The reception held Thursday by the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Fraser at the Royal was largely attended.

Digby is becoming a more popular summer resort every year. There are more people there now than ever before.

To VISIT ENGLAND.—Archdeacon Briggs informed Trinity congregation at morning service, Sunday, that he had been granted two months' leave of absence and would sail for England this week.

APPOINTED ORGANIST.—E. A. Wilbur, formerly organist of Queen's Square Methodist Church, and more recently organist of St. John's Presbyterian Church of Windsor, N. S., has been appointed organist of St. John's Presbyterian Church of this city.

ONE OF THE BODIES FOUND.—The body of Daniel Logan, who was drowned in the falls on the night of the 12th inst., was found on the 24th in the falls.

AT ST. ANDREWS.—Lord Randolph Churchill and Lady Churchill arrived at St. Andrews on Tuesday from Bir Harbor, and proceeded at once to Sir William Van Horne's residence, Minister's Island.

CARLETON COUNTY OAT CRAB.—S. Watts, of the Carleton Station, Woodstock, is in the city. Mr. Watts thinks the oat pest will not seriously damage the oat crop in Carleton county, especially the early oats.

A NEW YACHT.—T. H. Miles is building a yacht in his shop on Water street, which he claims will be a very fast one. Her dimensions are: Length of keel, 14 feet; on water line, 18 feet over all, 21 feet; beam, 7 feet; depth 26 inches. She will be sold rigged and will have a hoist of 15 feet, will be 22 feet on the boom, with a gaff of 10 or 11 feet.

ANOTHER BODY RECOVERED.—The body of Edward Logan was found on the 25th by some children who were playing near the falls. Dr. D. E. Berryman was notified. The body of John McElroy, the other unfortunate man who went down with the Logan, was seen but not recovered.

CAMP MEETING AT BERWICK.—Camp meeting tickets will be issued, St. John to Berwick and return, for $4.35 from 1st to 7th August, good to return 11th August. For further information apply at Windsor & Annapolis railway office, 114 Prince Wm. street.

BAPTIST Y. P. S. CONVENTION.—A convention of all the Young People's societies connected with the Free Baptist churches in the province will open at Marysville early in August. It will continue for two days. All F. Y. S. churches are requested to send as large a delegation as possible. Ministers are especially requested to be present. A good programme is being arranged.

TRAVEL ON THE I. C. R.—Tourists travel on the I. C. R. at present is very heavy, especially to Cape Breton points. Every day the Quebec express has extra cars attached with tourists. P. J. O'Rourke, the popular travelling passenger agent of the I. C. R., who has been down through Cape Breton, reports that tourist travel was never as heavy as at present on his road.

FOUND DROWNED.—Coroner Berryman held an inquest at Fairville Thursday on the body of Edward Logan, who was drowned in the falls a couple of weeks since. There was no evidence forthcoming as to the circumstances connected with the death. A verdict was returned by the jury that Logan was found drowned in west eddy, but whether he came by his death accidentally or otherwise they could not say.

THE CURLEW NOW BEATEN.—A SUN reporter called down to the dominion cruiser Curlew and found Capt. Pratt on board. Questioned as to the report in the Carleton News that the Curlew was beaten in a race with the Rose Standish, he laughed and said that the statement was not true. At the time in question the Curlew was not under full steam and made no effort to beat the Rose Standish. However, said the captain, all border people know that the Rose Standish has no business with the Curlew.

THE DOG RETURNS.—Thursday afternoon the dog which Robert Horn had with him when he went out for a few days fishing to Enchanted Lake eight weeks ago returned home, and where the animal has been and how it was the searchers did not see him in the vicinity of Enchanted Lake in the hope of finding the body.

IN TRINITY CHURCH.—Rev. Canon deWinton of Toronto occupied the pulpit of Trinity Church last Sunday preaching from the words: "And God spoke all these things, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage." The speaker pointed out the fact that there was a tendency in this age to dispute the authority of those who were over us. In support of this he alluded to the United States, where the working men were up in arms against their employers. This was also the case in many of the European countries, and as a consequence there was war and bloodshed. The rev. gentleman then proceeded to point out that if those who were under authority would consider matters more carefully they should to most cases discover that it was themselves who were in the wrong.

