

President of Big Manufacturing Concern Says Semi-Weekly Telegraph is Best Advertising Medium He Uses

COST PER INQUIRY is always interesting to advertisers, and the medium that produces the most inquiries and closes the most sales at the smallest cost is the one that all advertisers want to know about.

Here's something interesting about the SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH:

The president of one of the largest concerns of its kind in the country—a firm making an article useful to farmers—said that the Semi-Weekly Telegraph produced better results at less cost per inquiry than any publication he was using—and he uses some 150 in the United States and Canada.

He had the facts and figures tabulated, and according to his figures the average cost per inquiry in the Semi-Weekly Telegraph was 57 1-2c; the next lowest, $1.22; and one of the highest priced farm magazines, over $5.00.

This certainly shows which way the wind blows—and what's more interesting, the Semi-Weekly Telegraph can produce like results for you.

The farmer's trade is well worth going after and progressive advertisers are quickly seeing the value of bidding for this class of business.

A 'phone message or postal to address below will bring to you the desired information regarding circulation and rates.

Suppose we talk it over?

The Semi-Weekly Telegraph used in conjunction with the Daily Telegraph and Times makes one of the strongest advertising propositions in the east—and our combination rate makes the 28,000 circulation especially interesting.

PICKED HIS MOOSE

It does not frequently happen in any woods that there is presented to a sportsman the opportunity to take his choice from several moose, letting several pass by without firing a shot at them, until the right one chances along, and then it is "bagged." Such, however, happened Thursday in the woods near Seven Mile Lake, St. John county, when W. J. Hamilton, of Orlino, Philippine Islands, brought down a fine big bull with a spread of 84 inches, and fourteen points.

Mr. Hamilton has been visiting W. George Gray of Main street, for some time, and has been spending a little time on the latter's farm in the country. This week with Mr. Shaw of Lepreau as guide, he has been in the woods armed with a big game license and a rifle. Before he picked out his game, he had the novel sight of "looking them over" as they came down a herd of seven moose. Only one of the lot was a cow.

GRAND LODGE, S. OF T.,

RECOMMENDATIONS

Newcastle, Oct. 27.—The Grand Division S. of T. held a public mass meeting last night, addressed by Rev. S. J. McArthur, Mayor Penolin and Ald. Stuart and other members of grand division. There was a good musical and literary programme.

The semi-annual session was voted for next May, and next annual session for the fourth of October. The Grand Division elected yesterday forenoon, G. W. F. Elmer Staver as commissioner to enquire into a dispute over the ownership of Temperance Hall at Jacques River.

The afternoon report of the committee on the state of the order—Rev. C. Flemington, Peitocadia; Rev. R. H. Staver, Harcourt; Rev. W. J. Kirby, Albert; Rev. W. R. Robinson, St. John; and Rev. H. H. Stuart, Newcastle—was adopted section by section and as a whole. It read as follows:

Your committee on the state of the order beg to report that they find in the papers put into their hands at this annual session of the grand division, very much to encourage them.

Notwithstanding the usual leakage through withdrawals and suspensions, we are gratified to note that our present membership is 2,948, an increase of 363 over last year.

We are also pleased to note that the financial condition of the grand division is so good, there being a balance on hand of $222.65.

Our energetic G. W. P. has been in labor abundant throughout the year, visiting many divisions and by constant correspondence keeping in touch with all parts of the work.

Our appointed grand scribe has also done a lot of effective work for the order and for the cause of temperance and social reform, and has proved a worthy successor in the noble and faithful men who have filled this most important office in the past.

We note with great satisfaction the good work done by our grand patron, and the fact that he has secured the membership of the order in the past.

Some of our district divisions have done excellent work holding successful public meetings and encouraging local divisions. We congratulate our workers in the districts of St. John and Kent and Northumberland on the recent local option victories in the parishes of Lancaster and Nicholbrook.

We realize how much our work could be strengthened and extended by the employment of a lecturer and organizer, and would recommend the Grand Division to authorize the propagation committee to take the matter into consideration at once and appoint such officer, if finances permit.

