VESSEL'S CREW DISABLED.

Portland, Oct. 21.—The schooner James Young, lumber laden from Bath for Boston, which has been lying in the harbor for the past fortnight, still remains. Her captain, McMillan, was hurt the first of the week by falling from the deckload of lumber, his spine being badly injured. He was brought ashore and after receiving medical assistance proceeded to his home at Five Islands. The South Gardner Lumber Co., owners of the schooner, have sent up a new captain to take charge of the vessel, but he has not as yet for some reason assumed command. The cook has since been taken to the Marine Hospital, the mate is reported to have deserted, and taken altogether there is a pretty kettle of fish on board the Kennebec schooner.

HAD ROUGH EXPERIENCE.

Portland, Oct. 20.—A rough experience was reported by Capt. Barry of the three masted British schooner Katherine V. Mills, which arrived here on Thursday night, bound from Perth Amboy for Annapolis, N. S., coal laden. He reports passing here on Monday last, and on Tuesday morning when off Segun took a heavy north-east gale, the worst he ever experienced. She shipped tremendous seas, her waist being filled with water all the time. The deck was swept clean of everything movable, including ware cases, and her ribs and light sills were badly torn. About noon on Tuesday the captain put her under storm trysails, it being all she could carry, and headed for Portland, but it was not until late Thursday night that he found his way into this harbor, it having been an exceedingly difficult job to navigate her into port, while the schooner John B. Coyle, coming here from New York, which was in company with the Mills off Segun, fetched up yesterday at Salem.

Had Bad Sore Four Years

ZAM-BUK HAS HEALED IT!

Mrs. Wilson, 110 Wickson Ave., Toronto, says: "About four years ago a sore spot appeared on the right side of my face. This spot increased in size until it became about half an inch in diameter and very painful. I went to a doctor, but the ointment he gave me did not have any good effect. The sore continued to discharge freely, and was most painful. I had it cauterized, tried poultices, and all kinds of salves, but it was no good, and I continued to suffer from it for four years!"

ENGLAND'S GLORY IN SONG AND DRATORY

Trafalgar Day Celebration Tonight to be Delightful Affair—The Programme.

Aside from the patriotic significance of the celebration of Nelson's renowned sea victory in York Theatre this evening, the programme fairly scintillates with brilliant numbers. Mrs. Grace Bonner Williams comes to St. John a stranger to the public at large, but her charming vocal art is pleasingly familiar to numerous local music lovers who have enjoyed her concerts in Boston, New York and other centres when visiting. It was by the rarest of good luck the St. George's Society secured her for tonight's celebration and it is certain her debut here will be so successful that any further visits she may make here will be gladly welcomed. The numbers Madame Williams has selected are typically English in keeping with the spirit of the evening. The numbers are: Hon. George E. Foster, too, makes the special trip to St. John for the Nelson night. His subject is "Trafalgar, and What It Means to the British Empire." Of course nobody denies to the Minister of Trade and Commerce the first place among Canada's orators and his treatment of the great story of Trafalgar and its results will doubtless be a gem of public speaking, a half-hour long to be remembered. The whole programme is as follows:

1. Songs Mrs. Grace Bonner Williams (a) "Away on the Hills and a Little Winding Road," Landon Ronald. (b) "Shepherd Thy Demeanor Vary," Thomas Brown. (c) "A Romany Spring Song," Amy Horrocks.

2. Address, The Hon. George E. Foster
