Ontario flour dropped 10 cents a barrel all round, Tuesday. The C. P. R. has been obliged to bring in 75 Italians from the western division of the road to work in the Fairville yard at the Bay Shore.

Let us fit you out this fall with your new attire—our stock is well equipped and our goods and prices are right. Union Clothing Co., 26-28 Charlotte street, old Y. M. C. A. building.

The noted moose of Chipman, which was bothering Farmer Brown and threatened to become a political factor in the constituency, is no more. Charles Baird shot the animal Monday.

More than 100 game licenses have been issued from the St. John office to local men. At several points the run has been so great that the supply of blanks has been exhausted, and more sent for.

A thirteen year old boy, who lived in Fairville, has been missing from home since Saturday. The lad was working in Cushing's box mill and drew his pay on that day. Since then he has not been seen.

A horse owned by Oscar D. Hanson, of Fairville, ran away Tuesday on the Manawagonish Road. There was a load of manure besides the driver and another man named James Long. The result of it all was a wrecked wagon. The men were badly shaken up, but no horses were broken.

From inquiry at the chamberlain's office it is learned that the payments for taxes are well up to the receipts at this time last year. The sums received are coming mostly from the smaller taxpayers. The larger amounts are usually not handed in until Sept. 30 or Oct. 1, when the discount ceases.

G. R. Sangster, fruit inspector, Moncton, who was in the city yesterday, says that as a result of a stringent application of the law, apple packages as a rule are becoming more careful. This season for the first time cargoes arriving in St. John marked "No. 3 drops" and "No. 3 cracked." Despite vigilance, however, it is found that some persist in fraudulent practices. The inspector is about to introduce a new regulation for an apple grower in Tupperville (N. S.) for a third offence under the act.

FOUND DEAD ON ROAD UP RIVER

Wm. Pitt of Long Reach succumbed to heart trouble. Word reached Indian town Wednesday that William Pitt had dropped dead at his home at Long Reach Tuesday evening.

It appears that Mr. Pitt, who had been practically the whole of his life-time a steamboat man on the river, went out to meet the Elaine that night and on his returning home as soon as his wife expected, the latter went across the road to where Mr. Pitt's cousins reside and there informed them that she was uneasy about her husband's safety. Together they went down the road and were horrified to find Mr. Pitt lying dead upon the road.

The deceased had been sailing with the Calvin Austin for some time and it is thought that was the cause of his death. Mr. Pitt, until a month ago, was mate of the steamer Hampton, when, owing to ill health, he dropped out of the service. He was unable to swim it looked as though he must drown. Charles Leith, who was working on a cooling barge alongside the steamer, seeing the man in dangerous predicament, without hesitation jumped in after him and succeeded in holding him above water until Robert McGuire, the second officer of the Austin, was able to secure a hold on his clothing with a pike pole and draw him on board the boat. Leith was then assisted on board.

Owing to the prompt assistance rendered by Leith and McGuire, Mulholland felt little the worse after his ducking.

Sackville Happenings

Sackville, Sept. 20.—The musical in Main Street Baptist church last evening was a successful and pleasing entertainment. Miss Keever delighted the audience with two organ solos. A vocal solo by Miss Anderson was much appreciated. A vocal solo by Thos. Murray was a pleasing number. W. H. Coleman gave an interesting reading. Two violin solos by W. T. Wood were beautifully rendered. Mr. Guy was heard to advantage in a song. A trio by Prof. Wilson, W. T. Wood and T. Murray was much appreciated. Miss street choir gave two pleasing anthems under the direction of C. G. Steadman. Mrs. Steadman presiding at the organ.

Miss Eunice Kinnear has returned to Boston, having enjoyed the summer sojourn with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lennox Kinnear, Cookeville.

Miss Sarah Anderson, of Boston, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Edwin Dixon, Cookeville.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Sangster left today for a trip to New Glasgow, Pictou and Sydney.

Dr. J. M. Barry, of St. John, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Barry, Melrose (N. B.).

Miss Susie Berg, of Boston, is visiting friends at Port Elgin.

Miss Emma Duncan, of the firm of S. & E. Dymon, has taken a position as head milliner for a leading establishment in Kentville (N. S.).

The faculty of the Ladies' College is now complete, Miss Hemming, of London, being the last member to arrive.

Miss Kate Hartnett, of Boston, is visiting friends at Melrose (N. B.).

ST. JOHN WOMEN TO WORLD'S W. C. T. U.

Plans for Great Convention to Be Held in Boston Next Month.

Boston, Sept. 18.—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its seventh triennial world convention in Tremont Temple, Boston, from Oct. 17 to 23.

