

WELCOMED HOME

Victorians Do Honor to Two of British Columbia's Big Fours.

The James Bay Crew and the Vancouver-Astorians Warmly Received.

Judging by the enthusiastic welcome accorded the senior four of the James Bay Athletic Association on their return from Winnipeg after experiencing defeat only at the hands of the strongest rowing combination ever gotten together in the Dominion, it is not too much to say that they returned with the right to be hailed as champions of America.

President J. Dallas Helmecken, radiant with happiness, roused the audience to enthusiasm with his graceful and well chosen words of congratulation and commendation addressed to the four, and the hearty endorsement of the crowd given to his suggestion that the necessary funds be raised to send the crew to St. Louis next year.

Mr. Helmecken expressed the belief that in a straightaway race even the hitherto unconquered Argonauts might have to lower their colors to British Columbia's champions, there was a corroborative opinion very fairly entertained by the Victoria rowing men.

Letters of apology for unavoidable absence were read from J. Vice-Presidents, Messrs. J. Stewart Yates, and a particularly congratulatory one from Mr. P. J. Bannon on behalf of the Willamettes of Portland.

Mr. Helmecken called upon the audience for these cheers for the Vancouver crew, which were given with a fervor from Astoria, and again the room resounded with hearty applause in honor of British Columbia's rowing men.

Mr. Helmecken followed by Messrs. Watts and Wadge, the last named gentleman's remarks possessing special interest on account of his having been a member of the famous Argonaut club.

His worship the mayor was as usual particularly happy in his congratulations on behalf of the citizens generally, and was heartily cheered, more especially when he intimated that the necessary funds to send the James Bay crew, and, if possible, to Helmecken, would be forthcoming.

Hon. Col. Prior also congratulated the crew and Lieut.-Col. Gregory moved that a vote of thanks be passed to the citizens of the Prairie Capital for their kind reception and entertainment of the James Bay crew.

The congratulatory telegram was dispatched to the Argonauts. The motion was duly seconded and carried unanimously.

The speaking was concluded by a few words from Dr. J. S. Helmecken and the musical programme was continued, those taking part therein acquiring themselves with marked ability.

At a largely attended meeting last night to welcome home our senior four, a hearty vote of thanks was passed unanimously, and we are directed to wire you accordingly.

H. DALLAS HELMECKEN, President J.B.A.A. A. J. DALLAIN, Secretary J.B.A.A. Hon. Secretary Argonaut Rowing Club, Toronto, Ont.

repeating the challenge issued by Bob Johnson, the medication an acceptance being arranged as quickly as the telegraph could convey them. The stake is $1,000 a side, and $200 will be allowed the British Columbia sculler for expenses, the race being rowed on the Lake of the Woods course at Fort George, between the 15th and 25th of September. Johnson's chances of success are admitted to be excellent.

THE RING. Corbett and McCoy. San Francisco, Aug. 29.—Pugilist James J. Corbett leaves for New York on Monday. He says McCoy acted very manfully in conceding a postponement of their engagement, but as it is purely a matter of business with him, he will try and have the contest carried out according to original plans, excepting that the time, of necessity, be changed to a later date. The National Club has signed Frank McConnell to fight George Green, of this city, some time next month.

A Fatal Fight. New York, Aug. 28.—Alexander Scott, the pugilist, died at the Norwegian Hospital at 5 o'clock this morning of uremic convulsions, brought on by his exertions in his fight with Tommy Butler at the Greenwood Athletic Club, Brooklyn, last night.

THOS. J. WALLACE, Fireman. MAJOR WALSH TALKS. Interviewed at Skagway. He Says That the Royalty Has Been Levied Only on Those Able to Pay.

Skagway, Aug. 21, by steamer City of Topoka to Victoria, Aug. 26.—J. M. Walsh, the famous Yukon commissioner, who has been succeeded by Mr. Ogilvie, the former Dominion surveyor, is in the city awaiting the arrival of his successor. Mr. Ogilvie is expected in a few days and Major Walsh anticipated taking the next steamer to the south on his way home in Rockville, Ont.

Major Walsh said today that he was happy his tenure of office is ended and that his return to the country is a relief. He said that he has administered the laws while on the Yukon in a manner that he knew all the men who were able to pay the collection of the royalty was a matter optional with him, but also remarked that in all matters he was granted great latitude and that he was anxious to amend the existing mining laws and in some instances he did change and modify them to the benefit of the mining section.

Concerning the collection of royalty the Major vehemently remarked: "I never enforced the collection of royalty from any man who was unable to pay royalty many times over. The law was only enforced against the men who were able to pay it—the rich mine owners."

The Major remarked to the Associated Press correspondent that he had gone into the country against his will, but arriving had administered the government as he deemed just. He said that at no time was he interested personally, through the company or otherwise, in a foot of ground. He leaves the country without having secured holdings, mining or otherwise.