In many places in this province serious complaints are being made as to the enforcement of our liquor laws as being enforced. In too many cases where fines would be imposed according to law, a loose system of periodical charges and fines amounting to a license fee is in vogue.

Your committee are of the opinion that local option districts there should be strict enforcement of the law, and we recommend that prompt action be taken to place the responsibility for negligence upon the guilty parties and enforce compliance with the law. To this end we recommend the immediate appointment of a commission by the Grand Division, to consist of five members, St. John and corresponding members in the main centres of population throughout the province whose object shall be to thoroughly investigate all violations of our liquor laws, ascertain who are the guilty parties and make representations accordingly.

Now that three-fourths of the population of the province of N. B. is under local option, it is imperative that the amount of the fine be increased, and that the amount of the fine be increased, and that the amount of the fine be increased.

We recommend that the Grand Division call upon the executive of the N. B. Temperance Federation to convene a representative gathering of all temperance orders and societies for the purpose of the goal of provincial prohibition.

The following were elected representatives to the National Division: Past G. W. P. J. D. Robertson, Edward McKelvey, J. H. Armstrong, J. R. Woodburn, C. N. Yroom, L. P. D. Riley, Rev. C. W. Hamilton, Rev. C. Flemington, Rev. W. J. Kirby, Hon. H. A. McEwen, Rev. S. H. Rogers, James G. Finckers, H. W. Whittaker, W. H. Patterson, S. P. McCavour, G. H. Forbes, Thos. Alborough, G. W. A. Jones, J. Falconer, past grand scribe, Col. A. J. Armstrong, G. E. Everett, Rev. W. E. Robinson, grand patron, Miss L. MacKibby, representatives at large, Mrs. E. S. Haminger.

The following are the standing committees: Propagation—The officers and the following: J. Stark, Col. Armstrong, S. P. McCavour, J. McG. Campbell, Edward McCarthy, Thos. Alborough, G. W. A. Jones, H. W. Boring, E. Gilmore, H. H. Harvey, Rev. W. J. Kirby, Geo. Jardine, W. H. Patterson, Chas. L. Hamilton and B. Fawcett.

Finance and audit—Col. Armstrong, S. P. McCavour, E. S. Haminger, Rev. State of the order—Rev. C. Flemington, Rev. R. H. Staver, Edward McCarthy, H. H. Stuart.

By-laws—Rev. W. J. Kirby, W. D. Rainin, Rev. W. R. Robinson. Health—Geo. N. Clarke, H. M. Ferguson, Rexton.

It was decided, in case an organizer was put in the field, to discontinue special plans to district divisions for propagation purposes. Three hundred journals were ordered printed. Resolutions of regret were passed at inability of Messrs. McCarthy and Woodburn to attend.

HIGHWAYMAN ROUTED

ON SALISBURY BRIDGE

Horace Mitton, Knocked Down by Desperate in the Dark, Overcame Assault and Choked Him Into Insensibility and Left Him.

Salisbury, N. B., Oct. 30.—Horace Mitton, a young man whose home is just across the Petitcodiac river bridge from this village, was attacked by a highwayman on Saturday night. He was on his way home after spending the evening with friends in the village. As the night was rather cold he buttoned up his ulster which he wore and was walking along with his hands in his pockets when, about the centre of the covered span of the bridge, which is dark at night, he was suddenly set upon by a husky desperado. The man, who evidently aimed for Mr. Mitton's face, struck a little low and the blow caught him in the throat, knocking him down. He then pounced upon Mr. Mitton with the evident intent of robbery, but Mr. Robber reckoned without his host. Mr. Mitton was not by any means knocked out, and after a rough and tumble tussle with the robber, Mr. Mitton succeeded in getting him into a crotch of the bridge, and in so doing, as Mr. Mitton had nothing to tie the chap with and was not within hailing distance of assistance, and fearing that the fellow might have a pal, Mr. Mitton left him lying on the bridge and continued on his way home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Marney, of Amherst, spent Sunday in Salisbury, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bleasdale.