CAPE BRETON wants about a dozen school teachers, to begin work after the holidays.

JEREMIAH HORAN, a St. John man, who was injured in the labor troubles in Chicago, is getting better.

FIRE AT BATHURST.—"Sonnydale," the residence of Prof. Harris at Bathurst, was destroyed by fire on Thursday evening last, together with all the barns and outbuildings. This was formerly the residence of Francis Ferguson. Insured for $5,000 in one of W. H. White's offices.

WM. DEVENNE of Moncton wishes, through the columns of THE SUN, to express his sincere thanks to the members of the Orange association of St. John and other kind friends who remembered him in his late affliction.

UNSUCCESSFUL SEARCH.—A crowd went out to Enchanted Lake Sunday looking for the missing man Horn. Horn was taken along, but he would not enter the woods at all. The searching party returned as ignorant of Horn's fate as they were when they started out.

SS. ORINOCO, of the Quebec steamship line, will leave New York on Wednesday next for Boston, St. John, and a trip round the Gulf of St. Lawrence to Quebec. She has already a passenger list of 70. She will arrive at St. John on Friday night or Saturday morning.

FARMERS in the vicinity of Sussex are well satisfied with the cheese factory at that place. To give some idea of the amount of milk that is received at that factory daily it will only be necessary to state that during the month of June $2,500 was paid the farmers for their milk.

NEW CHURCH AT NORTON.—The Roman Catholics of Norton, Kings county, are preparing to build a chapel and clergy house. The land has already been selected on the opposite side of the river from Norton station. The plans hold there a few weeks ago $300 were raised, which sum will go towards the new buildings. They wish to get the church ready for occupancy this autumn.

ON EXHIBITION.—The shirts, belts and caps for the Sussex fire brigade were on exhibition last night in the window of Kinross Bros. dry goods store on King street. The shirts are of blue flannel and have been tastefully made. Across the fronts in white letters are the words: "Sussex, No. 1." The belts are of patent leather with "No. 1" on the fronts. The caps were made by Manks & Co. of this city.

THE RIVER BOATS.—The steamer David Weston reached her wharf at Indiantown Monday at 3.30 o'clock. She had a large passenger list. The larger number were persons who had gone up on Saturday and spent Sunday at various places along the river. More persons are spending the summer along the St. John river than has been the case for several years. The steamers Clifton and Star also brought down large passenger lists.

DON'T GO TO CALIFORNIA.—The following is an extract from a letter just received from a son of the late Mr. J. W. Gorman, of St. John, N. B., who was in California, California: "Business is in a bad state in this part of our 'glorious country,' and evidently getting worse. If you know of any disaffected New Brunswicker who is anxious to remove to Uncle Sam's country, please do him the favor to advise for me to remain where he is. I would gladly be back in St. John myself."

MARRIED IN OHIO.—On the 10th inst., Geo. F. Stone, Digby, Nova Scotia, was married to Miss Cochrane of Amherst, Ohio, daughter of the late Rev. Robert Cochrane, D. D. Mr. and Mrs. Stone arrived home on Tuesday last and were serenaded at their residence by the Digby band. The groom is a leading merchant in Digby. He is also the correspondent of several American papers. His friends in St. John will unite with "The Sun" in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Stone a long and happy life.

Death of R. R. Barnes.

Universal regret will be felt throughout the city and province at the death of R. R. Barnes, head of the well-known firm of Barnes & Co., which occurred at Fairville Tuesday morning. The late Mr. Barnes was a native of this city, where he has been engaged in the printing, bookbinding and publishing business for many years. He was for a number of years a representative of Kings ward in the city council, and no member of that body was more highly respected by his colleagues or the citizens at large.

Mr. Barnes was a gentleman of most genial and kindly nature. In his business and social relations and as a public man he won and held the confidence and esteem of the public. He has been in ill-health for many months.