The Major is a rugged man and his general appearance and complexion indicate that his years of roughing it has hardened his skin and that the majority of the Major has been endeavoring to induce his government to appoint his successor, but that he only agreed to accept the office to fill the duties of an extraordinary occasion. Now that this occasion has passed he felt he had performed his duty and that the mantle should fall on other shoulders. John P. Clum, the United States postal commissioner, who is on his way home, has been with the Major during his stay and speaks in high terms of the many courtesies extended him by the Canadian officials during his stay in British territory.

HONEST HELP FREE TO WEAK MEN. The Victoria Times is authorized to state by Rev. A. H. Macfarlane, of the town, Ontario, that any man who is suffering from overwork, excess of travel, nervous debility, or general vigor, lack of development, etc., can write him in strict confidence and be instructed free of charge how to be thoroughly cured.

Knowing his sorrow, that so many sufferers are being imposed upon by unscrupulous quacks, this clergyman considers it his duty to give his fellow-men the benefit of his experience and assist them to a cure. Having nothing to sell, he asks for no money, any man who sends for his advice and follows it can rely upon being cured. Of course only those actually needing help are expected to apply, enclosing a stamp.

Address as above and refer to the Victoria Times. Mr. A. C. Wolfe, of Dundee, Mo., who travels for the Mansur & Tibbitts, Implement Co., of St. Louis, gives the following advice: "Being a knight of the grip," he says, "I have for the past several years made it a rule to keep myself supplied with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have found numerous occasions to test its merits, not only on myself, but on others as well. I can only say that I never, in a single instance, have known it to fail. It is a most reliable remedy, remedies travellers can carry and can relate many instances where I have used the remedy on skeptics, much to their surprise and relief. It is a most reliable travelling man in the United States will carry a bottle of this remedy in his grip."

Mines and Mining.

SPRINGER AND LEMON CREEKS.

Socan City, B. C., Aug. 22.—While there are no extensive mining operations going on here at present, the prospect is that there is a large amount of individual work being done on promising claims all through the upper Spranger and Lemon creek districts. The temporary shutting down of work on the S.x mine and Springer creek wagon roads has been an intense disappointment to the general development, the result of which is eminently satisfactory.

Work has been started once more on the two districts, the property which had a good reputation in the past as a producer. The present force is not operating in the old workings, but is opening up new and promising ledges which could be plainly seen cropping out of the hillsides. They are confident of making a big strike in a short time.

The Mining & Milling Company, of London, England, has secured an option on the Creole, a promising Lemon Creek property, valued at $250,000, owned by Ernest A. Bremner, the representative of the company.

The Ideal company, A. B. Fetter, manager, who has a lease and bond on the Ottawa, a Springer Creek property of merit, is going right on with development in a systematic manner.

Leominer property which with the usual number of excellent strikes, due to development now going on on the territory, is now being worked on a long stream. Assessment work generally is being promptly done on all claims in this section.

smelting, extent to which it is proposed to carry the process of smelting, and such further information in respect thereof as the minister of trade and commerce may require.

Third—Claims for the payment of bounty shall be made and substantiated on the oath of the proprietors or one of the proprietors and the foreman or manager of the works, or in the case of an incorporated company, of the president or the foreman, in the form as per schedule hereto attached.

Fourth—Such claim shall be made quarterly, as soon after the close of each quarter as possible, showing the exact quantity and description of the ores and of the product thereof smelted during the three months ended respectively September 30th, December 31st, March 31st, and June 30th in each fiscal year.

Fifth—Such claims shall be verified and certified to by the officers of the department of trade and commerce or of customs appointed to supervise the smelting at the works where the smelting has taken place, and the same shall be substantiated to the satisfaction of the minister of trade and commerce and no claims made otherwise than in conformity with the requirements of these regulations shall be recognized, allowed or paid by the minister of trade and commerce.

Sixth—The smelting of such ores shall be at all times under the supervision of the officer of the department of trade and commerce or of customs appointed to supervise the smelting, and the cost of such supervision shall be paid by the owners of the works under his supervision.

Seventh—The books of the owners of all smelting works claiming the bounty shall be at all times open to the inspection of the supervising officer, and of any chief officer of the department of trade and commerce or of customs.

Eighth—As soon after the close of each fiscal year as it is possible to examine and verify the quarterly claims for smelting done during the year, the minister shall apportion pro rata according to the quantity smelted by the owners during the year and pay the same accordingly.

A perusal of the above clearly shows how the bounty will be administered, and the statements on the subject, and how, though the Conservatives initiated the legislation, it was left for the Liberals to put matters into such shape that practical benefit could be obtained from it.

If no claims have been paid under this act, it is almost a necessity in the eyes of the Liberal government. If the smelters prefer not to comply with the necessary conditions and so do not wish to attend the adjourned meeting of the party, Messrs. Deane, Green, Sword, and others are also in town, and a stalling attempt took place last night in the tenderloin district.