W. J. Frites and young son, of Dorchester, spent Sunday and the holiday with their parents here.

THE CLARK CASE

MR. SANFORD HOME

Prisoner to Be Brought Here Soon—The Amounts Involved—Not Such "Punk" Work After All.

C. F. Sanford, of Bathmill, Ewing & Sanford, who has been in New York in connection with the Clark case, returned yesterday to St. John from Ottawa, to which city he went in connection with the proceedings necessary to secure extradition papers.

Mr. Sanford said yesterday that there was nothing he could say about the case except that the formalities in connection with the extradition would be completed within a week or two and that Clark would be brought to St. John and placed on trial.

Regarding the accusations against the prisoner, Mr. Sanford declined to speak, saying that these would come out in the course of the trial.

Clark is charged with larceny, and so far as the Bank of New Brunswick is concerned it is understood that the amount for which he is held responsible is $25,000. Recently several states of the American Union passed laws making it illegal for a prisoner to be extradited merely on his own consent. The new law of New York with respect to extradition is intended to guard against cases of so-called "kidnaping" such as have come up in some of the more noted trials of late years. There is no difficulty about extradition in the present case, but certain formal papers have to be prepared at Ottawa and Washington before the prisoner can be transferred from one country to the other.

Clark is now held without bail, having been remanded for thirty days, but the extradition papers will be ready before that period expires and he will probably be brought to St. John within a week or two. He will be taken to the police court here, and held for trial at the next circuit court.

The New York Sun of Saturday, in its account of the proceedings in the Clark case in the Harlem police court said: "Frank M. Patterson, who is counsel here for the Bank of New Brunswick, the institution which has branches scattered throughout Canada, said last night that the two charges against Clark represented only a small part of his stealings. The total he said, would amount to $25,000. One hundred and ten thousand dollars more was stolen from the bank through the confidence methods of a gang of American crooks, of which Clark was supposed to have been a member, according to the lawyer."

Clark when arraigned in court seemed to feel disturbed and humiliated. The fact that he was charged with the theft of his letters as having "done a punk" work on the case, and the detectives were in some way disposed to remind the prisoner that his description was not precisely borne out by what had happened.

TWENTY-FOUR YEARS

IMPRISONMENT FOR "WHITE SLAVERY"

New York Judge Sentences Youth Accused by Young Girl.

New York, Oct. 28.—Judge Warren W. Foster in the court of general sessions yesterday sentenced Philip Solow, who was convicted recently on a charge of violating Section 2,400 of the penal law, to serve not less than twenty-four years and not more than thirty-four years at hard labor in the state prison.

Solow was convicted on the complaint of Miss Eloise Wendt, a seventeen-year-old girl, who said that she had been taken from her home, in Pittsburg, and had been forced into a life of "white slavery." Solow, who is twenty-one years old, fainted as he was being taken back to the Tombs.

In imposing sentence Judge Foster said: "Solow, I do not care to perpetrate a pun, but I want to observe that your name is appropriate to so vile a creature as you. There is nothing in your name that demands mercy for you and I am going to give you the limit allowed by law. I will fine you $5,000 which means that, as you are without financial means, you will be required to work out the same rate of $1 for each day. This will occur in ten years, and not less than ten years and not more than twenty in Sing Sing. The state of New York will stamp out the white slave traffic."

Miss Wendt was taken in charge by Father Lynch, of the Catholic Protective League.

THWARTED AMBITION IN RUSSIA

Another curious resemblance between fact and fiction is exemplified in the career of Dmitry Bogrov, assassin of Premier Stolypin, and Razumov, the hero of Joseph Conrad's recently published novel, Under Western Eyes. Bogrov was born a member of the Social Revolutionary group and a police spy. Razumov, in Under Western Eyes, is believed by his fellow-students at the St. Petersburg University to be an active and enthusiastic revolutionist. The only difference between the police comrade who has discovered the police a comrade who has discovered his protection after committing an assassination, and later, having become a government agent, in the confidence of both sides, makes plain in Under Western Eyes to the western reader the extraneous difficulties which beset the ambitious liberal Russian youth.