The Russian Thistle.

Manitoba has been invaded by an enemy that is likely to produce an immense loss to that province.

The Russian thistle (alsola kali, var. tragula) is a close relation to the common "saltwort," a weathery plant that may be found growing on the shore at Red Head and other places along the coast, but unlike our native plant, it is one of the most dreaded weeds in the world.

Developed on the plains of Southern Russia, it has there been a pestilent weed for generations, and has driven farmers from large areas in the vicinity of the Caspian sea.

In 1873 it was accidentally introduced into South Dakota in some hay, seed imported from Russia, and since that time it has spread rapidly, until at present it is a pest in the two Dakotas, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Nebraska. Over an area of 35,000 square miles is infested and it is continually invading new territory. Nature aids the distribution of the plant. In the winter the wind drives the seed along and scatters the seed everywhere. Then they are carried by the railways and in grain.

The damage done by this weed in the western states is estimated at several millions of dollars and the people of Manitoba will need to take hold of the question in a decided manner if they would escape like results.

It Was a Hot Day.

Reports from all parts of the province agree in stating that Sunday was by far the warmest day of the season. Many persons left the city on Saturday, with the intention of spending at least a few hours of the Sabbath in some cool nook, which they had fondly pictured to themselves. In most cases these persons reached the city yesterday, mad. They could not find the cool nook. For several hours on Sunday the thermometer registered 84° in the shade. At Moncton it was 92° at Sussex 90°. At several points along the Kennebecasis it stood at 85° and 90° in the shade. Reports from Charlottetown county revealed last night that the heat was intense there. The mercury rose to 96° in several places. A gentleman who spent Sunday in Fredericton told THE SUN last night that he would have given almost anything he possessed could he have been able to obtain one long breath of St. John air.

About People at Home and Abroad.

J. Fred Hume, son of the late George Hume of York Co., has been elected to the British Columbia legislature from West Kootenay.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Taylor and Gordon McLeod of St. John were among the Canadians registered at the High Commissioner's office, London, during the week ending July 17th.

Fred Paterson, who at one time had charge of the mailing department of THE SUN, but who has resided in Boston and Chicago of late years, is visiting his old home in this city.

Dr. Isabella Delany of the Dispensary for women and children, 24 Osbarneship, New York, returned by C. P. R. train last night, after a delightful visit of three weeks with her relatives in Pictou county, N. S.

Dr. M. Macdonald of Kingston, Ont., who has been touring down east, returned from St. Andrews yesterday and goes to Fredericton and Marysville, later visiting the Miramichi and Bathurst. He had intended paying a visit to Sunnyside, the summer residence of Prof. Harris of Kingston, near Bathurst, but learned from THE SUN yesterday that it had just been destroyed by fire.

A Wild Runaway.

Monday afternoon, as Daniel Gilson, steamer, was driving down King street, with a wagon loaded with harness, one of his spirited horses began kicking, being touched by one of the dealers which had slipped ahead. The other horse started to follow, and the wagon began to run.

Mr. Gilson was unable to hold them, as he had no foothold. In tugging at the reins he slipped, however, and fell, narrowly escaping the wheel, which would surely have crushed him. The weight of the loaded wagon combined with the speed of the running team to give them a terrible velocity. On the way down King one of the horses struck the front of a carriage standing in front of Clark's photographic saloon, and smashed it. A lady companion, Miss Lillie Belyea, was thrown out and badly cut over the left eye and severely shaken up. The runaway team crossed Market square to where a span of horses and a heavy eleven, belonging to Samuel Koe, stood. Koe had seen the team coming, but was unable of the direction which would be taken, and consequently remained in the same place. The team dashed into the eleven and smashed the front wheel to bits. One of the horses had its right fore leg broken in two places and was shot by Officer Gailine by order of E. J. Wetmore.

Arrested for Driving Over a Child.