The office at 14 Beacon street is the scene of much activity in preparations and plans for the reception of the many guests, both from home and abroad, who are to attend the convention in Boston.

Every state in the Union will send its delegates, while almost every European country will be represented.

The world's president, Lady Henry Somerset, who is a leading champion of every philanthropic and social cause for the benefit of the workingman, was to have been present, but her health has prevented.

A letter has also been received from England saying that Lady Carlisle has appointed her daughter, Lady Dorothy Howard, to represent her at the convention. The Earl of Carlisle is a prominent member of the British peerage who, with his wife, has identified himself with the temperance cause.

From Tokyo, Japan, the president of the Japanese society, Mrs. Kak Yajima, will come, while Mrs. Van Domel, from Germany will come. Baroness von Hansen of Dresden.

Austria will send Fraulein Julie Kasowitz of a distinguished Austrian family.

The delegate from the province of New Brunswick will be Mrs. James H. Gray, of Fairville, provincial president. A number of St. John ladies, members of the local W. C. T. U., will probably also attend the meetings ex-officio. Among those expected to go are Mrs. Charles H. Deane, T. H. Bullock, Mrs. Howard Sprague and others.

WANT HIM TO STAY

Queens County Churches Invite Rev. E. C. Jenkins.

Last Monday night the members of Thornorton and Cole's Island United Baptist churches met in the latter building and extended a hearty and unanimous call to Rev. E. C. Jenkins to stay with them another year. It is probable that Rev. Mr. Jenkins will accept.

The reverend gentleman is a brother of Deputy Chief of Police Jenkins. He has lived in Kansas for considerable time and when the invitation to stay was extended to him he had part of his furniture packed to return to the States. He came here on a year's vacation a year ago last May and has been laboring in the Thornorton and Cole's Island churches practically ever since. The circuit is a large and important one and embraces Salmon Creek, Young's Cove and Hunter's, as well as the two principal churches.

FELL OVERBOARD FROM THE CALVIN AUSTIN

James Mulholland, an employe on the Calvin Austin, had a narrow escape from drowning about 1.30 o'clock yesterday. He was engaged in scrubbing the point on the side of the boat next to the wharf, when he fell into the water. He was unable to swim it looked as though he must drown.

Charles Leith, who was working on a cooling barge alongside the steamer, seeing the man in dangerous predicament, without hesitation jumped in after him and succeeded in holding him above water until Robert McGuire, the second officer of the Austin, was able to secure a hold on his clothing with a pike pole and draw him on board the boat. Leith was then assisted on board.

CHANGE IN CONTROL OF OTTAWA FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Ottawa, Sept. 19.—A financial deal of considerable proportions has just been completed, whereby the Ottawa Fire Insurance Company has sold out, or at least the controlling interest has changed hands. The great majority of individual stock owners have disposed of their holdings to Charles Magee, who it is understood, is acting for a strong syndicate of Toronto capitalists. The price paid is $125,000.

OBITUARY

James Burke. James Burke, of Long Reach, one of the best known men along the river, died at Public Landing Monday at the advanced age of ninety-three years. Although Mr. Burke had attained such a venerable age, he was remarkably active and had retained all his faculties unimpaired until within a few days of his death.

For many years Mr. Burke was proprietor of the North American Hotel, at Market Square, which was one of the largest hotels in this city. About forty years ago he removed to Long Reach and conducted a large farm for many years. At the time of his death he was residing at the home of William Travis, near Public Landing. One daughter, Mrs. McGovern, of Westfield, survives.

Mrs. Mary A. Stack, of Sackville (N. Y.), died Tuesday after a very brief illness while on a visit to relatives in St. John. She had been on a visit to Sackville and other places in that section of the province and on Saturday came to St. John. She had been afflicted with asthma and it is said that, because of an open window she contracted pneumonia on the journey here and rapidly sank. She was buried at the home of Martin Burns, 286 Duke street.

Mrs. Stack was formerly a resident of this city, her recently her home has been in Sackville. She was married to Mr. Stack and had two daughters—Mrs. John H. Clume and Mrs. Roy Young, of that place; also three brothers—William, John and Edward McDonald, of Shediac, and two sisters—Mrs. P. J. Sweeney, of Shediac, and Mrs. Simpson, of Point du Chene.

