two coats to the gallon, that's what
THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT will cover. And on a good surface it will cover more than that. No paint will do better, and very few paints will do as well. Maximum covering capacity, easiest spreading qualities, longest wear, and greatest economy are what we claim for S.W.P. It's the one safe paint to use. Always gives satisfaction.

DEMENTED WOMAN SHOT
HER HUSBAND AND SON

Mrs. Louisa Holden, Wife of Prominent Providence Merchant, Suffering From Nervous Trouble, Committed a Horrible Act.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 29.—Her mind unbalanced, it is thought because of long continued nervous trouble, Mrs. Louisa Holden, forty years of age, tonight shot and almost instantly killed her husband, Lee S. Holden, then turned the revolver on her son, Louis A. Williams, 15, shooting him in the head, inflicting a fatal wound. She then shot herself in the head, dying at the Rhode Island Hospital a little over an hour later. The boy's death is expected at any moment.

FUNERAL OF REVOLUTIONIST
CAUSES A DEMONSTRATION

Russian Woman, a Social Leader, Devoted Herself to Reform, and Becoming Depressed, Committed Suicide Abroad.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 30.—The funeral today of Mme. Madrasza Baradina, a well-known revolutionist who committed suicide abroad, aroused the greatest interest in revolutionary circles on account of her romantic life story.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE,

CELEBRAND, April 29.—A false alarm of fire, in a "joke" this morning, resulted in the killing of Charles Strong, 45 years old, a business man of Lakeswood.

FINDS SLAIN WOMAN'S
HOARD IN OLD HOUSE

POTTSMOUTH, April 29.—Among the many unavenged murders of Shuykhill County, that of Mrs. Catherine Gorman whose head was crushed with a railroad's brake wheel, a dozen years ago at Mill Creek, has excited the wonder of the police, particularly as to what became of her money, she being well to do. The murderer had to flee too quick to make much of a haul.

WANT ALL RAILWAYS
TO BE HELD LIABLE

Moncton Board of Trade Opposes New Bill of Lading.
Another Robbery Reported—Two Freight Cars Were Badly Smashed—Proposal for a Street Car Service

MONCTON, N. B., April 30.—The Moncton Board of Trade, at a meeting last evening, expressed its unanimous disapproval of the general terms and conditions of carriage which railway companies have asked the commissioners to authorize to be put on all bills of lading in the future, and adopted a resolution which will be wired to the Railway Commissioners favoring a bill of lading in which railway companies shall be made subject to liability as common carriers under the laws of the country.

Among other matters considered by the meeting last evening was a street railway proposition, and the resolution was unanimously passed that a street railway was desirable in view of Moncton's expansion in area, but a charter granted to company should contain adequate safeguards for the city's interests.

NEW YORK, April 30.—In a running pistol fight with a dozen policemen, Thomas Donohue, of Harlem, whom the police had sought on a charge of murder, was shot and probably fatally wounded after he had emptied two revolvers at the policemen.

WIVES OF COLONIALS
LAUD ENGLISHWOMEN

LONDON, April 29.—Much of the social success of the colonial premiers' visit to London has been due to the presence of their wives and daughters, who have received the warmest welcome in London society.

RAILROAD WAS STOLEN;
COPS SAVED A BRIDGE

LONDON, April 29.—The wholesale theft of a railway sounds like a large order, but it has been accomplished in Ireland, according to a story told today by the Viceregal Commission on Irish Railways.

RAILROAD WAS STOLEN;
COPS SAVED A BRIDGE

A line was built between Birt and Fortuna in 1868. The Great Southern and Western worked the line until 1876. The neighboring population then stole the railway. Telegraph wires were first, and the rails followed in second order. Then the gates, buildings—in fact, the total equipment was carried off.