Reginald, the three-year-old son of Ralph D. Hepenstall, was run over on British street Monday evening by a team of horses driven by Edward Gorman. The little one had one of its legs broken and was otherwise very badly injured. Dr. James Christie, who was called in, could not say whether the child would live or not. Mr. Hepenstall called at the police station during the evening, and his complaint resulted in the arrest of the driver, who is charged with driving with furious driving and with running over and injuring the child. It appears that Gorman was driving faster at the time than he should have been. He told a SUN reporter Monday night that it was an accident. He did not see the little one and could not say whether it was struck by the wagon or whether it ran over the boy. If the latter was the case, only one who passed over the lad. He says he stopped as soon as he saw the accident, and did all that he could do.

Pilot McParland Suspended.

The pilotage commissioners have finished their inquiry relative to the stranding of the bark Carler at Campbellville. Capt. MacDonald was recalled. He said Pilot McParland was in charge of the Carler when she went ashore. McParland was engaged by him to take the vessel down the bay and was to have been paid full pilotage. He said the vessel was in charge of the pilot. Capt. Shaw, of the schooner Yarmouth Packet, stated that McParland told him that he was going to take the vessel down the bay. New York, after a thorough discussion of all the evidence adduced, found that McParland was in charge of the ship and was to blame for the mishap. It was decided to take his branch from him for a period of 12 months.

Marine Matters.

The Italian bark Umberto I, arrived yesterday from Aberdeen. She was 45 days coming out. Capt. Ansaldo reports that on July 23, in lat. 42° 58', lon 58° 50', he spoke the bark Kate Burill, from this port for Brazil.

S. S. Damara is taking in 80 standards of birch plank and will sail for London via Halifax at noon.

The following charters are reported: Ship Troop, New York to Sydney or Melbourne, £1,850; bark Alex. Black, Philadelphia to Rio Janeiro, car material, lump sum; Abyssinians, New York to Buenos Ayres, general cargo, £1,400 and port charges; Curlew, New York to Antigua, £1,350 and port charges; bark Bessie E. Crane, 184 tons, New York to Gonaves and back, £1,700 and port charges, sublet back from Gonaves, legwood, $3; Hatlie Co., New York to Moncton, N. B., coal and sand, $1; Walter Miller, Hoboken to Pt. Williams, N. S., coal, $1; Sir Hilbert, Hoboken to Halifax, coal, $1; Gladys, Hoboken to Portland, N. S., coal, $1; Utility, Port Jervis to Lunenburg, N. B., coal, $1; Adria, 194 tons, Port Johnston to St. John, N. B., coal, 70 cents; Alice Maud, name; Hazelwood, name; Karelle, 124 tons, Hoboken to St. John, N. B., coal, 70 cents.

Fairville and Vicinity.

The many friends of Harry Allingham are more than delighted to see him home again. Mr. Allingham went away last February to Brooklyn, where an operation was performed on him in the Methodist Episcopal hospital, by Drs. Fowler and Delatour, assisted by Dr. E. D. Ferris. Dr. Ferris, above mentioned, is one of Fairville's boys, who went away about five years ago. Mr. Allingham will have his blacksmith shop running in a short time, and the work will be done under his supervision.

Frank Schofield, head brewer in Ready's brewery, has returned from a trip to New York, Manchester, Eng., and London.

Gentlemen.—I have used your Yellow Oil and have found it unequalled for burns, sprains, colds, rheumatism, cramp and colds. Always use it recommended by Mr. H. H. Monro, Que.

A SAD ACCIDENT

On the Kennebecasis at Rothesay, Saturday Evening.

Ernest S. Ruel, of this city, falls from his canoe into the river—his body recovered Sunday Morning.

"Ernest S. Ruel drowned while canoeing near Rothesay." This was the report which reached the city late Saturday evening. It came as a shock to very many persons, for the deceased was a young man who possessed an unusually large number of acquaintances. At first his friends refused to credit the report, but when Mr. Ruel's two brothers arrived in town from Rothesay they corroborated the sad tidings.

