The marriage of Mr. Hedleigh Bond, of Toronto, to Mrs. Nellie Allen, took place at the cathedral today, and was quite a brilliant affair. The people thronged into the edifice, a portion of which was reserved for the guests. The bride looked even more charming than was expected, and her maid of honor, Miss Maggie Allen, was also much admired. The bride was very handsomely attired in heliotrope cashmere trimmed with velvet of a shade darker, with lace bonnet to match. Miss Allen wore an old gold India silk, trimmed with golden velvet, cream lace hat. Each carried a beautiful bouquet of flowers, the former's being of white cream roses, with sprays of maiden hair fern.

The ceremony was performed by the Metropolitan, assisted by Rev. F. Alexander, the sub-dean.

At Sir John Allen's residence an elegant luncheon was served, and Mr. and Mrs. Bond received the warm congratulations of the assembled guests.

The wedding tour will include Old Orchard Beach and other interesting points. Mr. and Mrs. Bond will make their home in Toronto. The list of invitations included the names of Judge and Mrs. Wetmore, Mayor and Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. MONCTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Moncton at the bookstores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.

AUG. 20.—The sudden change in the weather from torrid to temperate seems to have recalled some of our friends from the seaside.

Mrs. G. J. O'Doherty's many friends are glad to welcome her back to Moncton again after her sojourn at Buctouche.

Mrs. P. S. Archibald has also returned from her visit to Dalhousie.

Miss Annie Cooke returned on Saturday from her visit to Dorchester.

Miss Gregory, of Fredericton who has been visiting Miss Harris, returned home last week.

The Most Reverend the Metropolitan of Canada, spent last Sunday in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Talbot at the rectory. His Lordship administered the rite of confirmation in St. George's church on Sunday morning to four persons, and preached in the evening to a large congregation. The unusually small number of candidates for confirmation was due to the shortness of the time for preparation, the bishop's visit being much earlier than usual, this year.

Nearly all the pulpits in Moncton were filled by strange clergymen last Sunday.

The Rev. J. A. Logan, of Nova Scotia, preached in St. John's Presbyterian church on Monday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan are the guests of the Rev. J. M. and Mrs. Robinson, at the manse.

Rev. J. H. Hughes, of Massachusetts occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church at both services, in the absence of the pastor, and Rev. J. M. Boyd, of Toronto, preached in the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

Mr. P. S. Archibald returned on Saturday from his tour of inspection with Messrs. Pottinger and Schreiber, over the I. C. R.

Miss Hyde, of Truro, is spending some days in Moncton, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Cooke.

Mrs. John McSweeney's many Moncton friends were glad to see her back last Sunday, and regretted that her visit was so short. Mrs. McSweeney returned to Westmoreland on Monday.

Mr. John B. Magee, of the I. C. R., is spending his vacation at his home in St. Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Marnie, who have been spending a week travelling through the beautiful scenery of P. E. Island and Nova Scotia, returned on Friday.

Mr. Arthur Busby's large circle of friends will be glad to hear that he is decidedly better. Mr. Busby's health has fluctuated between better and worse for the past week in a manner which has caused his friends great anxiety, but I am happy to say that he is now progressing steadily towards recovery.

Mr. Oliver Jones, who has also been quite ill, is convalescent, though not yet able to be out.

Mr. James Cooke and Mr. Will Cook returned last week from their respective visits to Pictou and St. Andrews; and if one may judge by a general brownness of complexion and robustness of outline, both these young gentlemen have returned feeling much the better for their holiday.

Mrs. J. S. Benedict leaves town today to spend a fortnight at Point du Chene.

Mrs. J. R. Bruce and family have been spending the past week at the same breezy resort. Miss Bruce still lingers at New Castle, where she is visiting friends.

Judge Wedderburn, of Hampton, paid a short visit to Moncton last Wednesday.

Sheriff McQueen, of Dorchester, was in town last week.

Hon. A. D. and Mrs. Richard, of Dorchester, spent a short time in Moncton on Thursday.

Mr. J. A. Dickey, of Amherst, was in town on Thursday.

Mr. L. B. Archibald, of Truro, paid a visit to Moncton last week. CECIL GWYNNE.

ST. STEPHEN.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen at the bookstores of C. H. Smith & Co. and G. S. Wall and H. M. Webber.]

AUG. 20—It has been exceedingly quiet here during the past week. Calais is far ahead of St. Stephen in the way of social life. Picnics and parties seem to absorb the attention of the Calais ladies, who devote themselves to entertaining the many visitors who fill the city.

On Tuesday last Mrs. W. B. King gave a pretty reception and drive whist party to a number of her lady friends The hours for receiving were from 3 to 7 o'clock. Those who wished amused themselves with drive whist. Mrs. Helen Kelley, of Boston, and Mrs. Mary Kelly, of Calais, were declared the fortunate winners of the prizes.

On Thursday evening last Miss Clara Barnard and Miss Annie King gave a delightful dancing party in the Grand Army hall, Calais. I hear it was a most enjoyable affair; that the ladies looked particularly well attired and handsome, and that the floral decorations were exquisite.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. George King gave a very pleasant tennis party in the beautiful grounds surrounding her residence. The party was made for the entertainment of Miss Mary Wadsworth, Mrs. King's niece, who is visiting her. There were many guests from away and among them were Miss Ellen Merrill, of Boston, Mass.

Through the invitation of Mrs. J. E. Murchie and Mrs. F. A. Grimmer, a number of ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon and picnic supper at Murchie's Basin, yesterday.
