The dredge "New Dominion" is dredging at Leonardville.

James O'Neill, who resigned as police magistrate, has been reappointed, according to the papers.

Jas. O'Neill is showing a splendid array of Christmas gifts of both a practical and lasting nature.

Wednesday 8th inst. was the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. The usual services were held in the Catholic Church.

Substantial repairs are being made on Trout Brook bridge, and the structure will soon be in better condition than for years.

The pressure of advertising cuts down our reading matter considerably, but we hope our readers will bear with us until the rush is over.

In a debate last week, that proved interesting and instructive, the high school decided that the town was not yet ready for electric lights.

Mr. Wm. Clark, the well known lumber operator, has established a camp at Woodland for the winter, where large lumber operations are being carried by the Woodland Lumber Co.

Several exchanges of property have been made lately. Wm. Dewar has purchased the Lynch farm on the Manor road, and George Taylor the Gideon Hickey property on the Mascarene road.

The stores are all showing a big assortment of holiday goods, both beautiful and useful for the Christmas season. Greetings advertisers are making a great display and doing good business.

Engineer Colner of the Public Works department and a crew of men, spent several days last week taking soundings in the basin and river. It is the intention of the department to have the dredge here early next season to complete the work of dredging the river.

The Soldier's Monument of Grand Mann, N. B., erected by Mr. James Lawson, the sole survivor of the steamship "Lord Ashburton," wrecked some years ago at that place, was unveiled recently, the interesting memorial service being held in the G. G. Memorial Hall, a large number being present.

Cobb's family of entertainers finished their engagement on Wednesday, playing to good business the entire week. In a voting at for the most popular lady in town, Mrs. Arthur G. Brown won by a large margin, receiving an elegant prize of 37 pieces of silver.

A fire last week at Campobello, completely destroyed the residence of Mr. Maude Malloch situated on the North Road. The fire started about midnight and burned so rapidly that a little of the household furniture could be saved. Mr. Malloch estimates his loss at about $3,500, there being a small insurance upon the property.

Residents of South Boston are enjoying the benefits of the two new lights, placed in position last week by the street committee. One is located at the foot of McKays hill on the lower road, the other at the top of Kidds' hill. Both lamps were needed badly by the people living in this section of the town and by those who had occasion to use the streets there on dark nights.

Mr. McNeill of Hamilton Ont., who was called here by the death of his brother, upon returning at his hotel placed a wallet containing something over $100 between the sheets. He left for home the next day and, missing the money, wired to the hotel but it was too late the chambermaid had sent the sheets to the laundry, and nothing but small pieces of the money were found after it had passed through the laundry machines. Woodstock Press.

The marriage of James Dewar of Pomroy Ridge and Miss Grace Dewar of St. George was quietly solemnized at the home of Rev. Mr. Rennie, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Milltown N. B. on Monday 26th inst. at 3 p.m. After the ceremony the happy couple left by the C. P. R. for a wedding tour to the former home of the bride in St. George N. B.

The young folks have had several days of skating on the creek. The ice was somewhat rough but fairly good for this exhilarating sport. The rink is in fine condition, an excellent bottom has been secured, and weather permitting the public will be invited to enjoy the ice during the week. Skis leading from Jas. O'Neill's property over the bank, were placed in position by Barton Brunel last week, affording a short and easy route to the rink. A promenade will be erected on the North side of the skating rink, affording an excellent chance of watching the skaters.

After many years of patient waiting, Leonardville, Deer Island, is to have a wharf which can be used for a landing at all tides. For many years the landing at Leonardville has been made unless the tide served just right, in small boats, lowered from the larger boat, and the passengers were landed on a wet beach. This was unpleasant for all, and needless caused considerable delay for the steamer. The people of Leonardville are very grateful to Mr. Todd, representative, who worked faithfully to bring this need of the people before Premier Laurier. On Saturday last the dredge "New Dominion" came into the harbor at ebb tide, and it is expected that the harbor will be dredged out in three or four weeks time. Mr. Thos. P. Charleson of Ottawa is contractor for the new wharf, and it is reported that he will put his men to work at once, and that he expects to have the same completed this winter. Eastport Citizen.