Several young gentlemen from the city recently organized a Rothesay club known as the Rothesay Canoe club. Its meetings are held every Saturday evening, when the members arrange to hold a series of races, on the river. Last Saturday evening the members of the club met as usual and arranged for three races on the river just off Rothesay station. The events came off without any mishap, the deceased participating in the three races, all of which he had been closely connected. The deceased, in company with H. F. Puddington, after the conclusion of the sports, started for the shore together. A moment or two later young Ruel remarked to his companion that he was feeling so well he would like to have another race, this time a standing one. Puddington consented, and the two turned their canoes and got in readiness for the contest. In the race which followed Puddington soon distanced his competitor two or three rods, but turning around to see how Ruel was coming on he was surprised to discover that the canoe was empty. Mr. Puddington at once changed the course of his canoe and paddled back as rapidly as possible, thinking an accident had befallen his companion. His surmises were only too true. The canoe was found empty and his owner was nowhere to be seen.

About the time Mr. Puddington discovered Ruel's canoe to be empty, a young man named Daniels made a like discovery. The latter at once pulled rapidly towards Ruel's canoe. As he neared it he thought he saw Ruel's body in the water. At that moment, however, his canoe was going so rapidly he could not stop it, but as he passed what he took to be Ruel he cried to him to hold out a moment longer, when he would rescue him, but when he reached the spot where he saw the object it was no longer visible.

A searching party was at once organized. Fires were kindled on the shore and the grappling for the body kept up all night. It was not until after daybreak Sunday morning that they were successful. The deceased was clad in a light flannel suit, and this is given as the only clue to his identity recovered the body earlier. It was found within fifty yards of the shore, and in only seven feet of water. The body was stiff and rigid, and what seems rather strange, the legs and the arms were in the same position as when the young man stood in the canoe, and his lungs contained little or no water. The above facts, taken together with the fact that the deceased was an expert swimmer and canoeist, seem sufficient to justify the opinion of his friends, that death took place before the body touched the water, and that he was not killed as first supposed. Dr. Thos. Walker gave it as his opinion that death was caused by heart failure or brain trouble, the direct result of exertion.

The deceased, who was 21 years of age, was the youngest son of Jas. R. Ruel, collector of customs. He was a student at law, and the brilliant manner in which he graduated at the New Brunswick University indicated that he would achieve distinction in his chosen profession. The sympathy of the entire community will go out to young Ruel's father in his sad bereavement.

The funeral of the late Ernest S. Ruel took place Monday afternoon from his father's residence on German street, and was very largely attended. The remains were taken from the house to St. John's church, where the rector, Rev. J. de Soyres, conducted a most impressive service. The hymns sung by the choir were: "A voice is heard on earth of kinship weeping the loss of one they love" and "My God, I thank Thee Who hast made the earth so bright." Very many young friends of the deceased attended the obsequies. The pall-bearers were: H. F. Puddington, H. C. Tilley, L. P. D. Tilley, Francis Walker, F. M. Maunsell and William Davidson, Jr.

The Turf.

To the Sporting Editor of The Sun: Sir—In your issue of the 28th inst. there appeared a challenge from W. C. McKnight of Havelock to trot his horse, Joe Hooker, against horses of mine at Sussex at Montserrat for $100, such challenge remaining open for two days only. Now, I think any fair minded person, knowing anything of the relative circumstances of the case, would be compelled to view the challenge in the light of a very big bluff on the part of the challenger.

In the first place the offer, as published in your paper, is so particularly indefinite in the matter of details. No place is named for meeting to arrange preliminaries. No mention is made of a place where, or time when, a deposit can be found should I have ventured to accept. In fact, the so-called challenge is essentially lacking in business tone. Mr. McKnight could in the same manner have thrown down the gauntlet to the owner of Nancy Hanks. In the next place, Mr. McKnight is well aware that my horse is now in no condition to trot, having just come out of the stud. But I do not want to criticize too harshly. The error may be the result of inexperience on the part of the challenger and not an intentional effort to swindle; and in order to give Mr. McKnight an opportunity to post the relative speed of our horses I make the following offer to him, and to give him ample time I will leave it open for ten days from date.

