W. E. Jardine Suggests Early Start for Football Organization--Chath'm Y.M.C.A. Has a Team.

Last year a provincial football league nearly went through, but as organization was started too late in the season, the proposed schedule was never it, d. The same mistake should be avoided by the parties this year, and agitation by the wise heads is already under way. W. E. Jardine, of Fredericton, writes to the Standard suggesting that a meeting be held at an early date of representatives of the possible teams, and arrangements completed.
