week.

W. E. Cutler was the guest of Mr. T. B. Park last Sunday.

Monday morning was rain and sleet, milder at midday, turning to snow at night, but not very cold.

W. Park has lost ten or eleven small pigs.

The Free Methodists are starting revival meetings.

They Never Knew Failure.—Careful observation of the effects of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills has shown that they act immediately on the diseased organs of the system and stimulate them to healthy action. There may be cases in which the disease has been long seated and does not easily yield to medicine, but even in such cases these Pills have been known to bring relief when all other so-called remedies have failed. These assertions can be substantiated by many who have used the Pills, and medical men speak highly of their qualities.

VERSCHOYLE.

Nov. 28th.—Miss Maude Cuddie has returned to her home in Woodstock after spending a month with friends in this vicinity.

Ralph Connor Defends.

Winnipeg, Nov. 30.—Hon. Colin Campbell and Rev. C. W. Gordon engaged in acrimonious conflict yesterday morning while the name was on the stand in the enquiry into Dr. Shearer's charges. After stating that in his opinion nothing could be farther from the truth than the accusation of graft by police in administration of the segregation district, the Attorney-General went on to characterize Dr. Shearer's statements regarding the morality of Winnipeg as the most bitterly cruel that ever went before the public.

Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) took up the cudgels in defence of Shearer, and put the Attorney-General through a severe cross-examination, in which there was a good deal of mutual recrimination. The Attorney-General said he had formerly had a good opinion of Shearer, but in this case his zeal had run away with his judgment.

Ald. Adams shook his fist in the face of Rev. Charles D. Stewart, and demanded that the latter take back the offensive statement that the name of Adams should be placed with that of house of prostitution in the segregated area.

Attorney-General Campbell, in speaking of the difficulty of obtaining conviction under the present criminal law, suggested an amendment permitting conviction on prima facie evidence.

Fire in Montreal Monday morning did about $30,000 damage to the dining and sleeping car stores building in the passenger yard of the Canadian Pacific Railway.