I will trot my horse, Messenger Prince, against Joe Hooker on the 26th day of September next on McMonaghy's track, Sussex, mile heats, best three in five, for $150 a side, and I have this day as evidence of good faith deposited with J. M. McIntyre, barrister of Sussex, the sum of $25, which Mr. McKnight can cover at any time within the ten days. All the stake money must be in the hands of the final stakeholder on or before the 1st of September next. Should this deposit be covered by Mr. McKnight, he is at liberty to name any day thereafter before the 15th day of August for a meeting, at which we can make all necessary arrangements for the race.

Yours truly,
Chas. W. MORRIS.

Penobscot, July 30th.

Kaavery may serve a turn, but honesty is best in the end.

Read not books alone, but men; and above all, read thyself.

Here is the correct solution of the prize verse, published last week:

Here is our call
To great and small,
To short and tall
To one and all,
"Come to Oak Hall"
In spring and fall,
It's good for all.

The first three correct answers were sent in by:

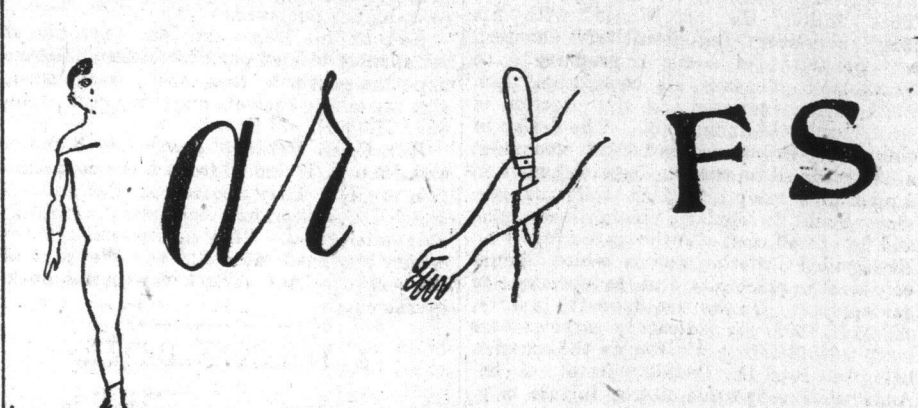

Miss Cora Anderson, Fairville, St. John, N. B.
William Landels, Lower River Hebert, Cumberland Co., N. S.
James J. Keenan, Douglasstown, Northumberland Co., N. B.

and are the winners of one dollar each.

Others who sent in correct answers are:

Mary J. McGowan, St. George;
Mina Kierstead, Bellisle;
Louis S. Wetmore, Belyea's Cove;
Mary Kierstead, Bellisle;
R. Gertrude Parlee, Parleeville;
Norman W. Parlee, Apohaqui.

At the time of writing (Saturday, July 28) this list is all the correct answers received. There will probably be others by tonight and Monday's mail.

We will give one dollar each to the first three persons sending us a correct answer to the above rebus.

We will continue giving cash prizes for a few weeks, so hustle and read our ads the first thing you do.

We want answers from boys only for this rebus—not that we prefer boys to girls, but because we keep boys clothing to sell and we want to have them know us so that whenever they want clothes they will think of us.

Little sisters help your brothers if you like, and "divy" if you win.

P. E. ISLAND.

Winnie McLean, Daughter of John McLean, M. P., Drowned at Mount Stewart.

(Special to THE SUN.)
CHARLOTTETOWN, July 30.—A sad drowning accident occurred at Mount Stewart this afternoon. The victim was Winnie McLean, the twelve year old daughter of John McLean, M. P., of Souris. It seems Winnie was visiting her aunt at Mount Stewart and when the accident occurred was on her way back from the post office, after mailing a letter to her mother telling her she would be home tomorrow, Tuesday. A little girl named Stoen was with her at the time of the accident. They had to pass over the bridge across the river and stopped and leaned over the railing. Winnie leaned too far and fell over. A man who was near made every effort to save her but failed. The body was recovered this afternoon.