Mrs. Simpson, of Point du Chene. Mrs. Bain, wife of Patrick Bain, of 128 Pond street, died Wednesday after a short illness. The news of her death will cause widespread regret and sympathy. What makes the event doubly sad for the bereaved husband and family is the fact that it is the second death in the circle within three weeks. Although deceased had been in poor health for some time no serious outcome of her illness was looked for. Mr. Bain, an employe of the National Drug Company, with three sons and two daughters survive. The sons are Thomas, of Montreal, and John and Frederick, of this city. Miss Maggie and Annie live at home. Only a little more than two weeks past a daughter died, while a son passed away since. The deceased was a large and important one and embraces Salmon Creek, Young's Cove and Hunter's, as well as the two principal churches.

Thomas B. Milden. The death of Thomas B. Milden occurred at his home at Westmouth N. S. last week. He was the oldest resident of western Nova Scotia, being 96 years of age, and he had enjoyed the use of his faculties until recently. A remarkable fact is that death has not removed one of his children, or even had the use of his faculties removed. He was present at the time of his death. Two of his sons—Frederick R. S. and W. S. were in business in Yarmouth for many years and married the daughters of the late Nathaniel Travis, of Kempville. W. S. Milden is now a merchant of Essequip, P. E. I.

Judge Savary of Annapolis Will Retire. Asks Minister of Justice to Relieve Him of Duties Oct. 10.—Men Who Are Willing to Succeed Him.

Digby, Sept. 19.—On the 10th of October next, which is the birthday of Judge Albert Savary, the county court for district No. 3, that well known gentleman is entitled to retire from the bench with a full allowance, as he has served more than thirty years. He has received a commendation, and the learned judge was born in Plympton, 12 miles west of Digby, where the Savary homestead still stands.

Out of all the judges appointed at that time Judge Savary is the only one surviving, and the only county court judge in Nova Scotia who has served thirty years on the bench.

Judge Savary's task was not an easy one, a man who had before the people of his country as a candidate now found himself on the bench where he was compelled to administer justice to the satisfaction of political friends and foes. By his care and impartiality he soon became popular with all, a popularity which has spread to the entire province and which has continued to the present day. He is known as the "first judge" and it would be impossible to find a more highly respected man in Digby county today than Judge Savary, although he has resided in Annapolis for many years.

It is understood that the minister of justice has been informed by Judge Savary that he will be asked to be relieved from duty after the 10th of next month. Who will fill his successor will be asked by man and will be awaited with considerable interest.

Among those who may be considered in the line of appointment are A. J. S. Vonn, M. P., Sandford H. Polson, K. C., of Yarmouth, who was nominated in the Liberal interests in 1904 and retired. It is said, with good promise; E. H. Armstrong, of the firm of Yarmouth, and O. T. Daniels, of Bridgetown, Annapolis county's popular M. P. P.

interesting and very helpful to Sabbath school workers. The evening session commenced at 7.30, after devotional exercises led by Deacon J. S. Titus, the address of welcome was presented by A. F. Bentley, and fittingly responded to by the president, interesting addresses, dealing with the various phases of Sabbath school work were delivered by Rev. J. B. Ganong, field secretary; Dr. Fotheringham, H. D. Marr and others. A feature of the evening session was the excellent rendering by E. A. Titus of a vocal solo entitled the Everlasting Day With Thee. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. N. Harvey, president; E. Thomas, J. Stout, A. E. Hamilton, A. F. Bentley, vice-presidents; primary department, Mrs. W. M. Macleod; primary department committee—Rev. J. B. Appel, W. J. Parke, Rev. A. H. Foster, E. M. Sippell, J. H. White, W. Coulen, F. S. Thomas, A. A. Wilson, J. Robinson, J. S. Titus, Robert Reed, department superintendent, Mrs. W. M. Macleod; primary department, Mrs. T. H. Bullock; temperance, W. Kingston; teachers training, W. Young; home department, Mrs. J. B. Votes of thanks were tendered the pastor and trustees of the Presbyterian church, the people of St. Martins for their hospitality, and the officials of the C. O. R. and the Hampton and St. Martins Railway. Prayers were offered by several of the delegates, and the proceedings were brought to a close by the congregation joining hands and singing God With You Till We Meet Again. The convention was a good one. The delegates left for their home on Thursday morning. The eight months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Puddington was interred here on Wednesday morning.

The house of William Fraser, Fairville, was entirely destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. This is some insurance. A quiet funeral took place at the residence of William Porter, uncle of the bride, on Wednesday evening, when Neil Smith and Miss Isabelle Porter were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Townsend, only immediate relatives and a few friends were present. The happy couple will reside here. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sherwood, of Upland, are visiting Mrs. Sherwood's mother, Mrs. Joseph Couron.

There have been quite a number of cases of diphtheria in the city the past week or two, but it is thought the spread of the disease has been checked, as no new cases have been reported during the last two days. Within the past few days five cards have been removed from houses in various parts of the city.
